Senses Of Mystery Religious And Nonreligious:

Senses of Mystery Bernard Joseph Verkamp, 1997 The Senses of Mystery is based on the need to distinguish between the purely natural sense of mystery and one that is specifically religious leading to a conclusion that it is precisely in their shared experience of the mystery of reality that science and religion have their best chance of reconciliation Senses of Mystery Bernard Joseph Verkamp, 1997 Senses of Mystery shows that in contrast to the purely natural senses of mystery the sense of mystery entertained by religious people always involves the experience of reality in terms of something more What this something more is however varies from one religion to another and depending upon whether it has been experienced as something totally other something within or something beyond has given rise to at least three basically different sacral immanentist and transcendent Senses of mystery Curing the Philosopher's Disease Richard H. Jones, 2009-09-28 Curing the Philosopher's Disease is a philosophical examination of the mysteries surrounding the foundations of science philosophy and religion Much of Western philosophy and science is discussed in order to see our epistemological and metaphysical situation The love hate relation philosophers have with mystery is explored as are the contributions of reductionists and antireductionists postmodern relativists and critical realists naturalists and the religious and theologians and mystics The thrust of the arguments affirms that there are limits to what philosophy science religion and mystical experiences can tell us about reality By acknowledging that some questions may be unanswerable and understanding the importance of that fact even as the answers remain ambiguous our true situation in the world is revealed Mystery should be reinstated as a basic feature when we reflect upon the nature of what we know and who we are Mystery frames all of our claims to fundamental knowledge and we must accept that it will remain a permanent fixture Thus the importance of mystery needs to be reaffirmed today during an era when the fullness of reality is often ignored Mystery 101 Richard H. Jones, 2018-02-01 Delineates the knowable from the unknowable in philosophy science and theology Offering readers much to ponder Richard H Jones approaches the big questions of philosophy such as the nature of reality consciousness free will the existence of God and the meaning of life not by weighing the merits of leading arguments in these debates but instead by questioning the extent to which we are even in a position to answer such questions in the first place Regardless of continuous technical and even groundbreaking advances in knowledge there will always be gaps in what we can fully understand Distinguishing true mysteries from problems yet to be solved but within the scope of our intellectual grasp Jones provides a penetrating and high level overview of the scope and limits of scientific and philosophical inquiry Exceptionally original Mystery 101 specializes in questions rather than answers but also analyzes in fascinating detail a whole host of putative answers to the fundamental questions it raises The book is a wide ranging thought provoking treat It shows why daunting seemingly unfathomable mysteries underlie many of our most confident assumptions and claims to truth And it counsels us wisely on how to live in the face of this fact The scholarship is impeccable drawing on many sources including those of religion and not just Western religion philosophy and not just Western philosophy science and literature An insightful and enjoyable read Donald A Crosby author of The Extraordinary in the Ordinary Seven Types of Everyday Miracle Jones takes us on an interesting journey through all the big questions that perplex people We end up knowing a lot but as Socrates knowing that we do not and indeed cannot know enough Clear engaging and accessible the book is a bit of a tour de force George Allan author of Modes of Learning Whitehead's Metaphysics and the Stages of Education The Sense of Religious Wonder Bernard Joseph Verkamp, 2002 Environmental Education Matthew Etherington, 2023-08-03 This book has a single motif and a dual purpose Its motif is the portrayal of influential authors within an environmental framework and worldview The design is presented in different ways in which environmental understandings might be understood The purposes are to engender in the reader a broad knowledge of some of the ideas and problems inherent in a discussion of nature and the environment and to stimulate the reader to go further into the sources of their tradition and worldview in search of meaning and insights that are uniquely relevant to their philosophy personal education of pupils from cultural and political claims The educational implications of a wide range of political perspectives are explored including those of liberalism communitarianism conservatism and pluralism Particular attention is given to the constraints imposed on educationalists by the liberalisms of John Rawls and Joseph Raz and in the final part the author questions whether any nationally common conception of spiritual education is either educationally adequate or politically acceptable

Bonhoeffer Down Under Ian Packer, Gordon Preece, 2012-08-30 If Protestants had saints Dietrich Bonhoeffer martyred under Hitler on April 9 1945 just days before the Allies reached his concentration camp would be one of the first canonised Not just his unsought martyr's death but his life's movement from privilege to growing identification with the suffering his courageous return from the safety and beckoning success of the US to Germany his work with the Confessing Church and more controversially with the underground resistance in the plot to assassinate Hitler all argue his case for canonisation Bonhoeffer is among ten twentieth century martyrs above the Great West Door at Westminster Cathedral where their portraits of ten tell more about the artists and their age than the saint and theirs the movement of their lives and the movements they belonged to or founded This is certainly true of Bonhoeffer and the Church of his anguished age This collection of essays is from Down Under for with the exception of the paper by UK theologian Keith Clements are all the papers by writers who live and work in the southern hemisphere They include former Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd South African theologian John de Gruchy and a number of Australian writers These include papers by historian John Moses and theologians Gordon Preece Brian Rosner Bruce Barber Max Chamption and Neil Holm Kevin Rudd writes in this volume that Bonhoeffer is without doubt the man I admire most in the history of the twentieth century He was a man of faith He was a man of reason He was never a nationalist always an internationalist For tormented twenty first century humanity Bonhoeffer is still one of our best guides to that new humanity being birthed by the Spirit of Christ in the midst of those seeing from and suffering below
