Lyotard And The End Of Grand Narratives:

Lyotard and the End of Grand Narratives Gary K. Browning, 2000 Lyotard's work challenges the presumption and orientation of modern political philosophy. In particular, he repudiates attempts to justify knowledge and society in terms of grand narratives, for example, the liberation of mankind or the immanence of science. He argues that the totalising perspective of these meta-narratives is superseded by a post-modern acceptance of difference and variety and a scepticism towards unifying meta-theories.

The Predicament of Postmodern Theology Gavin Hyman, 2001-01-01 Gavin Hyman explores in depth two antithetical schools of postmodern theology: the radical orthodoxy of John Milbank and the nihilist textualism of Don Cupitt. Hyman critiques Milbank's influential project from a postmodern perspective and then points out the major difficulties with Cupitt's approach. Finally, he explores the work of Mark C. Taylor and Michael de Certeau to articulate a third way that leads beyond the responses of both Cupitt and Milbank.

The Art of Reading Scripture Ellen F. Davis, Richard B. Hays, 2003-10-02 The difficulty of interpreting the Bible is felt all over today. Is the Bible still authoritative for the faith and practice of the church? If so, in what way? What practices of reading offer the most appropriate approach to understanding Scripture? The church's lack of clarity about these issues has hindered its witness and mission, causing it to speak with an uncertain voice to the challenges of our time. This important book is for a twenty-first century church that seems to have lost the art of reading the Bible attentively and imaginatively. The Art of Reading Scripture is written by a group of eminent scholars and teachers seeking to recover the church's rich heritage of biblical interpretation in a dramatically changed cultural environment. Asking how best to read the Bible in a postmodern context, the contributors together affirm up front Nine Theses that provide substantial guidance for the church. The essays and sermons that follow both amplify and model the approach to Scripture outlined in the Nine Theses. Lucidly conceived, carefully written, and shimmering with fresh insights, The Art of Reading Scripture proposes a far-reaching revolution in how the Bible is taught in theological seminaries and calls pastors and teachers in the church to rethink their practices of using the Bible.

Literary Theory and Criticism Patricia Waugh, 2006 This volume offers a comprehensive account of modern literary criticism, presenting the field as part of an ongoing historical and intellectual tradition. Featuring thirty-nine specially commissioned chapters from an international team of esteemed contributors, it fills a large gap in the market by combining the accessibility of single-authored selections with a wide range of critical perspectives. The volume is divided into four parts. Part One covers the key philosophical and aesthetic origins of literary theory, while Part Two discusses the foundational movements and thinkers in the first half of the twentieth century. Part Three offers introductory overviews of the most important movements and thinkers in modern literary theory, and Part Four looks at emergent trends and future directions.

The Theology of Martin Luther King, Jr. and Desmond Mpilo Tutu J. Hill, 2007-10-29 Hill brings two of the most prominent theologians of our time Martin Luther King Jr and Desmond Tutu into conversation to explore the meaning of the Christian ideas of reconciliation multiculturalism and social justice for today's world It offers a comprehensive analysis of King and Tutu's theology with implications for contemporary issues

Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee, Richard L. Warms, 2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why if you will In response SAGE Reference plans to publish the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader's Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader's Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion

Beyond Evangelicalism Steven Knowles, 2010 A prolific author and thinker Stanley J Grenz was a respected and influential figure not only within evangelicalism but in the wider theological world Amongst the many issues tackled by him it is perhaps his revisioning of evangelical theology in the light of the postmodern challenge that has caused the biggest stir in the theological world Advocating a nonfoundationalist methodology Grenz attempts to re position evangelical theology in line with postmodern concerns This will be the first book length treatment on Grenz's work on theological methodology and therefore will break new ground in this important area of study

A Multi-Paradigmatic Approach to Understanding History Kavous Ardalan, 2022-12-08 This book explores the field of history through a multi paradigmatic approach For this purpose it begins with a discussion of four most diverse worldviews or paradigms namely functionalist interpretive radical humanist and radical structuralist before moving on to consider four aspects of the field of history historiography grand narrative progress and time from the viewpoints of the four most diverse worldviews or paradigms Next the book looks at three historical events the French Revolution the American Civil War and the Iranian

Revolution from the viewpoints of the four most diverse worldviews or paradigms It concludes by recommending paradigm diversity as an understanding of different paradigms leads to a more comprehensive and a more balanced understanding of the multi faceted nature of the subject matter Hermeneutics, Citizenship, and the Public Sphere Roberto

Alejandro,1993-07-01 This book sheds new light on the question of democratic politics by proposing a hermeneutic conception of citizenship and the public sphere At the same time it presents a critique of the postmodern arguments advanced by Richard Rorty Jean Francois Lyotard and Jean Baudrillard Questioning a dominant interpretation that sees Gadamer s hermeneutics as the expression of a conservative project Alejandro argues that it includes an important element of critique that could challenge dominant structures and practices On Paul Ricoeur David Wood,2002-11 A collection of essays including three pieces by Ricoeur himself examining this subject Ricoeur s study of the intertwining of time and narrative proposes and examines the possibility that narrative could remedy a fatal deficiency in any purely phenomenological approach

