So Longeth My Soul Joanna Collicutt, 2024-06-30 Students of Christian spirituality often have an ambivalent attitude to primary sources from the past On the one hand they are intrigued by the mysterious otherness of their and the promise that this very otherness may take them into exciting uncharted territory On the other hand they lack the confidence to navigate this territory so that what begins as strangely intriguing can quickly become just too weird The SCM Reader in Christian Spirituality not only offers a collection of readings from the classic texts of Christian spirituality but also gives the reader a way into these texts that enables them to be received as living and relevant for both personal spirituality and ministry An introductory section guides the student through the process and offers techniques for approaching these often ancient texts The Reader then presents readings from the patristic to the end of the early modern period encompassing both the Eastern and Western church traditions grouped around key themes and including extensive notes and contextual material Reader in Trinitarian Theology Henco van der Westhuizen, 2022-12-15 Speaking God today signifies assuming the task constitutive of the discipline of systematic theology A relational God who lives in ex static self giving creates Christian communities of hospitality and generosity and offers a healing vision of truth goodness and beauty Speaking the Triune God extends the promise of the benediction May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Spirit be with you all Rian Venter In this first volume on doing Theology in South Africa Henco van der Westhuizen assembled an array of articles by South African theologians on Trinitarian Theology from 1976 to today Exploring the Spirituality of the Gospels Patrick J.
