On Four Modern Humanists Arthur R. Evans, 2015 Five experts present their viewpoints on four of the most important figures in recent intellectual and cultural history Professor Egon Schwarz evaluates Hofmannsthal as a critic Professors C V Bock and Lothar Helbing combine forces in an analysis of Gundolf Professor Yakov Malkiel has provided an evocative ornately styled document luimain on Kantorowicz Professor Evans presents the first substantial study of Curtius The combined insight of the authors gives us a new and better understanding of these cultural figures their associations with and influences on each other and the broad impact they still have Originally published in 1970 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 On Four Modern Humanists Arthur R Evans Jr., 2015-03-08 Five experts present their viewpoints on four of the most important figures in recent intellectual and cultural history Professor Egon Schwarz evaluates Hofmannsthal as a critic Professors C V Bock and Lothar Helbing combine forces in an analysis of Gundolf Professor Yakov Malkiel has provided an evocative ornately styled document luimain on Kantorowicz Professor Evans presents the first substantial study of Curtius The combined insight of the authors gives us a new and better understanding of these cultural figures their associations with and influences on each other and the broad impact they still have Originally published in 1970 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Princeton Sourcebook in Comparative Literature David Damrosch, Natalie Melas, Mbongiseni Buthelezi, 2021-06-08 Key essays on comparative literature from the eighteenth century to today As comparative literature reshapes itself in today's globalizing age it is essential for students and teachers to look deeply into the discipline's history and its present possibilities The Princeton Sourcebook in Comparative Literature is a wide ranging anthology of classic essays and important recent statements on the mission and methods of comparative literary studies This pioneering collection brings together thirty two pieces from foundational statements by Herder Madame de Sta l and Nietzsche to work by a range of the most influential comparatists writing today including Lawrence Venuti Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and Franco Moretti Gathered here are manifestos and counterarguments essays in definition and debates on method by scholars and critics from the United States Europe Asia Africa and Latin America giving a unique overview of comparative study in the words of some of its most important practitioners With selections extending from the beginning of comparative study through the years of intensive theoretical inquiry and on to contemporary discussions of the world's literatures The Princeton Sourcebook in Comparative Literature helps readers navigate a rapidly evolving discipline in a dramatically changing world
