Pragmatics and the Philosophy of Mind: Thought in language Marcelo Dascal, 1983-01-01 This volume deals with the relation between pragmatics and the philosophy of mind Unlike most of the books written on the subject it does not defend the view that a specific form of dependence holds between language and thought to the exclusion of all other possible relations Taking pragmatics in its original sense of that part of semiotics that is concerned with the users of a semiotic system the book analyses the nature of the mental processes and states mirrored in language use Drawing on results from cognitive psychology the philosophy of mind the philosophy of language linguistics etc a unified view of the mental dimension in the use of language both as an instrument of communication and as an instrument of thought is offered After offering a tour d horizon of the relationship between language and mind this volume deals with the way thought is manifested in language The Thought at the Back of the Mind Annette Aronowicz, 2024-10-31 The Thought at the Back of the Mind is a plea for the centrality of the humanities as a vehicle of knowledge about ourselves and about the reality around us It illustrates the interpretative arts through Aronowicz s close reading of Charles P guy Don DeLillo Bernard d Espagnat Wys awa Szymborska and Marilynne Robinson Each author exhibits a complex relationship to the narratives emanating from the sciences wonder terror appreciation resistance All in different ways point to a dimension of the human that cannot be captured through the scientific method For the most part they make their points not through abstract argument but through an exploration of daily life Each writer gives pride of place to metaphor humor and or intuition as indispensable conduits to the reality within and without us The Thought at the Back of the Mind explores the religious dimension embedded in the narratives emanating from the natural sciences as well as in the quest to formulate what eludes them These two contrary dimensions of our relation to the sciences in their various configurations reveal us to ourselves in our historical moment
