Long Run To Tobruk:

Long Run to Tobruk Gordon Landsborough, 1975-01-01 Death of the Wehrmacht Robert M. Citino, 2007-10-22 For Hitler and the German military 1942 was a key turning point of World War II as an overstretched but still lethal Wehrmacht replaced brilliant victories and huge territorial gains with stalemates and strategic retreats In this major reevaluation of that crucial year Robert Citino shows that the German army's emerging woes were rooted as much in its addiction to the war of movement attempts to smash the enemy in short and lively campaigns as they were in Hitler's deeply flawed management of the war From the overwhelming operational victories at Kerch and Kharkov in May to the catastrophic defeats at El Alamein and Stalingrad Death of the Wehrmacht offers an eye opening new view of that decisive year Building upon his widely respected critique in The German Way of War Citino shows how the campaigns of 1942 fit within the centuries old patterns of Prussian German warmaking and ultimately doomed Hitler's expansionist ambitions He examines every major campaign and battle in the Russian and North African theaters throughout the year to assess how a military geared to quick and decisive victories coped when the tide turned against it Citino also reconstructs the German generals view of the war and illuminates the multiple contingencies that might have produced more favorable results In addition he cites the fatal extreme aggressiveness of German commanders like Erwin Rommel and assesses how the German system of command and its commitment to the independence of subordinate commanders suffered under the thumb of Hitler and chief of staff General Franz Halder More than the turning point of a war 1942 marked the death of a very old and traditional pattern of warmaking with the classic German way of war unable to meet the challenges of the twentieth century Blending masterly research with a gripping narrative Citino's remarkable work provides a fresh and revealing look at how one of history's most powerful armies began to founder in its quest for world domination Besieged Paul K. Davis, 2003 From ancient times to the present great sieges have had an enormous impact on the shaping of world history Now in this spectacular fully illustrated volume one hundred of the world's most monumental and mind boggling sieges are laid out in detail Besieged covers the most important sieges from around the world throughout history from Joshua's assault on Jericho in the fifteenth century B C to the Russian attack on the Chechen capital of Grozny at the end of the twentieth Each entry provides the name and date of the siege its exact location in terms of today's world the number of forces engaged when known the names of the commanders on each side and the overall importance of the siege in its historical context Thoroughly examining the actions of both the attackers and the defenders the book explores the motivations of both and strategically surveys the technical and tactical innovations and conditions both inside besieged positions and in the besiegers ranks The entries detail the historical setting the particular circumstances of the event itself and the long term results of the siege These riveting accounts are enhanced by illustrations over seventy maps and references for further reading A glossary and a comprehensive index complete the book Global in scope and with stirring accounts of familiar sieges as well as many lesser known conflicts Besieged is essential

John Lewes, 2000-03-30 Jock Lewes was a dashing young Welsh Guards officer who created a new approach to modern warfare in the SAS with less than two years experience as a soldier By the age of twenty seven Jock co founded the SAS with David Stirling Jock was in reality the trainer and brains behind this now legendary fighting force and this stunning biography describes the extent of his contribution Jock was brought up in Australia during the Depression and later educated at Oxford Life was rarely dull and he packed it with action and achievement His Presidency of the Oxford University Boat Club saw Oxford breaking Cambridge University's succession of thirteen wins Preparing for a job at the Foreign Office Jock spent several seasons in Berlin The record of his passion for two women one a Nazi the other a young linguist at Somerville College Oxford are part of a teeming richness of writing which he left in letters journals and poems His death was no less dramatic than his life after successful raids on enemy aerodromes with his invention of Lewes Bombs he was hunted down by a Messerschmitt 110 fighter A highly important addition to ever popular SAS literature Jock Lewes was the brain behind the formation of the Special Air Service Destroyer at War David Goodey, Richard Osborne, 2017-09-30 It was headline news on 8 April 1942 One of the Navys most famous destroyers a ship which survived bombs torpedoes and full scale battles has been wrecked That destroyer was HMS Havock described in another newspaper as Britains No 2 Destroyer of this war second only in fame and glory to the Cossack Havock had earned her reputation guarding the convoys across the Atlantic in 1939 and at Narvik in the abortive bid to stave off the German occupation of Norway in 1940 Havock was then transferred to the Mediterranean fighting at the Battle of Cape Spada in 1940 and in 1941 at the Battle of Matapan and in the evacuations of Greece and Crete Havocks duties in the Med continued escorting the convoys to the besieged island of Malta and the equally beleaguered garrison at Tobruk Then in the Battle of Sirte in 1942 Havock was badly damaged and she limped into Malta for repairs There she was heavily bombed and when Havock made a bid to reach Gibraltar she was wrecked off Cape Bon Her crew was captured and imprisoned in the infamous Laghouat internment camp The authors have tracked down fifty of the surviving crew and from interviews have been able to compile one of the most detailed and certainly one of the most dramatic histories of a destroyer during the Second World War Destroyer at War tells the story of the battles and operations of a famous ship and its sad destruction through newspaper reports official documents and the words of the men who sailed and fought in HMS Havock as she earned an astonishing eleven battle honors in her brief but glorious career Very Special Ships Arthur C Nicholson, 2015-11-15 Very Special Ships is the first full length book about the Abdiel class fast minelayers which were considered the fastest and most versatile to serve in the Royal Navy during World War II This book spans the scope of the class from alpha to zulu as they operated in many roles most famously as blockade runners to Malta transporting items as diverse as ammunition condensed milk gold and VIPs To provide a complete picture of this important class of ships Very Special Ships examines the origin and history of the minelayers describes the design and construction of each ship in the class details the operational history of the ships during World War II and concludes with the post war careers of the surviving ships

