internationally as the need to provide more efficient and cost effective care becomes increasingly urgent Improving the health of a nation begins with the individual and recent developments in genomics and mobile networked information technologies have regenerated interest in individualizing healthcare Harnessing the diversity and ubiquity of available ICT may be one of the keys to enabling more accessible healthcare across both geographic and socio economic divides This book presents the proceedings of the 2013 Information Technology and Communication in Health ITCH 2013 conference This conference entitled Available Tailored and Closer was held in Victoria BC Canada in February 2013 The theme of the ITCH 2013 conference was realizing the enabling potential of information and communications technology worldwide Papers in this book are arranged according to subject Sections include electronic health records telecare telemedicine and telelaboratory public health informatics clinical decision support systems human computer interaction patient safety and healthcare modeling among others This book will be of interest to all those involved in providing improved and cost effective healthcare worldwide

ENC Focus, 1994     Information Structure and Reference Tracking in Complex Sentences Rik van Gijn, Jeremy Hammond, Dejan Mati?, Saskia van Putten, Ana Vilacy Galucio, 2014-03-15 This volume is dedicated to exploring the crossroads where complex sentences and information management more specifically information structure and reference tracking come together Complex sentences are a highly relevant but understudied domain for studying notions of IS and RT On the one hand a complex sentence can be studied as a mini unit of discourse consisting of two or more elements describing events situations or processes with its own internal information structural and referential organization On the other hand complex sentences can be studied as parts of larger discourse structures such as narratives or conversations in terms of how their information structural characteristics relate to this wider context The book offers new perspectives for the study of the interaction between complex sentences and information management and moreover adds typological breadth by focusing on lesser studied languages from several parts of the world

Perspectives on Linguistic Pragmatics Alessandro Capone, Franco Lo Piparo, Marco Carapezza, 2013-11-26 This volume provides insight into linguistic pragmatics from the perspective of linguists who have been influenced by philosophy Theory of Mind and perspectives on point of view are presented along with other topics including semantics vs semiotics clinical pragmatics explicatures cancellability of explicatures interactive language use reference common ground presupposition definiteness logophoricity and point of view in connection with pragmatic inference pragmemes and language games pragmatics and artificial languages the mechanism of the form content correlation from a pragmatic point of view amongst other issues relating to language use Relevance Theory is introduced as an important framework allowing readers to familiarize themselves with technical details and linguistic terminology This book follows on from the first volume both contain the work of world renowned experts who discuss theories relevant to pragmatics Here the relationship between semantics and pragmatics is explored conversational explicatures are a way to bridge the gap in semantics between underdetermined logical forms and full propositional content

These volumes are written in an accessible way and work well both as a stimulus to further research and as a guide to less experienced researchers and students who would like to know more about this vast complex and difficult field of inquiry
