Semiotics Of Language Literature And Cinema:

Semiotics of Language, Literature, and Cinema Harish Narang, 1990 Contributed articles festschrift for Harjeet Singh Gill b 1935 on his nomination as Professor Emeritus Jawaharlal Nehru University Semiotics around the World: Synthesis in Diversity Irmengard Rauch, Gerald F. Carr, 2020-10-12 No detailed description available for Semiotics around the World Synthesis in Diversity International Handbook of Semiotics Peter Pericles Trifonas, 2015-05-11 This book provides an extensive overview and analysis of current work on semiotics that is being pursued globally in the areas of literature the visual arts cultural studies media the humanities natural sciences and social sciences Semiotics also known as structuralism is one of the major theoretical movements of the 20th century and its influence as a way to conduct analyses of cultural products and human practices has been immense This is a comprehensive volume that brings together many otherwise fragmented academic disciplines and currents uniting them in the framework of semiotics Addressing a longstanding need it provides a global perspective on recent and ongoing semiotic research across a broad range of disciplines The handbook is intended for all researchers interested in applying semiotics as a critical lens for inquiry across diverse disciplines

Studies on Cinematography and Narrative in Film: Sequels, Serials, and Trilogies Seçmen, Emre Ahmet, 2024-07-18 Visual continuity in sequels poses a daunting challenge for filmmakers as they strive to maintain coherence while expanding upon established narratives and visual aesthetics With cinema's evolution audiences expectations have grown more sophisticated demanding seamless transitions and immersive experiences across film series However achieving this continuity requires a delicate balance between honoring the original work and introducing innovative elements to captivate viewers Addressing this complication is the book Studies on Cinematography and Narrative in Film Sequels Serials and Trilogies which emerges with a comprehensive approach By delving into the interplay between cinematography and narrative structure this book offers invaluable insights for filmmakers seeking to navigate the complexities of sequel production Through meticulous analysis of prominent film series and theoretical frameworks it provides a roadmap for achieving visual coherence while pushing creative boundaries New Vocabularies in Film Semiotics Robert

Stam, 2005-07-08 First published in 1992 New Vocabularies in Film Semiotics provides a comprehensive lexicon of semiotic concepts With sections on linguistics narratology psychoanalysis and intertextuality it constructs an indispensable dictionary for film theory defining over five hundred critical terms The authors address key aspects of contemporary semiotics and cultural debate while referring to the work of key figures such as Peirce Saussure Derrida Barthes Propp Genette Greimas Kristeva Lacan Metz Bellour Heath Mulvey Johnston Rose Doane Bakhtin and Baudrillard The semiotic concepts are illustrated by examples drawn from the films of directors such as Welles Dreyer Brunel Godard Hitchcock Varda Akerman and Woody Allen Although especially geared to the needs of film students New Vocabularies in Film Semiotics should be useful for scholars in all areas of the arts philosophy and literature Cinema and Classical Texts Martin M.

Winkler,2009-02-12 This book interprets films as visual texts and demonstrates the affinities between Greco Roman literature and the cinema

Encyclopedia of Media and Communication Marcel Danesi,2013-06-17 The first comprehensive encyclopedia for the growing fields of media and communication studies the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication is an essential resource for beginners and seasoned academics alike Contributions from over fifty experts and practitioners provide an accessible introduction to these disciplines most important concepts figures and schools of thought from Jean Baudrillard to Tim Berners Lee and podcasting to Peircean semiotics Detailed and up to date the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication synthesizes a wide array of works and perspectives on the making of meaning The appendix includes timelines covering the whole historical record for each medium from either antiquity or their inception to the present day Each entry also features a bibliography linking readers to relevant resources for further reading The most coherent treatment yet of these fields the Encyclopedia of Media and Communication promises to be the standard reference text for the next generation of media and communication students and scholars

Novel Into Film Patricia J. Santoro,1996 The second chapter provides general background information on agrarian Spain the historical economic and ideological context of both La familia de Pascual Duarte and Los santos inocentes While in most cases the texts refer only obliquely to the reigning ideology that is responsible for the plight of the rural worker the history of the province of Extremadura where rural poverty is and was a social and economic phenomenon is crucial to the understanding of all four texts whose stories are set in this province

