Semitic Interference In Markan Syntax:

Morphological and Syntactical Irregularities in the Book of Revelation Laurențiu Moț, 2015-03-31 Morphological and Syntactical Irregularities in the Book of Revelation by Laurențiu Florentin Moț is an approach to the solecisms of Johannine Apocalypse from a Greek perspective The work aims at demonstrating that in accord with Second Language Acquisition studies Semitic transfer in Revelation is extremely rare Most of its linguistic peculiarities can be explained within the context of the Greek language Morphological and Syntactical Irregularities in the Book of Revelation is unique in several ways First it deals with the most comprehensive list of solecisms Second it treats grammatical irregularities in their own right looking at their cause explanation and contribution to the interpretation of the text Third it is interdisciplinary bringing together textual criticism Greek linguistics and NT exegesis

The Use of PAS in the New Testament J. William Johnston, 2004 This book examines in detail the use of the pronominal adjective all each every in the Greek New Testament focusing on how syntactical patterns and the semantic value of words or phrases it modifies are factors determining its sense and scope These findings are applied to the interpretation of several debated passages in the New Testament

New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity G. H. R. Horsley, Stephen Llewelyn, 1997-12-02 This fifth volume of New documents illustrating early Christianity is different in conception from its predecessors It focuses on several questions concerning the linguistic analysis of the New Testament from the particular perspective of the usefulness of the documentary sources for such study Back cover

The Interpretation of Scripture in Early Judaism and Christianity Craig A. Evans, 2000-06-01 This volume assembles several important studies that examine the role of language in meaning and interpretation The various contributions investigate interpretation in the versions in intertestamental traditions in the New Testament and in the rabbis and the targumim The authors who include well known veterans as well as younger scholars explore the differing ways in which the language of Scripture stimulates the understanding of the sacred text in late antiquity and gives rise to important theological themes This book is a significant resource for any scholar interested in the interpretation of Scripture in and just after the biblical period

Jairus's Daughter and the Haemorrhaging Woman Arie W. Zwiep, 2019-06-05 In this work Arie W. Zwiep examines the gospel stories of the raising of Jairus's daughter and the healing of the haemorrhaging woman Mark 5 21 43 Matt 9 18 26 Luke 8 40 56 from a plurality of sometimes conflicting interpretive strategies to demonstrate the need and fruitfulness of a multi-perspectival exegetical approach Among the various diachronic and synchronic methods that are being applied in this study are philological criticism form criticism and structural analysis tradition and redaction criticism orality studies and performance criticism narrative analysis textual criticism and the study of intertextuality Such a comprehensive approach it is argued leads to an increased knowledge and a deepened understanding of the ancient texts in question and to a sharpened awareness of the applicability of current scholarly research instruments to unlock documents from the past

On the Writing of New Testament Commentaries Stanley E. Porter, Eckhard J. Schnabel, 2012-09-28 The essays in On the Writing of New Testament Commentaries discuss historical hermeneutical methodological literary and theological questions that shape the writing of commentaries on the books of the New Testament While these essays honor Grant R Osborne they also represent the first sustained effort to systematically address commentary writing in the field of New Testament studies

But It Is Not So Among You Alberto de Mingo Kaminouchi, 2003-11-01 Power is an issue that is attracting increased interest among philosophers theologians and social scientists The gospel of Mark especially in 10 32 45 contains teachings attributed to Jesus about the use and abuse of power This book applies a combination of different methods and approaches mainly orality criticism literary criticism and a sensitivity for the social and cultural environment of the text showing the centrality of Jesus's message on the issue of power both for the plot and for the theology of Mark This message is a call to practice leadership in a way that is subversive toward the networks of power of the empire

What Are the Gospels? Richard A. Burridge, 1995-05-11 Compares the work of the evangelists to the development of biography in the Graeco Roman world

The Language of the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Andrew Pitts, 2013-02-21 In The Language of the New Testament Stanley E Porter and Andrew W Pitts assemble an international team of scholars whose work has focused on the Greek language of the earliest Christians in terms of its context history and development

Heaven and Earth in the Gospel of Matthew Jonathan T. Pennington, 2007 A much overlooked aspect of the Gospel of Matthew is the theme of heaven and earth Rather than being a reverential circumlocution for God heaven in Matthew is part of a highly developed discourse of heaven and earth language Matthew's idiolectic way of using heaven language consists of four aspects 1 a distinction in meaning between singular and plural forms of ouranos 2 frequent use of the heaven and earth word pair 3 regular reference to the Father in heaven and 4 the recurrent use of the Matthean expression kingdom of heaven This book examines the historical precedents for each of these aspects and shows in Matthew how they serve one overriding theological purpose to highlight the tension that currently exists between heaven and earth or God and humanity while looking forward to its eschatological resolution

 Jesus research continues to captivate the interests of scholars and recently there has been renewed discussion of the criteria for authenticity The first half of this volume reviews the state of play in historical Jesus research and examines the criteria in particular One chapter is devoted to the so called Quests and a second critically charts the development of the criteria in the light of form criticism One of the conclusions of this part of the volume is that several criteria especially those based on linguistics need re evaluation The second half of the volume proposes three new criteria based upon use of the Greek language These criteria are Greek language and its context textual variance and discourse features The criteria are proposed as a way forward in historical Jesus research
