

Dealing with Loss and Change

Helping children deal with change, loss or grief is very challenging. Having activities where the children are given opportunities to express themselves can help with the healing process and give them a strategy to begin to deal with their loss.

Most of these activities are designed to work in small groups or 1-to-1, although the memory tree can work with larger groups.

Memory Tree

This activity is designed for use when a large group, or even a whole class, of children may have suffered a loss. Create a tree with the children, including a trunk and branches. Each child then takes a leaf and writes or draws something on it, which could be a memory, a feeling or anything else the children might want to express.

Memory Book

Children create a 'scrapbook' which contains their memories, thoughts and feelings. They can put a picture or photograph on the front and then add whatever they want inside. Ideas can be suggested to the children but it should be led by them.

They might:

- Draw pictures
- Use photographs
- Write a letter
- Have pages for different things (e.g. interests, places, foods, etc)
- Make a family tree
- Collect memories from other people

This activity could be extremely helpful for children experiencing change or loss. They will probably want to talk about the things they are adding, making this invaluable.

Memory Box or Jar

These work in the same way as the memory book except that objects can also be added. These can be personal artefacts or anything else that the child wishes to put inside. Jars can be filled with shells or pebbles which represent different memories. The children could write or draw on the pebbles and use them to represent their thoughts and memories.

Memory Bracelet

A memory bracelet is created using beads that represent different things for the children. It's a good idea to have a selection of beads in different colours or shapes so the children can select ones to hold separate meanings or memories. When discussing change, the bracelet could be made up of 'things they miss' as well as 'positive' aspects of the change (e.g. if they've moved school, they could make new friends). Children receiving medical intervention are sometimes given bracelets, with beads representing each treatment they've been given.

Loss and Change Peter Marris, 1974      Loss and Change (Psychology Revivals) Peter Marris, 2014-10-10 First published in 1974 then reissued in 1986 with a long introduction by the author which developed the analysis in the light of recent theory and related it to work done in the field since its first publication The late Peter Marris shows how understanding grief can help us to understand processes of change both personal and social and to handle them with more compassion for ourselves and others He sees grieving as the working out of a psychological reintegration whose principles are essentially similar whether the structures of meaning of our life fall apart from the loss of a personal relationship of a predictable social context or of an interpretable world Marris draws on his wide ranging research to develop his argument A study of widows a description of the devastating effects of urban renewal projects on people whose familiar neighbourhoods are destroyed an analysis of the activities of tribal associations in Nigeria and reflections on the analogies between scientific and political revolutions are a few of the studies Marris weaves together in tracing the meaning of change and loss in human life

Making Meaning of Loss Richard L. Hayes, 2022-10-31 Making Meaning of Loss Change and Challenge Across the Lifespan is about how change brings loss to our lives how we make meaning of loss and how our experience with loss directs our encounters with loss in the future Each loss challenges us in this way to rethink our world view to ask who we have become and to reinvent ourselves anew Taking a lifespan approach Hayes examines how we make sense of the losses that change brings in each period of our lives and how the way in which we meet the challenge that each loss brings directs our encounters with loss in the future In addition he provides suggestions for how earlier losses can become fruitful allies in encounters with change in the present and how caregivers can help others to make meaning of the loss in their lives Above all this book is about how caregivers can help others learn from the losses in their lives and to recognize what part of the past to bring along into the present in constructing a more reliable self for meeting the challenges of an uncertain future

Loss, Change and Grief Erica Brown, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1999 Helping children come to terms with and be aware of loss change and grief is an undeveloped area within education although they are universal features of human experience Here the author fosters a positive attitude to teaching and learning about such issues She explores many experiences of loss and grief and different beliefs and practices are discussed so that the reader can gain a better understanding of how children grieve She also provides suggestions for ways in which this topic can be taught within the school curriculum and offers practical suggestions for effective professional collaboration      EBOOK: Loss, Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care Pam Firth, Gill Luff, David Oliviere, 2004-12-16 For anyone seeking to develop their understanding of loss and change whether in a palliative care of general or social care setting this book contains much useful material which can be taken selectively or in its entirety Hospice Information Bulletin How do professionals meet the needs of bereaved people How do professionals undertake best practice with individuals groups families and communities What are the implications for employing research to influence practice This book provides a resource for working with a complex range of loss situations and includes chapters on childhood bereavement and individual and family responses to loss and change It contains the most up to date work in the field presented by experienced practitioners and researchers and is relevant not only for those working in specialist palliative care settings but for professionals in general health and social care sectors Strong links are maintained between research and good practice throughout the book These are reinforced by the coherent integration of international research material and the latest thinking about loss and bereavement Experts and clinicians draw upon their knowledge and practice whilst the essential perspective of the service user is central to this book Loss Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care provides essential reading for a range of professional health and social care disciplines practising at postgraduate or post registration qualification level It challenges readers at an advanced level on issues of loss change and bereavement Contributors Lesley Adshead Jenny Altschuler Peter Beresford Grace Christ Suzy Croft Pam Firth Shirley Firth Richard Harding Felicity Hearn Jennie Lester Gill Luff Linda Machin Jan McLaren David Oliviere Ann Quinn Phyllis Silverman Jean Walker Karen Wilman

Seasons of Change Kenneth J. Fallin, 2013-10 Seasons of Change is not just another grief book although that is an important part especially in its focus on the grief encountered in losing a child It is a book about moving through life transitions and change It is about learning to maximize our moments as we accept each day as a gift

Counting Our Losses Darcy L. Harris, 2011-01-19 This text is a valuable resource for clinicians who work with clients dealing with non death nonfinite and ambiguous losses in their lives It explores adjustment to change transition and loss from the perspective of the latest thinking in bereavement theory and research The specific and unique aspects of different types of loss are discussed such as infertility aging chronic illnesses and degenerative conditions divorce and separation immigration adoption loss of beliefs and loss of employment Harris and the contributing authors consider these from an experiential perspective rather than a developmental one in order to focus on the key elements of each loss as it may be experienced at any point in the lifespan Concepts related to adaptation and coping with loss such as resilience hardiness meaning making and the assumptive world transcendence and post traumatic growth are considered as part of the integration of loss into everyday life experience

Digital Methods Tommaso Venturini, Richard Rogers, 2025-09-04 Tommaso Venturini and Richard Rogers offer a critical and conceptual introduction to digital methods In a direct and accessible way the authors provide hands on advice to equip readers with the knowledge they need to understand which digital methods are best suited to their research goals and how to use them Cutting through theoretical and technical complications they focus on the different practices associated with digital methods to skillfully provide a quick start guide to the art of querying prompting API calling scraping mining wrangling visualizing crawling plotting networks and scripting While embracing the capacity of digital methods to rekindle sociological imagination this book also delves into their limits and biases and reveals the hard labor of digital fieldwork The book also touches upon the epistemic and political
