On Not Speaking Chinese:

On Not Speaking Chinese Ien Ang, 2001 Focusing on tensions between Asia and the West at global and national levels Ien Ang reflects on the disparate meanings of Chineseness in the contemporary world On Not Speaking Chinese Ien Ang, 2005-07-08 In this major new book leading cultural thinker Ien Ang engages with urgent questions of identity in an age of globalisation and diaspora The starting point for Ang's discussion is the experience of visiting Taiwan Ang a person of Chinese descent born in Indonesia and raised in the Netherlands found herself faced with an almost insurmountable difficulty surrounded by people who expected her to speak to them in Chinese She writes It was the beginning of an almost decade long engagement with the predicaments of Chineseness in diaspora In Taiwan I was different because I couldn't speak Chinese in the West I was different because I looked Chinese From this autobiographical beginning Ang goes on to reflect upon tensions between Asia and the West at a national and global level and to consider the disparate meanings of Chineseness in the contemporary world She offers a critique of the increasingly aggressive construction of a global Chineseness and challenges Western tendencies to equate Chinese with Asian identity Ang then turns to the West exploring the paradox of Australia's identity as a Western country in the Asian region and tracing Australia's uneasy relationship with its Asian neighbours from the White Australia policy to contemporary multicultural society Finally Ang draws together her discussion of Asia and the West to consider the social and intellectual space of the in between arguing for a theorising not of difference but of togetherness in contemporary societies Encyclopedia of Diasporas Melvin Ember, Carol R. Ember, Ian Skoggard, 2004-11-30 Immigration is a topic that is as important among anthropologists as it is the general public Almost every culture has experienced adaptation and assimilation when immigrating to a new country and culture usually leaving for what is perceived as a better life Not only does this diaspora change the country of adoption but also the country of origin Many large nations in the world have absorbed and continue to absorb large numbers of immigrants The foreseeable future will see a continuation of large scale immigration as many countries experience civil war and secessionist pressures Currently there is no reference work that describes the impact upon the immigrants and the immigrant societies relevant to the world's cultures and provides an overview of important topics in the world's diasporas The encyclopedia consists of two volumes covering three main sections Diaspora Overviews covers over 20 ethnic groups that have experienced voluntary or forced immigration These essays discuss the history behind the social economic and political reasons for leaving the original countries and the cultures in the new places Topics discusses the impact and assimilation that the immigrant cultures experience in their adopted cultures including the arts they bring the struggles they face and some of the cities that are in the forefront of receiving immigrant cultures Diaspora Communities include over 60 portraits of specific diaspora communities Each portrait follows a standard outline to facilitate comparisons The Encyclopedia of Diasporas can be used both to gain a general understanding of immigration and immigrants and to find out about particular cultures topics and communities It will prove of great value to researchers and students curriculum developers teachers and government officials It brings together the disciplines of anthropology social studies political studies international studies and immigrant and immigration studies

The Building of Chinese Ethnicity in Rome Violetta Ravagnoli, 2022-09-24 This book presents the history of Chinese migrations to Europe within a transcalar glocal perspective That is it moves between international national and local levels of analysis to describe the different constraints Chinese migrants deal with in their lives It problematizes and complicates ethnicity and identity and refers to controversial concepts like Roman ness and Chinese ness used as identity signifiers Ultimately by presenting the lives of ethnic Chinese living in Italy in both global and local context this book hopes to show the value of a glocal oral history of Chinese migrations

The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia John H. Walker, Glenn Banks, Minako Sakai, 2009-01-01 The Politics of the Periphery in Indonesia is a thought provoking examination of local politics and the dynamics of power at Indonesia s geographic and social margins After the fall of Suharto in 1998 and the introduction of a policy of decentralization in 2001 local stakeholders secured and consolidated decision making power and set about negotiating new relations with Jakarta The volume deals with power struggles and local national tensions looking among other things at resource control the historical roots of regional identity politics and issues relating to Chinese Indonesians The authors develop information in ways that transcend the post colonial territorial boundaries of Indonesia in the Malay Indonesian archipelago and use case studies to show how the changes described have galvanized Indonesian politics at the cultural and geographical peripheries

On Not Speaking Chinese Judith Squires, 1994 New Formations is a journal of cultural debate history and theory It brings new and challenging perspectives to bear on the categories that frame cultural analysis and political action The journal has covered issues ranging from the seduction of perversity to questions of nationalism and post colonialism Contributors open up new zones of enquiry whilst drawing new charts of understanding to explain new formations in contemporary life

In the Face of Diversity Nathan D. Gardner Molina, 2025-05-01 The unity or uniformity of the Chinese Australian community has been frequently referenced in many recent political popular and even academic discussions The oneness of the community is often described as latent and inevitable if not already a fact Yet many Chinese Australians have also aspirationally used collective terms to refer to themselves there have been perennial calls to unite and advance the community or have it speak with one voice But has a united or unitary Chinese Australian community ever actually existed If so would a united community be a means to an end or an end in itself And where would this community sit in contemporary multicultural Australia I Am You Are We Are attempts to answer to these questions it is a history of more than a dozen Chinese Australian community organisations from across the country over five decades that draws on the English and Chinese language materials these organisations have produced over the years as well as interviews with ten past and present leaders Instead of a single community the evidence demonstrates the existence of many diverse Chinese Australian communities Consequently the book advances two ideas

Chinese Australian unity presents itself as a chimera that inhabits the social space shared by Chinese Australians and has only ever been momentarily or partially grasped by community organisations. Imagining the Chinese Australian community has nonetheless produced real world outcomes the most prominent being a highly participatory style of Australian multiculturalism. These two ideas are woven through six moments in recent history that have been highly decisive for Chinese Australian communities. I Am You Are We conveys Chinese Australian history in clear and evocative prose while remaining academically authoritative and socially conscious. The result is a work that dismantles the prevailing myth of a single Chinese bloc to rebuild an appreciation of multiculturalism in Australia along with specific contributions made by Chinese Australian communities. Cultural Curiosity Josephine M.T. Khu, 2001-07-11 This anthology of autobiographical essays reveals the human side of the Chinese diaspora. Written by ethnic Chinese who were born outside of China these moving pieces describe the experience of growing up a visible minority and the subsequent journey each author made home.

