James Tucker, 2005-07-01 Very few of the titles whether fiction or non take a serious analytical look at the Bible as a biblical scholar or theologian would This is where God's Inferno differs from the majority It utilizes logical rational reasoning to analyze what that Bible actually says not what most have been lead to believe It seriously attacks the present Christian faith as their tenants and doctrines are based on a very faulty interpretation of what the Bible actually says It maintains and proves the god of the Old Testament is not the Supreme God but merely what the Jewish people of Israel pictured their god to be Naturally if he is not the Supreme God then Jesus is not the Son of that Supreme God but may have been the son of that hateful murderous vengeful god of the Old Testament From the founding of Christianity it traces its impact through the first 1500 1600 years of the Catholic Church the keepers of the faith during that time It documents the Crusades the Inquisitions and the Reformation as well as the many married priests Popes who fathered children and under aged leading fathers of the Church Finally it attempts to motivate the indifferent Christian to utilize his God given mind to seriously think about what they actually believe and to conduct their lives according to that belief

Saving Face Stephen Pattison,2016-04-01 Faces are all around us and fundamentally shape both everyday experience and our understanding of people To lose face is to be alienated and experience shame to be enfaced is to enjoy the fullness of life In theology as in many other disciplines faces as both physical phenomena and symbols have not received the critical appreciative attention they deserve This pioneering book explores the nature of face and enfacement both human and divine Pattison discusses questions concerning what face is how important face is in human life and relationships and how we might understand face both as a physical phenomenon and as a series of socially inflected symbols and metaphors about the self and the body Examining what face means in terms of inclusion and exclusion in contemporary human society and how it is related to shame Pattison reveals what the experience of people who have difficulties with faces tell us about our society our understandings of and our reactions to face Exploring this ubiquitous yet ignored area of both contemporary human experience and of the Christian theological tradition Pattison explains how Christian theology understands face both human and divine and the insights might it offer to understanding face and enfacement Does God in any sense have a physically visible face What is the significance of having an enfacéd or faceless God for Christian life and practice What does the vision of God mean now If we want to take face and defacing shame seriously and to get them properly into perspective we may need to change our theology thought and practice changing our ways of thinking about God and about theology

The Weight of Preaching Rick Harrington,2015-12-03 The nature of a preacher is that of a herald one commissioned and sent by another to speak his message in his behalf to a recipient The Weight of Preaching develops a workable theology of the preachers task in this role commissioned by God to proclaim the Good News Even in the Wests postmodern culture where people have come to doubt the idea of objective truth the preacher still serves to herald Gods enduring truth Author Rick Harrington builds upon his service as a senior pastor his doctoral study of preaching and his exposure to multiple cultures to fashion a guide valuable to younger lay leaders seminarians and pastors alike as well as for

It is easy to view the world without hope to stand back and feel helpless But what if that were simply not true What if we weren't victims who were done for and done to What if we started to set a different standard by living fully creatively and spiritually Brian Draper shows how we can change the world around us by first changing ourselves What Matters Most is incisive and full of practical spiritual wisdom Draper goes in search of the positive the infinite and the good and wants to pass them on It is time to see the world with fresh eyes to be inspired and to help others But it's not just about spreading a positive message it's about transforming lives because transformed people transform people Change starts with us And that's when it spreads Hunting Magic Eels Richard Beck,2024-01-02

We live in a secular age a world dominated by science and technology Increasing numbers of us don't believe in God anymore We don't expect miracles We've grown up and left those fairy tales behind culturally and personally Yet five hundred years ago the world was very much enchanted It was a world where God existed and the devil was real It was a world full of angels and demons It was a world of holy wells and magical eels But since the Protestant Reformation and the beginning of the Enlightenment the world in the West at least has become increasingly disenchanted While this might be taken as evidence of a crisis of belief Richard Beck argues that it's actually a crisis of attention God hasn't gone anywhere but we've lost our capacity to see God The rising tide of disenchantment has profoundly changed our religious imaginations and led to a loss of the holy expectation that we can be interrupted by the sacred and divine But it doesn't have to be this way Hunting Magic Eels shows us that with attention and an intentional cultivated capacity to experience God as a living vital presence in our lives we can cultivate an enchanted faith in a skeptical age This new paperback edition includes a foreword from Sean Palmer as well as four new additional chapters including Why Good People Need God Live Your Beautiful Life and The Primacy of the Invisible New Morning Mercies for Teens Paul David Tripp,2024-03-07
