On Histories And Stories Selected Essays:

On Histories and Stories A. S. Byatt, 2001-03-10 The interplay between fiction and history forms the core of Byatt's essays as she explores historical storytelling and the translation of historical fact into fiction

On Histories and Stories A. S. Byatt, 2002-03-30 In a series of essays on the complicated relations between reading writing and remembering A S Byatt sorts the modish from the merely interesting and the truly good to arrive at a new view of British writing in our time Whether writing about the renaissance of the historical novel discussing her own translation of historical fact into fiction or exploring the recent European revival of interest in myth folklore and fairytale Byatt's abiding concern here is with the interplay of fiction and history

History and Representation in Ford Madox Ford's Writings Joseph Wiesenfarth, 2004 History and Representation in Ford Madox Ford's Writings explores the idea of history across various genres fiction autobiography books about places and cultures criticism and poetry I wanted the Novelist in fact to appear in his really proud position as historian of his own time wrote Ford The twenty leading specialists assembled for this volume consider his writing about twentieth century events especially the First World War and also his representations of the past particularly in his fine trilogy about Henry VIII and Katharine Howard The Fifth Queen Ford's provocative dealings with the relationship between fiction and history is shown to anticipate postmodern thinking about historiography and narrative The collection includes essays by two acclaimed novelists Nicholas Delbanco and Alan Judd assessing Ford's grasp of literary history and his place in it

Narrative Desire and Historical Reparations Timothy Gauthier, 2013-10-15 This book examines and explains the obsession with history in the contemporary British novel It frames these historical novels as expressions of narrative desire highlighting the reciprocal relationship between a desire to disclose and to rid ourselves of anxieties elicited by the past Scrutinizing representative novels from Byatt McEwan and Rushdie contemporary fiction is revealed as capable of advocating a viable ethical stance and as a form of authentic commentary Our anxieties often exist in response to what might be perceived as the oppression or eradication of values whether this is through the modern repudiation of Victorian principles Byatt the Western rethinking of Enlightenment narratives in light of the Holocaust McEwan or pluralism threatened by religious fundamentalism Rushdie Each of these novelists differentially employs postmodern artifice sometimes as a way to reject the notion of historical construction sometimes to advocate for it but always to bring us closer to what the author believes are significant values and truths rather than relativism The representative qualities of these novels serve to highlight themes concerns and anxieties present in many of the works of each author and by extension those of their contemporaries

The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction Areti Dragas, 2014-08-31 Focusing on the figure of the storyteller this study breaks new ground in the approach to reading contemporary literature by identifying a growing interest in storytelling For the last thirty years contemporary fiction has been influenced by theoretical discourses textuality and writing Only since the rise of postcolonialism have academic critics been more overtly interested in stories where high theory frameworks are less applicable However as we move through various contemporary contexts engaging with postcolonial identities and hybridity to narratives of disability and evolutionary accounts of group and individual survival a common feature of all is the centrality of story which posits both the idea of survival and the passing on of traditions The Return of the Storyteller in Contemporary Fiction closely examines this preoccupation with story and storytelling through a close reading of six contemporary international novelists that are either about actual storytellers or engage with the figure of the storyteller revealing how death of the author has given birth to the storyteller Adventurous Women in

Contemporary American Historical Fiction Jeannette King, 2022-03-10 This book brings together for the first time nine groundbreaking historical novels by women from the United States Canada and Latin America united by their focus on female adventurers These novels introduce the neglected women of history real and imagined who accompanied their menfolk to the New World and enabled its settlement or colonisation Familiar novelists include Isabel Allende Audrey Thomas and Jane Smiley but this book also introduces less familiar writers who have produced richly textured and densely historical novels In addition to putting women back into history these writers engage with the literature of the past including the American canon of male fiction which dominated literary history before the intervention of feminist scholars The book begins with an introduction to the history of historical fiction and provides a theoretical historical and geographical context for the novels themselves Discourses and Narrations in the Biosciences Brian Hurwitz, Paola Spinozzi, 2011 Discourses and Narrations in the Biosciences investigates the forms of writing in which scientific claims are formulated and announced Argumentative strategies compositional rules and figurative expressions in communication and narrativization of scientific knowledge are the focus of interdisciplinary contributions by humanities and science scholars The first part of the book dedicated to Rhetorical and Epistemological Aspects of Science Writing addresses how scientific pursuits and methods feed into multi level texts that generate responses within science society and culture The second part entitled Bioscientific Discourses and Narrations examines popularisations and fictionalizations of science in relation to diversity deviancy ageing illness reproduction the evolution of humankind mathematical models of biomedical systems and the myth of the heroic scientist Assessing the narrative impetus and command of literary and meta discursive strategies shown by contemporary science writers enhances understanding of the methods and conventions through which the biosciences produce knowledge

