Private Collectors in Mantua, 1500-1630 Guido Rebecchini, 2002 Case studies of private art collections recorded during the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries in Mantua This work seeks to show how the collectors taste changed during this period and how these changes are reflected in the collections display and also seeks to contribute to the understanding of the original context of works of art in sixteenth and early seventeenth century private houses in a courtly city

Michelangelo in Print Bernadine Barnes, 2017-07-05 In seeing printed reproductions as a form of response to Michelangelo's work Bernadine Barnes focuses on the choices that printmakers and publishers made as they selected which works would be reproduced and how they would be presented to various audiences Six essays set the reproductions in historical context and consider the challenges presented by works in various media and with varying degrees of accessibility while a seventh considers how published verbal descriptions competed with visual reproductions Rather than concentrating on the intentions of the artist Barnes treats the prints as important indicators of the use of and public reaction to Michelangelo's works Emphasizing reception and the construction of history her approach adds to the growing body of scholarship on print culture in the Renaissance The volume includes a comprehensive checklist organized by the work reproduced

On Love and Death Elena María Santiago Páez, Pilar Gómez Bedate, Ignacio Gómez de Liaño, 2001 Gender, Space and Experience at the Renaissance Court Maria Maurer, 2025-10-01 Gender Space and Experience at the Renaissance Court investigates the dynamic relationships between gender and architectural space in Renaissance Italy It examines the ceremonial use and artistic reception of the Palazzo Te from the arrival of the Holy Roman Emperor Charles V in 1530 to the Sack of Mantua in 1630 This book further proposes that we conceptualise the built environment as a performative space a space formed by the gendered relationships and actors of its time The Palazzo Te was constituted by the gendered behaviors of sixteenth century courtiers but it was not simply a passive receptor of gender performance Through its multivalent form and ceremonial function Maria F Maurer argues that the palace was an active participant in the construction and perception of femininity and masculinity in the early modern court
