The Secret Country Sarah Robertson, 2007 The Secret Country is the first monograph on the work of the contemporary American novelist Jayne Anne Phillips Through detailed and innovative textual analysis this study considers the southern aspects of Phillips writing Robertson demonstrates the importance of Phillips place within the southern literary canon by identifying the echoes of William Faulkner Katherine Anne Porter and Edgar Allan Poe that permeate her work Phillips complex attachments to a regional past are explored through both psychoanalytical and historical materialist approaches revealing not only the writer's distinctly southern preoccupations but also her reflections on contemporary American society Tracing the family dynamics in Phillips work from the turn of the twentieth century to the present this book examines the effects of increased modernization and capitalization on everyday interactions and questions the nature of the author's backward glance to the past This volume is of interest for a wide audience particularly students and scholars of contemporary southern and American literature

Hebrew Wordplay and Septuagint Translation Technique in the Fourth Book of the Psalter Elizabeth H. P. Backfish, 2019-07-25 This volume examines numerous Hebrew wordplays not identified and discussed in previous research and the technique of the Septuagint translators by offering another criterion of evaluation essentially their concern about the style of translating Hebrew into Greek Elizabeth Backfish's study analyzes seventy four wordplays employed by the Hebrew poets of Psalms 90 106 and how the Septuagint renders Hebrew wordplay in Greek Backfish estimates that the Septuagint translators were able to render 31% of the Hebrew semantic and phonetic wordplays twenty four total most of which required some sort of transformation or change to the text in order to function in Greek After providing a thorough summary of research methods on wordplay definitions and research methodology Backfish summarizes all examples of wordplay within the Fourth Psalter and concludes with examples of the wordplay's replication similar rendition or textual variation in the Septuagint Emphasising the creativity and ingenuity of the Septuagint translators work in passages that commentators often too quickly identify as the results of scribal error or a variant Vorlage from the Masoretic text Backfish shows how the aptitude and flexibility displayed in the translation technique also contributes to conversations in modern translation studies

The Unnaming of Aliass Karin Bolender, 2020 The Unnaming of Aliass performs a paradoxical quest for wildly untold stories in the company of one special donkey companion a femammal of the species Equus asinus and significantly a registered American Spotted Ass Beast of burden that she is this inscrutable companion helped carry a ridiculous load of human longings and quandaries into a maze of hot harrowing miles across the US South from Mississippi to Virginia in the summer of 2002 all the while carrying her own onerous and unreckoned burdens and histories Over two decades the original journey evolved from the cracking open of a quasi Western novel that never was by an implosive pun into an ongoing philosophical and assthetic adventure a hybrid roadside and barnyard based living art practice wherein Aliass un names something much harder to grasp than the body of a lovely little ass protagonist setting and traditional Western narratives turn inside out around this name that ain t Through a deeply dug in questioning of its own authorial assumptions The Unnaming of Aliass makes space for untold autobiographies and bright dusty lacunae tracing ineffable tales through the tangled shapes and shadows that interweave in any environment Relevance Theory

Figuration, and Continuity in Pragmatics Agnieszka Piskorska,2020-05-20 The chapters in this volume apply the methodology of relevance theory to develop accounts of various pragmatic phenomena which can be associated with the broadly conceived notion of style Some of them are devoted to central cases of figurative language metaphor metonymy puns irony while others deal with issues not readily associated with figurativeness from multimodal communicative stimuli through strong and weak implicatures to discourse functions of connectives particles and participles Other chapters shed light on the use of specific communicative styles ranging from hate speech to humour and humorous irony Using the relevance theoretic toolkit to analyse a spectrum of style related issues this volume makes a case for the model of pragmatics founded upon inference and continuity understood as the non existence of sharply delineated boundaries between classes of communicative phenomena

Severn, 2018-09-13 Shakespeare as Jukebox Musical is the first book length study of a growing performance phenomenon musical adaptations of Shakespeare's plays in which characters sing existing popular songs as one of their modes of communication John Severn shows how these highly allusive works give rise to the pleasures of collaborative reception and also lend themselves to political work particularly in terms of identity politics and a valorisation of diversity Drawing on musical theatre history adaptation theory Shakespeare studies and musicology the book develops a critical approach that allows jukebox musical versions of Shakespeare to be understood and valued both for their political potential and for the experiences they offer to audiences as artistic responses to Shakespeare Case studies from the USA the UK and Australia demonstrate how these works open new windows on Shakespeare's plays and their performance traditions on the wider jukebox musical trend and on adaptation as an art form
