The Feminization of Development Processes in Africa James S. Etim, Valentine U. James, 1999-04-30

Women have historically provided vision and leadership to African countries and are now being recognized as pivotal to the overall sustainable development of Africa. In many cases however this recognition has not resulted in the empowerment of African women who still face great discrimination. This edited volume explores the contributions women have made to all phases of development planning design construction implementation and operation and the obstacles they have had to face. Besides analyzing the current situation and identifying trends the contributors also make recommendations for policy reform and for future planning.

An Introduction to the Literature of eSwatini

Kerry Vincent, 2020-10-21 This book is the first comprehensive introduction to the literature of eSwatini. It details a literary trajectory that begins with renditions of the country by early travelers and settlers and follows with the emergence of a national literature that is marked by early oral influences and molded by unique sociopolitical interests. Along the way the author considers how contemporary writing by visitors expatriates and journalists have salvaged and recycled earlier images and attitudes through a series of representational and rhetorical practices. In particular the lingering influence of colonial discourse is explored in the context of the nation's pivotal incwala ritual. A chapter on Hilda Kuper that situates her fiction and drama between outsider and insider accounts is followed by the final two chapters that trace the development of anglophone and siSwati writing and identify themes arising from the major literary genres produced by local authors. The concluding section features a comprehensive registry of writers with brief summaries of their works.

Carlos Fuentes

Robert Brody, Charles Rossman, 2014-02-19 Carlos Fuentes is a master of modern world literature. With the translation of his major works into English and other languages his reputation has surpassed the boundaries of his native Mexico and of Hispanic literature and has become international. Now each new novel stimulates popular and scholarly reviews in periodicals from Mexico City and Buenos Aires to Paris and New York. Carlos Fuentes A Critical View is the first full scale examination in English of this major writer's work. The range and diversity of this critical view are remarkable and reflect similar characteristics in the creative work of Carlos Fuentes: a man of formidable intellectual energy and curiosity. The whole of Fuentes' work is encompassed by Luis Leal as he explores history and myth in the writer's narrative. Insightful new views of single works are provided by other well known scholars such as Roberto Gonz lez Echevarr   a writing on Fuentes' extraordinary Terra Nostra and Margaret Sayers Peden exploring Distant Relations for which she served as authorized translator. Here too are fresh approaches to Fuentes' other novels among them Where the Air Is Clear, Aura and The Hydra. Head as well as an examination by John Brushwood of the writer's short fiction and a look by Merlin Forster at Fuentes the playwright. Lanin Gyurko reaches outside Fuentes' canon for his fascinating study of the influence of Orson Welles' Citizen Kane on The Death of Artemio Cruz. Manuel Dur  n and George Wing consider Fuentes in his role as critic of both literature and art Carlos Fuentes A Critical View has been prepared with the writer s many English speaking readers in mind Quotations are most frequently from standard readily available English translations of Fuentes works A valuable chronology of the writer s life rounds off the volume A Bride for One Night Ruth Calderon,2014-03-01 Published by the University of Nebraska Press as a Jewish Publication Society book 50 Ways to Teach Social Studies for Elementary Teachers S. Kay Gandy,2021-06-19 If you are searching for ideas to teach social studies in fun and meaningful ways 50 Ways to Teach Social Studies is a book that provides a plethora of ideas of practical lessons connected to real world topics that will save the busy teacher time and effort The activities in this book are housed under themes and include content connections civics history geography economics guiding questions and literacy connections From community primary sources and music to food visual media and experiential learning this book will inspire you to make connections in your own environment to expand the teaching of social studies
