Lugard In Hong Kong Empires Education And A Governor At Work 1907191:

Lugard in Hong Kong Bernard Mellor, 1992-08-01 Sir Frederick Lugard ranks as one of Britain most distinguished colonial administrators although he remains a controversial figure During his five years as Governor of Hong Kong a brief spell in the middle of a long and dramatic career in Africa Lugard found in educational reform the scope he needed to make a lasting impression and give play to his imperialist theories and instincts The University of Hong Kong owes its existence to the initiative and tenacity of Lugard His purpose in founding the University was to produce a new highly educated middle class trained in Western technology and the English language a vanguard of increased British influence in the east This book paints a very human picture of Lugard as a working governor in the relative stability of Hong Kong against a backdrop of the Chinese empire being torn apart by revolution

Education in Hong Kong, Pre-1841 to 1941 Anthony Sweeting, 1990-05-01 To reflect the development and history of education in Hong Kong the author has collected a wide range of fascinating and illuminating material from different sources and wherever appropriate has included his own commentaries The book will be a valuable source of reference for educationalists and others who are interested in the development of education in Hong Kong
