Christianity and the Doctrine of Non-Dualism A Monk of the West, 2005-03 The author of this slender but profound book a Cistercian monk discovered as a young man the work of his fellow countryman Ren Gunon whose writings introduced him to genuine metaphysical doctrine and to possibilities of spiritual realization This discovery marked him indelibly and he resolved to follow a monastic path in order to be free for the one thing needful The word Advaita which designates Vedantic non dualism is Sanskrit for non dual or not two but the doctrine itself is by no means exclusively Hindu being present in Buddhism Islam Taoism and Judaism In Christianity it has always been more implicit though explicit with writers such as Dionysius the Areopagite Eriugena Eckhart and even Dante The great merit of this work by a Monk of the West is that it shows that non dualism is neither pantheism nor monism and that there is no incompatibility between orthodox Christian doctrine and the strictest understanding of non dualism in the Advaita Vedanta The implication is that non dualism can again find expression within a Christian ambience The cover design helps clarify this In the background is the Omkara the sacred monosyllable of Hinduism considered the most fundamental of affirmations In the foreground is the Christian symbol of the Chi Rho chrism or labarum consisting of the first two letters chi X and rho P of the Greek Christos XRISTOS This figure is intrinsically three dimensional but is usually projected onto a plane surface The cruciform Greek letter chi X is placed horizontally within a circle it measures the parameters of a given world The rho intersects the chi at its center and is placed vertically to represent the axis mundi or world tree The loop at the top of the rho represents the Supernal Sun at the summit of the world tree from which all possibilities of creation proceed and to which they return There can be no essential but only an apparent incompatibility between the Universe and any of its constituent parts all derive from a unique and common Principle Similarly there be be no essential conflict between the Chi Rho representing a given world and the Omkara which represents all worlds the entire Universe notwithstanding the differing degrees of universality Christianity and the Doctrine of Non Dualism offers one approach to this doctrine and to the greatest possible spiritual intellectual adventure that is implied Linguistic Differences in Speaking and Writing Rekha Aslam,1990 Elements of oral strategies are used while producing written texts in order to make them more interactional and participatory and elements of written strategies used in producing oral texts to give them the property of integration In the verbal behaviour of the different groups the pressure involving parameters associated with orality and literacy are realised in different proportions and strength The Serpent and the Rope Raja Rao,C.
