On Making:

On Making Sense Ernesto Javier Martínez, 2012-10-31 On Making Sense juxtaposes texts produced by black Latino and Asian queer writers and artists to understand how knowledge is acquired and produced in contexts of racial and gender oppression From James Baldwin's 1960s novel Another Country to Margaret Cho's turn of the century stand up comedy these works all exhibit a preoccupation with intelligibility or the labor of making sense of oneself and of making sense to others In their efforts to make sense these writers and artists argue against merely being accepted by society on society's terms but articulate a desire to confront epistemic injustice an injustice that affects people in their capacity as knowers and as communities worthy of being known The book speaks directly to critical developments in feminist and queer studies including the growing ambivalence to antirealist theories of identity and knowledge In so doing it draws on decolonial and realist theory to offer a new framework to understand queer writers and artists of color as dynamic social theorists Faith