Naval Warfare 1919-45 Malcolm H. Murfett, 2008-11-04 Naval Warfare 1919 45 is a comprehensive history of the war at sea from the end of the Great War to the end of World War Two Showing the bewildering nature and complexity of the war facing those charged with fighting it around the world this book ranges far and wide sweeping across all naval theatres and those powers performing major as well as minor roles within them Armed with the latest material from an extensive set of sources Malcolm H Murfett has written an absorbing as well as a comprehensive reference work He demonstrates that superior equipment and the best intelligence ominous power and systematic planning vast finance and suitable training are often simply not enough in themselves to guarantee the successful outcome of a particular encounter at sea Sometimes the narrow difference between victory and defeat hinges on those infinite variables the individual s performance under acute pressure and sheer luck Naval Warfare 1919 45 is an analytical and interpretive study which is an accessible and fascinating read both for students and for interested members of the general public

Alistair MacLean's War Mark Simmons, 2022-06-02 It is no coincidence that many of Alistair MacLean s most successful novels were sea stories In 1941 he was called up after volunteering for the Royal Navy and served as Ordinary Seaman Able Seaman and Leading Torpedo Operator For the majority of his service he was on HMS Royalist a modified Dido class light cruiser seeing action in the Arctic and operations against the German battleship Tirpitz The ship then deployed to the Mediterranean taking part in Operation Dragoon the invasion of the South of France and later in operations against German occupied Greek Islands in the Aegean After which MacLean and Royalist were deployed to the Indian Ocean and operations against the Japanese in Malaya Burma and Sumatra His wartime experiences coupled with exceptional literary skill resulted in the runaway success of his first novel HMS Ulysses 1955 followed by The Guns of Navarone 1957 and South by Java Head 1958 These three blockbusters cemented his position as one of the most successful and highly paid authors of the era While not a whole life biography Mark Simmon s book provides a fascinating insight into Maclean s war service and subsequent works which deserve enduring popularity Junkers Ju 88 Kampfgeschwader in North Africa and the Mediterranean John Weal,2012-09-20 A detailed history of the Luftwaffe s best twin engined bomber of World War 2 in North Africa and the Mediterranean This volume follows the Luftwaffe s Wunderbomber southwards to describe its deployment in North Africa and the Mediterranean theatre of war Early 1941 saw the first sporadic air raids on Malta followed by the campaign in the Balkans which resulted in the conquests of Yugoslavia Greece and Crete After supporting land operations in North Africa during the latter half of 1941 the Ju 88s resumed their assault on Malta Bringing the story to life are personal accounts of the more famous actions the bombing of shipping off the coast of Greece and the sinking of three Royal Navy destroyers south of Crete all illustrated with rare photographs and full colour profiles

Bombers over Sand and Snow Alun Granfield,2011-10-05 205 Group RAF provided the only mobile force of heavy night bombers in the Mediterranean theater in the Second World War It operated mainly from bases in Egypt Libya Tunisia and Italy with occasional excursions to Malta Greece and Iraq attacking tactical and strategic targets according to the demands of the wider war in the theater The force was relatively small when compared with the numbers of aircraft available to Bomber Command in the Western European theater and it carried on using the venerable Vickers Wellington long after this aircraft had been relegated to the training role in the United Kingdom Like their UK based counterparts the night bombers were intended to operate in a strategic role bombing targets away from the immediate battlefield However the demands of the war in the Middle East and Mediterranean soon diverted the bombers from their strategic role and saw them operating much closer to the front line in support of the hard pressed ground forces The bomber squadrons in North Africa usually operated from Advanced Landing Grounds scraped out of the bare desert with only a few tents for shelter In Italy they did have more or less permanent bases but they still lived in tents if they were lucky often surrounded by a sea of mud There were no pubs often no beer and the only contact with their families were the eagerly awaited letters from home Also the squadrons in England did not have Rommel continually knocking on their door Thus the operations of the night bombers in the Middle East and Mediterranean were often governed by the general progress of the war in the theater The ebb and flow of the land battles not only determined the activities of the night bombers but also determined their location This book tells their story The War at Sea, 1939-1945: The defensive.- v.2. The period of balance.- v.3. The offensive Stephen Wentworth Roskill,1954 The War at Sea, 1939-1945: The defensive Stephen Wentworth Roskill,1961
