Katz, MD, 2003-11-17 Since publication of the last series volume focusing on emerging systems long term care has continued to evolve This present volume brings to the forefront issues related to populations of varying age groups that have been neglected or under reported The chapters focus on populations or groups of professionals that are integral to long term care as recipients of services or as care providers The authors present evidence to foster the creation of new paradigms of care and inform policy makers of the need for innovation Topics examined include Pediatric Skilled Nursing Facilities Mental Health Services Management of AIDS Patients Chronic Illness and Disability in the Prison Setting Sexuality in long Term Care Decision Making for Vulnerable Populations in the Nursing Home

The Culture of Long Term Care J Neil Henderson, Maria D. Vesperi, 1995-08-30 This is the only collection of its kind to offer an inside view of life and work in contemporary nursing homes with the purpose of developing a theory of the culture of long term care The anthropological research in nursing homes presented here produces a seldom seen native view of patients staff and the day to day workings of American nursing homes The use of ethnographic methods penetrates the reality barriers found in industry descriptions muck raking discourse and general societal aversion toward nursing homes The tensions found between and within staff culture and patient culture are explored in terms of adaptations to institutional life in the context of current policy and the larger American ageist culture

Managing the Long-Term Care Facility Rebecca M. Perley, 2025-01-28 Practical and compassionate approaches to providing quality care and safeguarding quality of life The second edition of Managing the Long Term Care Facility Practical Approaches to Providing Quality Care updates the first edition's discussion of the operational requirements necessary to manage a skilled nursing facility. This book presents sensitive and empathic regulatory compliant methods for the delivery of care that fosters an empowering environment for all stakeholders. Additional new information includes aging in place, trauma informed care, ethical dilemmas, and collaborative decision making, workforce culture, and surveys, enforcement actions, and appeals. The pedagogical tools include chapter summaries with quiz questions and case studies. Instructors also have access to PowerPoint slides and test banks. This book is an excellent resource for students and individuals interested in working in long term care and other health care industries. The updated best practices for clinical and non clinical roles within the facility and material on resident advocacy and other important topics provide valuable information for the reader. Working professionals can benefit from the emphasis placed on practical approaches to facilitate person centered and whole person care and a facility's sustainability.

Race, Socioeconomic Status, and Family Structure Kathleen A. Cagney, 1998      The Ageing of Australian Ethnic Minorities Hoon Han, Yong Moon Jung, Xueying Xiong, 2018-11-04 This book provides a comprehensive view of the quality of life of older people from culturally and linguistically diverse CALD backgrounds living in Australia. The book is unique and significant because the descriptions and arguments presented are based on the lived experience and hence provide deep insights into the complexity and dynamics of CALD older migrants. Key areas of exploration include social connectedness and inclusion, post retirement economic activities, living arrangement, and housing choice, practice of care, intergenerational exchange, and life satisfaction. A focus is placed on the diversity of ageing experience. Pathways of ageing are one of the key factors in investigating inter and intra ethnic commonalities and disparities. The policy and research implications presented will appeal to policy makers, practitioners, and researchers.