The Semiotic Sphere Thomas A. Sebeok,Jean Umiker-Sebeok,2012-12-06 Although semiotics has in one guise or another flourished uninterruptedly since pre Socratic times in the West and important semiotic themes have emerged and developed independently in both the Brahmanic and Buddhist traditions semiotics as an organized undertaking began to flourish only in the 1960s Workshops materialized with a perhaps surprising spontaneity over much of Europe Eastern and Western and in North America Thereafter others quickly surfaced almost everywhere over the literate globe Different places strategically allied themselves with different legacies but all had a common thrust to aim at a general theory of signs by way of a description of different sign systems their comparative analysis and their classification More or less permanent confederations were forged with the most diverse academic disciplines and amazingly varied frameworks were devised suited to the needs of the times and the sites to carry the work of consolidation forward Bit by bit mutually supportive international networks were put together Today it can truly be asserted that semiotics has become a global enterprise This of course is far from saying that the map is uniform or even that world wide homogeneity is in the least desirable While our conjoint ultimate goal remains steadily in focus the multiplicity of avenues available for its realization is inherent in the adventure of the search itself

Salvation from Cinema Crystal Downing,2015-10-23 Salvation from Cinema offers something new to the burgeoning field of religion and film the religious significance of film technique Discussing the history of both cinematic devices and film theory Crystal Downing argues that attention to the material medium echoes Christian doctrine about the materiality of Christ's body as the medium of salvation Downing cites Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Hindu perspectives on film in order to compare and clarify the significance of medium within the frameworks of multiple traditions This book will be useful to professors and students interested in the relationship between religion and film

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad,2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs

A Literary Semiotics Approach to the Semantic Universe of George Orwell's Nineteen

Eighty-Four Murat Kalelioğlu, 2019-01-03 Semiotics can be considered as a well organized signification journey taken among the pages of the work of art It requires background knowledge related to the field and its analysis tools as well as careful reading practices in the text to reach the projected destination after stopping over in certain stations These stations represent meaning intersections where the meaningful formations are articulated to contribute to the generation of the semantic universe of the text The presentation of such a fictional universe can be complicated because of the nature of the literary work and the language used With regards to Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four what makes its fiction precious is the masterful acts of the author in both paradigmatic and syntagmatic dimensions This book conducts a semiotic analysis in order to unfold the enigmatic semantic organization of Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four narrative by penetrating the formative structures at various meaning levels of the text

The Political Films of Andrzej Wajda Janina Falkowska, 1996

Controversial painful stimulating and cinematically beautiful they never fail to fully engage the spectator This is particularly true for his major political films which form the basis of this study Applying Bakhtin's concept of dialogism the author shows how a creative interaction between the image on the screen and the viewer is established through Wajda's films

Modern Austrian Literature through the Lens of Adaptation Catriona Firth, 2012-01-01 For decades postwar Austrian literature has been measured against and moulded into a series of generic categories and grand cultural narratives from nostalgic restoration literature of the 1950s through the socially critical anti Heimat novel to recent literary reckonings with Austria's Nazi past Peering through the lens of film adaptation this book rattles the generic shackles imposed by literary history and provides an entirely new critical perspective on Austrian literature Its original methodological approach challenges the primacy of written sources in existing scholarship and uses the distortions generated by the shift in medium as a productive starting point for literary analysis Five case studies approach canonical texts in post war Austrian literature by Gerhard Fritsch Franz Innerhofer Gerhard Roth Elfriede Jelinek and Robert Schindel through close readings of their cinematic adaptations concentrating on key areas of narratological concern plot narrative perspective authorship and post modern ontologies Setting the texts within the historical cultural and political discourses that define the Alpine Republic this study investigates fundamental aspects of Austrian national identity such as its Habsburg and National Socialist legacies

Multimodal Film Analysis John Bateman, Karl-Heinrich Schmidt, 2013-06-17 This book presents a new basis for the empirical analysis of film Starting from an established body of work in film theory the authors show how a close incorporation of the current state of the art in multimodal theory including accounts of the syntagmatic and paradigmatic axes of organisation discourse semantics and advanced layout structure builds a methodology by which concrete details of film sequences drive mechanisms for constructing filmic discourse structures The book introduces the necessary background the open questions raised and the method by which analysis can proceed step by step Extensive examples are given from a broad range of films With this new analytic tool set the reader will approach the study of film organisation with new levels of detail and probe more deeply into the fundamental question of the discipline just how is it that films reliably communicate meaning