Learning Chinese in Diasporic Communities Xiao Lan Curdt-Christiansen, Andy Hancock, 2014-07-15 This book brings together new theoretical perspectives and bilingual education models from different sociopolitical and cultural contexts across the globe in order to address the importance of sociocultural educational and linguistic environments that create enhance or limit the ways in which diasporic children and young people acquire the Chinese language. The chapters present a variety of research based studies on Chinese heritage language education and bilingual education drawing on detailed investigations of formal and informal educational input including language socialization in families community heritage language schools and government sponsored educational institutions. Exploring the many pathways of learning Chinese and being Chinese this volume also examines the complex nature of language acquisition and development involving language attitudes and ideologies as well as linguistic practices and identity formation. Learning Chinese in Diasporic Communities is intended for researchers teacher educators students and practitioners in the fields of Chinese language education and bilingual education and more broadly those concerned with language policy studies and sociolinguistics. Chinese

Diasporas Steven B. Miles, 2020-02-20 A concise and compelling survey of Chinese migration in global history centered on Chinese migrants and their families. Contested Modernities in Chinese Literature C. Laughlin, 2005-06-03 This book is a significant gathering of ideas on the subject of modern Chinese literature and culture of the past several years. The essays represent a wide spectrum of new approaches and new areas of subject matter that are changing the landscape of knowledge of modern and contemporary Chinese culture women's literature theatre performance film graphic arts popular literature as well as literature of the Chinese diaspora. These phenomena and the approaches to them manifest interconnected trajectories for new scholarship in the field: the rewriting of literary history the emergence of visual culture and the quotidian apocalypse the displacement of revolutionary romanticism and realism as central paradigms for cultural expression by the perspective of private everyday experience. Global Chinese Literature Jing Tsu, David Der-wei Wang, 2010-09-14 This path breaking collection of critical essays introduces a diverse range of approaches to open up the field of modern Chinese literature to new cross regional local and global analyses Each of the ten essays deals with a particular conceptual problem or case study of different locations and modalities of Chinese language or Sinophone production From language to music literature to popular culture minority politics to internal diaspora theories of sinography to China's quest for the Nobel Prize this volume brings together leading and new voices in the study of Chinese literature from a variety of comparative and intranational perspectives Contributors include scholars from Asia North America Europe and Southeast Asia It is an indispensable reference for anyone interested in contemporary China and the global politics of Sinophone literature This thought provoking anthology has opened up many fascinating questions Although its intended readership is scholars from literary studies anyone who is interested in the interplay between language ethnicity and identity should not miss it Zhengdao Ye The Australian National University Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation's quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture Mixed-Race Politics and Neoliberal Multiculturalism in South Korean Media Ji-Hyun Ahn, 2017-12-01 This book studies how the increase of visual representation of mixed race Koreans formulates a particular racial project in contemporary South Korean media It explores the moments of ruptures and disjuncture that biracial bodies bring to the formation of neoliberal multiculturalism a South Korean national racial project that re aligns racial lines under the nation's neoliberal transformation Specifically Ji Hyun Ahn examines four televised racial moments that demonstrate particular aspects of neoliberal multiculturalism by demanding distinct ways of re imagining what it means to be Korean in the contemporary era of globalization Taking a critical media cultural studies approach Ahn engages with materials from archives the popular press policy documents television commercials and television programs as an inter textual network that actively negotiates and formulates a new racialized national identity In doing so the book provides a rich analysis of the ongoing struggle over racial reconfiguration in South Korean popular media advancing an emerging scholarly discussion on race as a leading factor of social change in South Korea Chinese Subjectivities and the Beijing

Olympics , Gladys Pak Lei Chong,2017-03-06 Chinese Subjectivities and the Beijing Olympics develops the Foucauldian concept of productive power through examining the ways in which the Chinese government tried to mobilize the population to embrace its Olympic project through deploying various sets of strategies and tactics It argues that the multifaceted strategies tactics and discourses deployed by the Chinese authorities sustain an order of things and values in such a way that drive individuals to commit themselves actively to the goals of the party state The book examines how these processes of subjectification are achieved by zooming in on five specific groups of the population athletes young Olympic volunteers taxi drivers Chinese citizens targeted by place making projects and the Hong Kong population In doing so it probes critically into the role of individuals and how they take on the governmental ideas to become responsible autonomous subjects

Transnational Chinese Theatres Rossella Ferrari,2020-02-17 This is the first systematic study of networks of performance collaboration in the contemporary Chinese speaking world and of their interactions with the artistic communities of the wider East Asian region It investigates the aesthetics and politics of collaboration to propose a new transnational model for the analysis of Sinophone theatre cultures and to foreground the mobility and relationality of intercultural performance in East Asia The research draws on extensive fieldwork interviews with practitioners and direct observation of performances rehearsals and festivals in Asia and Europe It offers provocative close readings and discourse analysis of an extensive corpus of hitherto untapped sources including unreleased video materials and unpublished scripts production notes and archival documentation

Traces 2 Meaghan Morris,Brett De Bary,2001-01-01 This book explores complex relations between violence historical memory and the production of ethnicity and race Some essays analyze the panicked othering that has led to violence against Chinese Indonesians and to the little known massacres of Hui Muslims in nineteenth century China and of Cheju Islanders in Korea in 1948
