Servants Of The Spring:

Healing Holidays Harish Naraindas, Cristiana Bastos, 2016-03-22 This volume on medical tourism includes contributions by anthropologists and historians on a variety of health seeking modes of travel and leisure It brings together analyses of recent trends of medical tourism such as underinsured middle class Americans traveling to India for surgery pious Middle Eastern couples seeking assisted reproduction outside their borders or consumers of the exotic in search of alternative healing with analyses of the centuries old Euro American tradition of traveling to spas Rather than seeing these two forms of medical travel as being disparate the book demonstrates that as noted in the introduction what makes patients itinerant in both the old and new kind of medical travel is either a perceived shortage or constraint at home or the sense of having reached a particular kind of therapeutic impasse with the two often so intertwined that it is difficult to tell them apart The constraint may stem from things as diverse as religious injunctions legal hurdles social approbation or seasonal affliction and the shortage can range from a lack of privacy of insurance technology competence or enough therapeutic resources that can address issues and conditions that patients have If these two intertwined strands are responsible for most medical tourism then which locales seem to have therapeutic resources are those that are either natural in the form of water or climate legal in the form of a culture that does not stigmatise patients or technological and professional in the form of tests equipment or expertise unavailable or affordable at home or in the form of novel therapeutic possibilities that promise to resolve irresolvable issues This book was originally published as a special issue of Anthropology Medicine

Female Servants in Early Modern England Charmian Mansell, 2024-03-19 Excavating experiences of over a thousand women in service from church court testimony Mansell argues that early modern service was unstable but finely graded fluid and contingent Intervening in histories of labour gender freedom and law Female Servants in Early Modern England rethinks our understanding of the institution of service

New York Supreme Court Case on Appeal, Trial Manual of Personal Injury Laws, Illinois James Albin Farmer, 1910 Annual Report of the Minister of Agriculture and Food Ontario. Dept. of Agriculture and Food, 1889