Writing Marketing Stephen Brown, 2005-08-24 Marketing is a very diverse discipline dealing with everything from the costs of globalization to the benefits of money back guarantees However there is one thing that all marketing academics share They are writers They publish or perish Their careers are advanced and their reputations are enhanced by the written word Despite its importance writing is rarely discussed much less written about by marketing scholars It is one of the least understood yet most significant academic competencies It is a competency in need of careful study Writing Marketing is the first such study It offers a detailed reading of five renowned marketing writers ranging from Ted Levitt to Morris Holbrook and draws lessons that can be adopted with profit by everyone else Although it is not a how to book there are no lengthy lists of dos and don'ts Writing Marketing reveals that the rules of good writing are good for nothing Written by Stephen Brown whose own writing skills are much commented upon Writing Marketing is insightful illuminating and iconoclastic It is a must read for every marketing academic irrespective of their methodological inclinations or philosophical preferences Nation & Novel Patrick Parrinder,2008 Patrick Parrinder traces English prose fiction from its late medieval origins through its stories of rogues and criminals family rebellions and suffering heroines to the contemporary novels of immigration He provides both a comprehensive survey and a new interpretation of the importance of the English novel Genetics and the Novel Paul Hamann-Rose,2024-03-13 Genetics and the Novel Reimagining Life Through Fiction argues that literary fiction has reimagined life in the age of genetics The new genetic paradigm has proposed to rewrite core assumptions about such fundamental aspects of life as the nature of kinship and biological connection human environmental relations or the link between biology and art Investigating major texts of genetic fiction by A S Byatt Ian McEwan Simon Mawer and Margaret Atwood this monograph offers the first systematic study of how these assumptions about life itself have been renegotiated through the contemporary novel's engagement with genetic science This book identifies a significant new phase in the novel's aesthetic exploration of life and demonstrates that the novel emerges as the cultural form uniquely positioned to engage both the imaginative and concrete challenges raised by genetic science for the lifeworlds of the new millennium Women Writing the Neo-Victorian Novel Kathleen Renk,2020-07-27 Women Writing the Neo Victorian Novel Erotic Victorians focuses on the work of British Irish and Commonwealth women writers such as A S Byatt Emma Donoghue Sarah Waters Helen Humphreys Margaret Atwood and Ahnaf Soueif among others and their attempts to re-envision the erotic Kathleen Renk argues that women writers of the neo Victorian novel are far more philosophical in their approach to representing the erotic than male writers and draw more heavily on Victorian conventions that would proscribe the graphic depiction of sexual acts thus leaving more to the reader's imagination This book addresses the following questions Why are women writers drawn to the neo Victorian genre and what does this reveal about the state of contemporary feminism How do classical and contemporary forms of the erotic play into the ways in which women writers address the Victorian woman question How exactly is the erotic used to underscore women's creative potential Marketing Literature C. Squires,2007-10-11 This is an important study of the publishing of contemporary writing in Britain It analyzes the changing social economic and cultural environment of the publishing industry in the 1990s 2000s and investigates its impact on genre authorship and reading It includes case studies of Trainspotting and the His Dark Materials trilogy English Fiction Since 1984 B. Finney,2006-10-10 This book focuses on representative novels by eleven key English novelists who have broken from the realist novel of the post Second World War period They have reacted to the Thatcherite revolution that thrust Britain into the modern world of multi national capitalism by giving unusual fictional shape to the impact of global events and culture

