appear spontaneous for instance a workplace shooting by a disgruntled employee the deed is carefully thought out and prepared for in advance Another factor that consistently emerges in conversations with killers who have committed the most heinous of acts is the total absence of remorse or any notion of moral responsibility Murder appears to be easy for these criminals and they kill with a feeling of complete impunity Levin also notes the skillfully deceptive facades that such murderers are able to affect They are extremely adept liars he admits to having been fooled who enjoy playing mind games even though outwardly they seem above suspicion This is one reason they are so dangerous and difficult for investigators to track down and prosecute This chilling glimpse into the minds of some of the worst criminals makes a valuable contribution to criminology and is a must read for both true crime buffs and law enforcement professionals