Stories from Home Dr Margaret Ponsonby, 2013-06-28 Most homes in the past were not elite wealthy interiors complete with high fashion furnishings designed by well known architects and designers as many domestic histories often seem to have assumed As this book makes clear there were in fact an enormous variety of house interiors in England during the period 1750 1850 reflecting the location status and gender of particular householders as well as their changing attitudes tastes and aspirations By focusing on non metropolitan homes which represented the majority of households in England this study highlights the need for historians to look beyond prevailing attitudes that often reduce interiors to generic descriptions based on high fashions of the decorative arts Instead it shows how numerous social and cultural influences affected the manner in which homes were furnished and decorated Issues such as the availability of goods gender regional taste income the second hand market changing notions of privacy and household hierarchies and print culture could all have a significant impact on domestic furnishing The study ends with a discussion of how domestic interiors of historic properties have been presented and displayed in modern times highlighting how competing notions of the past can cloud as well as illuminate the issue Combining cultural history and qualitative analysis of evidence this book presents a new way of looking at ordinary and provincial homes that enriches our understanding of English domestic life of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Transmigrated To Be Prince's Consort Yan HuaZhanYueHua,2020-07-09 Once he crossed the Qing Dynasty he even became the Eighth Lord s Blessing Chi He really wanted to give the God a middle finger How could she a lowly commoner live to become a prince in the name of Fu Jin Competing for a favor No A duel No A palace battle Not to mention However she wasn t willing to die just like that After some thought Chi He River set a goal for himself Even if he didn t have the love of a man the company of a child was still worth it Thus every day she would open her eyes and think about one thing Would she be able to make Eighth Lord stay for the night today cumulative index to public administration Mohinder Singh,Rajendra Narayan Sharma, Spell Read Write & Grammar , The American and English Railroad Cases ,1906 The Works of that Eminent Servant of Christ, Mr. John Bunyan: The holy war. The desire of the righteous granted. The saint's privilege and profit. Christ a compleat saviour. The saints knowledge of Christ's love. A discourse of the house of the forest of Lebanon. Of Anti-christ and his ruin. Saved by grace. Christian behaviour. A discourse touching prayer. The strait gate. Some gospel-truths opened. A vindication of gospel-truths opened. Light for them that sit in darkness. Instruction for the ignorant. The holy city. The resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment. A caution to stir up to watch against sin. An exposition on the ten first chapters of Genesis, and part of the eleventh. The work of Jesus Christ as an advocate. Seasonable counsel. Divine emblems. Mr. Bunyan's last sermon. Ebal and Gerizzim. Prison meditations John Bunyan,1768 Growth in a Traditional Society Philip T. Hoffman,2018-06-05 Philip Hoffman shatters the widespread myth that traditional agricultural societies in early modern Europe were socially and economically stagnant and ultimately dependent on wide scale political revolution for their growth Through a richly detailed historical investigation of the peasant agriculture of ancien r gime France the author uncovers evidence that requires a new understanding of what constituted economic growth in such societies His arguments rest on a measurement of long term growth that enables him to analyze the economic institutional and political factors that explain its forms and rhythms In comparing France with England and Germany Hoffman arrives at fresh answers to some classic questions Did French agriculture lag behind farming in other countries If so did the obstacles in French agriculture lurk within peasant society itself in the peasants culture in their communal property rights or in the small scale of their farms Or did the obstacles hide elsewhere in politics in the tax system or in meager opportunities for trade The author discovers that growth cannot be explained by culture property rights or farm size and argues that the real causes of growth derived from politics and gains from trade By challenging other widely held beliefs such as the nature of the commons and the workings of the rural economy Hoffman offers a new analysis of peasant society and culture one based on microeconomics and game theory and intended for a wide range of social scientists The Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British and Foreign India, China, and Australia ,1830 A Study of Criminal Proceeding Conventions in Tang Dynasty Xi Chen,2022-01-01 This book uses the monographic study of litigation subjects prosecution trial and enforcement to reveal the formation operation and development of criminal proceeding conventions in the Tang Dynasty It also outlines the combination coordination and interaction of rules conventions and ideas in the traditional Chinese legal system and presents an overview of the evolution and development of traditional litigation in China This book is intended mainly for scholars and graduate and undergraduate students in the fields of law and Chinese history The Register of arts, and journal of patent inventions, ed. by L. Herbert Luke Hebert,1828 The Register of Arts, and Journal of Patent Inventions Luke Herbert,1828 Family Life and Sociability in Upper and Lower Canada, 1780-1870 Françoise Noël,2003 Drawing on diaries and letters exchanged between family members Fran oise No l considers the nature of family the couple during courtship and after marriage parents and children in childhood and after the children leave home and the social life of the family in terms of both leisure time and entertainment and the mutual assistance provided by social networks of kin neighbours and friends She notes that courtship usually took place within the social network of interactions with kin and neighbours and shows that family life was located in a broad social space that included people of various ages By examining the correspondence and diaries of francophone and anglophone middle class families of various faiths No l presents touching stories of family life in the Canadas in the early nineteenth century Charged with the Glory of God Caroline Batchelder,2023-07-26 Isaiah s servant songs reveal a true and better Adam In Charged with the Glory of God Caroline Batchelder provides a synchronic theological and canonical reading of the four Servant Songs in Isaiah 42 1 9 49 1 13 50 3 11 52 13 53 12 showing how they relate to one another and the message of the prophetic book Reading Isaiah as a compositional unity in conversation with other texts such as Genesis results in a coherent presentation of the mysterious servant The polemic against idolatry reveals rebellious Israel to be false imagers of God In contrast Isaiah s servant is an ideal embodiment of Yahweh s image and likeness Thus the servant is a paradigm for those who wish to recapture and realize God s good creation purposes for all humanity The servant poems are not only a call to reorient oneself as a servant towards God and his creation but also a map and means for doing so In this study Batchelder offers fresh insights from Isaiah for understanding God s true image and its idolatrous counterfeits Papers on Subjects Connected with the Duties of the Corps of Royal Engineers ,1876 Papers on Subjects Connected with the Duties of the Corps of Royal Engineers. [New Series] Great Britain. Corps of Royal Engineers,1876