Narrative Form Suzanne Keen, 2015-07-28 This revised and expanded handbook concisely introduces narrative form to advanced students of fiction and creative writing with refreshed references and new discussions of cognitive approaches to narrative nonfiction and narrative emotions

Wonder Tales in the Fiction of A. S. Byatt Alexandra Cheira, 2023-01-19 This volume provides sustained critical attention on Byatt's wonder tales both the stand alone tales and those which are embedded in the wider frame of a novel or novella In this light it examines Byatt's claim that her wonder tales are modern literary stories and they do play quite consciously with a postmodern creation and recreation of old forms through a revisitation of the wonder tale in a productive dialogue with tradition as an expanded recognition of this fertile creative critical dialogue with regards to the significance of the wonder tale in Byatt's fictional work The book evinces a fresh variety of conceptions and approaches to Byatt's wonder tales some spanning several tales and others focussing on a specific wonder tale all thoroughly observant of the nature and workings of the relationship between story or novel and genre or tale and theoretically informed by innovative critical approaches

Narrative Research in Health and Illness Brian Hurwitz, Trisha Greenhalgh, Vieda Skultans, 2008-04-15 This comprehensive book celebrates the coming of age of narrative in health care It uses narrative to go beyond the patient's story and address social cultural ethical psychological organizational and linguistic issues This book has been written to help health professionals and social scientists to use narrative more effectively in their everyday work and writing The book is split into three comprehensive sections Narratives Counter narratives and Meta narratives

The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature David Scott Kastan, 2006-03-03 From folk ballads to film scripts this new five volume encyclopedia covers the entire history of British literature from the seventh century to the present focusing on the writers and the major texts of what are now the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland In five hundred substantial essays written by major scholars the Encyclopedia of British Literature includes biographies of nearly four hundred individual authors and a hundred topical essays with detailed analyses of particular themes movements genres and institutions whose impact upon the writing or the reading of literature was significant An ideal companion to The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature this set will prove invaluable for students scholars and general readers For more information including a complete table of contents and list of contributors please visit www.oup.com/us/ehl

Contemporary Fiction and the Uses of Theory M. Greaney, 2006-08-25 This topical study examines the novelizations of radical literary theory in the work of A S Byatt Angela Carter Umberto Eco John Fowles Richard Powers and many other leading novelists It offers a comprehensive analysis of the post theoretical novel and traces an alternative history of the theory revolution in recent literary fiction

A.S. Byatt Alexa Alfer, 2013-01-18 This comprehensive study of A S Byatt's work spans virtually her entire career and offers insightful readings of all of Byatt's works of fiction up to and including her Man Booker shortlisted novel The Children's Book 2009 The authors combine an accessible overview of Byatt's oeuvre to date with close critical analysis of all her major works Uniquely the book also considers Byatt's critical writings and journalism situating her beyond the immediate context of her fiction The authors argue that Byatt is not only important as a storyteller but also as an eminent critic and public intellectual Advancing the concept of critical storytelling as a hallmark of Byatt's project as a writer the authors retrace Byatt's wide ranging engagement with both literary and critical traditions This results in positioning Byatt in the wider literary landscape This book has broad appeal including fellow researchers undergraduate and postgraduate students plus general enthusiasts of Byatt's work

Imagination and the Contemporary Novel John J. Su, 2011-05-26 Imagination and the Contemporary Novel examines the global preoccupation with the imagination among literary authors with ties to former colonies of the British Empire since the 1960s John Su draws on a wide range of authors including Peter Ackroyd Monica Ali Julian Barnes Andr Brink J M Coetzee John Fowles Amitav Ghosh Nadine Gordimer Hanif Kureishi Salman Rushdie and Zadie Smith This study rehabilitates the category of imagination in order to understand a broad range of contemporary Anglophone literature The responses of such literature to shifts in global capitalism have often been misunderstood by the dominant categories of literary studies the postmodern and the postcolonial As both an insightful critique into the themes that drive a range of today's best novelists and a bold restatement of what the imagination is and what it means for contemporary culture this book breaks new ground in the study of twenty first century literature
