Sentence by Sentence Madelyn T. Mihm, 1989-01-01 Research in Basic Writing Martin Jacobi, Michael G. Moran, 1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition. The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition to public and university libraries and many education programs The Rhetoric Reader John Erwin Talmadge, 1962 The Sentence Method of Teaching Reading, Writing, and Spelling George L. Farnham, 1895 Indiana School Journal and Teacher ,1890 The Indiana Building Great Sentences Brooks Landon, 2013-06-25 Based on the bestselling series from The Great School Journal .1883 Courses Building Great Sentences celebrates the sheer joy of language and will forever change the way you read and write Great writing begins with the sentence Whether it s two words Jesus wept or William Faulkner s 1 287 word sentence in Absalom Absalom sentences have the power to captivate entertain motivate educate and most importantly delight Yet the sentence oriented approach to writing is too often overlooked in favor of bland economy Building Great Sentences teaches you to write better sentences by luxuriating in the pleasures of language Award winning Professor Brooks Landon draws on examples from masters of long elegant sentences including Don DeLillo Virginia Woolf Joan Didion and Samuel Johnson to reveal the mechanics of how language works on thoughts and emotions providing the tools to write powerful more effective Oregon Teachers' Monthly ,1906 History of Linguistics 1993 Kurt R.
