American Exceptionalism in the Age of Globalization William V. Spanos, 2008-01-24 In American Exceptionalism in the Age of Globalization William V Spanos explores three writers Graham Greene Philip Caputo and Tim O'Brien whose work devastatingly critiques the U.S. intervention in Vietnam and exposes the brutality of the Vietnam War Utilizing poststructuralist theory particularly that of Heidegger Althusser Foucault and Said Spanos argues that the Vietnam War disclosed the dark underside of the American exceptionalist ethos and in so doing speaks directly to America's war on terror in the aftermath of 9/11 To support this argument Spanos undertakes close readings of Greene's The Quiet American Caputo's A Rumor of War and O'Brien's Going After Cacciato all of which bear witness to the self-destruction of American exceptionalism Spanos retrieves the spectral witness that has been suppressed since the war but that now in the wake of the quagmire in Iraq has returned to haunt America's post-9/11 project for the new American century
