Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin, Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China's leading authors It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more Much of what is revealed here is mundane but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes indeed the universal pressure to survive forges this collection into a very human document The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this most of these essays speak for themselves about war revolution betrayal and commitment

Compulsory Compassion Annalise E. Acorn, 2004

Restorative justice is often touted as the humane and politically progressive alternative to the rigid philosophy of retributive punishment that underpins many of the world's judicial systems Emotionally seductive its rhetoric appeals to a desire for a right relation among individuals and communities and offers us a vision of justice that allows for the mutual healing of victim and offender and with it a sense of communal repair In Compulsory Compassion Annalise Acorn a one time advocate for restorative justice deconstructs the rhetoric of the restorative movement Drawing from diverse legal literary philosophical and autobiographical sources she questions the fundamental assumptions behind that rhetoric that we can trust wrongdoers performances of contrition that healing lies in a respectful face to face encounter between victim and offender and that the restorative idea of right relation holds the key to a reconciliation of justice and accountability on the one hand with love and compassion on the other Ventures in Common Sense Edgar Watson Howe,1919 Mephisto Klaus Mann,1995-09-01 It chimes eerily with the times we are living through now Margaret Atwood The New York Times Book Review Hendrik Hofgen is a man obsessed with becoming a famous actor When the Nazis come to power in Germany he willingly renounces his Communist past and deserts his wife and mistress in order to keep on performing His diabolical performance as Mephistopheles in Faust proves to be the stepping stone he yearned for attracting the attention of Hermann G ring it wins Hofgen an appointment as head of the State Theatre The rewards the respect of the public a castle like villa a place in Berlin s highest circles are beyond his wildest dreams But the moral consequences of his betrayals begin to haunt him turning his dreamworld into a nightmare For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators The Maverick's Marriage Pact Stella Bagwell,2022-09-27 He needs a bride who will marry for all the wrong reasons in New York Times bestselling author Stella Bagwell s contribution to the Montana Mavericks Brothers Broncos continuity Fake wedding Fake pregnancy His plan is almost foolproof Commitmentphobic cowboy Maddox John will do anything to hang on to the Double J Ranch even if it means getting hitched He finds a semiwilling bride in Adeline Longworth who agrees to the marriage of convenience for reasons of her own But their strictly business arrangement hits an unexpected bump in the road when the pretend lovebirds make love for real From Harlequin Special Edition Believe in love Overcome obstacles Find happiness Montana Mavericks Brothers Broncos Book 1 Summer Nights with the Maverick by Christine Rimmer Book 2 In the Ring with the Maverick by Kathy Douglass Book 3 One Night with the Maverick by Melissa Senate Book 4 The Maverick s Marriage Pact by Stella Bagwell Book 5 Thankful for the Maverick by Rochelle Alers Book 6 The Maverick s Christmas Secret by Brenda Harlen Staging Place Una Chaudhuri,1997 The first book length study of the notion of place and its implications in modern drama Reflections on Sentiment Alessa Johns,2015-12-16 Reflections on Sentiment not only addresses current scholarly interest in feeling and affect but also provides an occasion to celebrate the career of George Starr who in more than fifty years of incisive scholarship and committed teaching has elucidated the work of Daniel Defoe and the role of sentimentalism in what was once reductively termed an age of reason and realism Due to the critique Starr spearheaded scholars today can approach with greater assurance the complex interplay of reason and emotion thought and sensibility science and feeling rationality and enthusiasm judgment and wit as well as forethought and instinct as these shaped the scientific religious political social literary and cultural revolutions of the Enlightenment Indeed contributors to this anthology take inspiration from Starr s work to shed new light on Enlightenment thought and sociocultural formations generally offering fresh interpretations of a period in which Reflection and Sentiment circulated mutually influenced each other and contended equally for cultural attention In nine separate essays they explore the ways sentiment and sentimentalism inflect the moral and ideological ambit of Enlightenment discourses the sociopolitics of religious debate the issues promoted by women writers by gender and family relations the artistic and rhetorical uses of lived language the impacts of cultural developments on novelistic form and the wide shifts in the literary marketplace Deploying tools advanced by new work in animal studies gender criticism media analysis genre studies the new formalism and ethical inquiry and enabled by the power of digitization and new databases the authors of this volume explain how and to what ends denizens of the Enlightenment were touched and moved Sentiment, Reason, and Law Jeffrey T. Martin, 2019-10-15

What if the job of police was to cultivate the political will of a community to live with itself rather than enforce law keep order or fight crime In Sentiment Reason and Law Jeffrey T Martin describes a world where that is the case The Republic of China on Taiwan spent nearly four decades as a single party state under dictatorial rule 1949 1987 before transitioning to liberal democracy Here Martin describes the social life of a neighborhood police station during the first rotation in executive power following the democratic transition He shows an apparent paradox of how a strong democratic order was built on a foundation of weak police powers and demonstrates how that was made possible by the continuity of an illiberal idea of policing His conclusion from this paradox is that the purpose of the police was to cultivate the political will of the community rather than enforce laws and keep order As Sentiment Reason and Law shows the police force in Taiwan exists as an anthropological fact bringing an order of reality that is always simultaneously and inseparably meaningful and material Martin unveils the power of this fact demonstrating how the politics of sentiment that took shape under autocratic rule continued to operate in everyday policing in the early phase of the democratic transformation even as a more democratic mode of public reason and the ultimate power of legal right were becoming more significant
