Time in Roman Religion Gary Forsythe, 2012-05-31 Religion is a major subfield of ancient history and classical studies and Roman religion in particular is usually studied today by experts in two rather distinct halves the religion of the Roman Republic covering the fifth through first centuries B C and the religious diversity of the Roman Empire spanning the first four centuries of our era In Time in Roman Religion author Gary Forsythe examines both the religious history of the Republic and the religious history of the Empire These six studies are unified by the important role played by various concepts of time in Roman religious thought and practice Previous modern studies of early Roman religion in Republican times have discussed how the placement of religious ceremonies in the calendar was determined by their relevance to agricultural or military patterns of early Roman life but modern scholars have failed to recognize that many aspects of Roman religious thought and behavior in later times were also preconditioned or even substantially influenced by concepts of time basic to earlier Roman religious history This book is not a comprehensive survey of all major aspects of Roman religious history spanning one thousand years Rather it is a collection of six studies that are bound together by a single analytical theme namely time Yet in the process of delving into these six different topics the study surveys a large portion of Roman religious history in a representative fashion from earliest times to the end of the ancient world and the triumph of Christianity The

Coins of the Roman Revolution, 49 BC-AD 14 Andrew Burnett, Lucia F. Carbone, Hannah Cornwell, Anton Powell, 2020-12-15 Coins of the best known Roman revolutionary era allow rival pretenders to speak to us directly After the deaths of Caesar and Cicero in 44 and 43 BC hardly one word has been reliably transmitted to us from even the two most powerful opponents of Octavian Mark Antony and Sextus Pompeius except through coinage and the occasional inscription The coins are an antidote to a widespread fault in modern approaches the idea from hindsight that the Roman Republic was doomed that the rise of Octavian Augustus to monarchy was inevitable and that contemporaries might have sensed as much Ancient works in other genres skilfully encouraged such hindsight Augustus in the Res Gestae and Virgil in Georgics and Aeneid sought to flatten the history of the period and largely to efface Octavian's defeated rivals But the latter's coins in precious metal were not easily recovered and suppressed by Authority They remain for scholars to revalue In our own age when public untruthfulness about history is increasingly accepted or challenged we may value anew the discipline of searching for other ancient voices which ruling discourse has not quite managed to silence In this book eleven new essays explore the coinage of Rome's competing dynasts Julius Caesar's coins and those of his son Octavian Augustus are studied But similar and respectful attention is given to the issues of their opponents Cato the Younger and Q Metellus Scipio Mark Antony and Sextus Pompeius Q Cornificius and others A shared aim is to understand mentalities the forecasts current in an age of rare insecurity as the superpower of the Mediterranean faced and slowly recovered from division and ruin How Christmas Became Christmas Nathaniel Parry, 2022-11-10 In some respects the contrasts of Christmas are what make it the most delightful time of the year It is a time of generosity kindness and peace on earth with broad permission to indulge in food drink and gifts On the other hand Christmas has become a battleground for raging culture wars marred by debates about how it should be celebrated and acknowledged as a uniquely Christian holiday This text argues that much of the animosity is based on a fundamental misunderstanding of the holiday's core character By tracing Christmas's origins as a pagan celebration of the winter solstice and its development in Europe's Christianization this history explains that the true reason for the season has as much to do with the earth's movement around the sun as with the birth of Christ Chapters chronicle how Christmas's magic and misrule link to the nativity and why the carnival side of the holiday appears so separated from traditional Christian beliefs The Charm of a List Lucie Doležalová, 2009-01-14 Lists one of the most archaic literary genres stand behind many of our complex mental or rhetorical structures and they often influence the way we conceptualize the world even if we are unaware of it They seem plain but may conceal a complicated inner logic They are agrammatical but may tell a story Their basic features selection order and layout may be enough to give them enormous power by including they exclude by ordering they create a hierarchy by taking on particular physical aspects they place themselves into a specific context These and other issues are discussed in the present transdisciplinary volume collecting the best revised contributions to a workshop on lists held at the Center for Theoretical Study in Prague in November 2008 Each of the 13 articles by researchers from seven countries provides a case study on the subject of list The fields covered include late antique medieval and early modern history philology philosophy cognitive and computer science The contributors aim both at presenting particular cases specific lists or list types and at the same time at addressing methodological issues exploring the ways of researching lists in their particular disciplines formulating relevant research themes and questions contextualizing the subject Since theoretical discourse on lists has not been established yet this volume should be seen as a first step in the process showing the variety of possible research directions on a transdisciplinary level and raising interest in the topic which although it may seem a bit obscure at first has indeed a lot to offer The Expository Times, 1894 Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman, 2013-03-07 Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick s Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean s gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review ,1825 The Gentleman s magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader s monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month s new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs The ceramic art of Great Britain, from pre-historic times Llewellynn Frederick W.
