The Cross of Christ in African American Christian Religious Experience Demetrius K. Williams,2023-10-03 In The Cross of Christ in African American Christian Religious Experience Piety Politics and Protest Demetrius K Williams examines and explores the ideational importance and rhetorical function of cross language and terminology in Black religious experience through an ideological lens Williams argues that for the first time in Christian history the European nation of

Portugal under the guidance of Prince Henry used the theology of the cross to justify and sustain an exclusive trade of Sub Saharan African peoples Claiming that Jesus died on the cross only to save lost souls provided a convincing rationale for Henry's exploratory voyages of discovery to West Africa to exclusively enslave Black bodies With the confirmation of Catholic Popes and the competition of other European nations this same rationale would inspire empire building colonization and slave trading justified on their newly constructed ideological narrative of compassionate evangelism to save lost souls Over time with massive conversions to the faith of their enslavers Black people's Christian religious experiences would articulate a response to the world that held them in thrall That response would be articulated most consistently and effectively through their understanding of the cross of Christ Williams affirms Howard Thurman's claim that by some amazing but vastly creative spiritual insight the slave undertook the redemption of a religion that the master had profaned in his midst

MY HOUSE Chioma Afoke, 2024-12-03 The many rivalries in the church and the body of Christ at large are as a result of neglect of one's duty as a child of God Jesus prayed an important prayer for his disciples and those who would come afterwards And this is eternal life that they may know you the only True God and Jesus Christ whom you sent John 17 3 This personal connection and intimate knowledge of God the Father and his son Jesus Christ is the bedrock of Christianity Without this true knowledge many are deprived of eternal life and have established their own gospels hence the origin of rivalry in the Church The True Knowledge of God and Jesus Christ is the ability to lay down one's life as a member of the body of Christ It is your ability to hear and experience God your ability to manifest God and distribute eternal life to the people around you and your community at large