two edited collections that critically assess the historical and contemporary processes that have shaped the formation and transformation of the African university It provides general perspectives reflections and a selection of case studies from different regions and higher education systems highlighting the vibrant debates on the social and institutional life of universities in Africa The chapters assembled here capture the rich experiences strategies and analyses of students lecturers researchers and administrators showcasing the university as a dynamic lived experience Contributors are Kasturi Behari Leak Eli Bitzer Destin Feutseu Dassi David Kaldewey Patr cio V Langa Laetus O K Lategan Elisio Macamo Teboho Moja Mariah Mosomi Bakheit Mohammed Nur Lerato Posholi Leonie Schoelen and Cecil Swart Challenges and Controversies

in Management Research Bill Lee,Catherine Cassell,2011-01-25 Management research has expanded considerably over recent decades The impetus for such growth comes from a wide range of forces both inside and outside of the academic community stimulate and regulate its development while the audience for which management research might be considered to be useful and the extent of that usefulness are highly contested This book seeks to explore the forces that drive the development of management research shape its current state and influence its future potential The Mass and Modernity Jonathan Robinson,2010-11-12 Many in the Church have accepted modernity in their effort to speak to the modern world and not nearly enough attention has been given to trying to disentangle the complex of ideas and half formulated convictions that constitute this mind set which is in fact contrary to Christianity The first aim of this book is to examine the origins and present day influence of modernity and then to argue that there is nothing in the Christian s concern for the modern world that requires accepting this damaging mind set in connection with the highest form of worship the Mass The second aim of the book is to show that the sources of a genuine liturgical renewal are to be found in a heightened sense of the centrality of the Mass and a return to a theology compatible with the Catechism of the Catholic Church Fr Robinson's book is a philosopher's gift to the Catholic liturgy He provides a thoroughly lucid account of the climate of ideas which handicaps the celebration of Catholic worship in the modern world This is a diagnosis which shows just how far reaching must be the cure Fr Aidan Nichols Author Looking at the Liturgy

Knowledge and Postmodernism in Historical Perspective Joyce Appleby, Elizabeth Covington, David Hoyt, Michael Latham, Allison Sneider, 2020-04-16 This comprehensive reader chronicles the western engagement with the nature of knowledge during the past four centuries while providing the historical context for the postmodernist thought of Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Richard Rorty and Hayden White and the challenges their ideas have posed to our conventional ways of thinking writing and knowing Creative Arts Research Elizabeth Grierson, Laura Brearley, 2009-01-01 Creative Arts Research Narratives of Methodologies and Practices is an innovative set of essays that grows out of active engagement with arts practice pedagogy and research The collection presents a selection of arts based research projects their methodologies practices and guiding philosophies and throws new light on a range of issues that bring artists designers and performers into conversation with one another The collection weaves together theoretical and applied dimensions of creative arts research Following Martin Heidegger the lead authors Elizabeth Grierson and Laura Brearley situate the text through consideration of ways of framing knowing and being looking and listening analysing being with proposing acting and reflecting constructing performing deconstructing and learning Heidegger's notion of gathering and his proposition Questioning builds a way the way is one of thinking provides the means to link the different chapters This wide ranging metaphoric device allows the authors to emphasise a set of fundamental questions concerning epistemologies ways of knowing and ontologies ways of being and the relations between the two Their book opens a conceptual space to recognise the diversity of practices that count as creative arts research

Western Historiography in Asia Q. Edward Wang, Okamoto Michihiro, Longguo Li, 2022-02-21 This volume provides a unique and critical perspective on how Chinese Japanese and Korean scholars engage and critique the West in their historical thinking It showcases the dialogue between Asian experts and their Euro American counterparts and offers valuable insights on how to challenge and overcome Eurocentrism in historical writing Thinking in Education Research Nick Peim, 2018-03-08 Thinking in Education Research examines the resources available from philosophy and theory that can be practically applied to any educational research project Nick Peim argues that the current well established divide between theory and the empirical in research methods is unhelpful to students Instead Thinking in Education Research looks at major lines of thinking in modern European philosophy from Kant to Freud and Derrida to Malabou and how they provide a rich resource for every stage of conducting research By getting students engaged in how to think and how to do Peim illustrates that thinking is in fact a vital part of how you do research and is not an aside Essential aspects of the research endeavour are re examined in the light of key philosophical positions to offer constructive potential including defining the object giving an account of the field the relation to truth the process of writing and constructing a case and the value attributed to formal knowledge Thinking in Education Research does not try to resolve the unresolved issues of research thinking but rather encourages readers to productively engage with them so that we can enhance the possibilities of research practice and find opportunities for its expansion and refinement Throughout the chapters clear and concise summaries of key philosophical positions and ideas are complemented with boxed accounts of how the philosophical debates discussed can be applied to real research projects These features encourage the reader to consider how they can develop thinking and apply theory at every stage of their own research This is essential reading for any educational research methods student or practicing researcher for important ways of thinking afresh about research methodology

Christian Humanism John P. Bequette, 2007 In Christian Humanism John Bequette articulates the principles of the Christian humanist worldview and reflects upon contemporary culture in light of these principles Writing from the perspective of the Catholic faith Bequette focuses on the healing and restorative dimensions of Christianity in relation to academics literature economics Christian Jewish relations gender issues human life issues and political life

The Contradictions of Culture Elizabeth Wilson, 2001-03-08 In this book one of the most accomplished and thoughtful cultural commentators of the day considers the contradictory nature of cultural relations Elizabeth Wilson explores these themes through an examination of fashion feminism consumer culture representation and postmodernism Debates within feminism on the nature and effects of pornography are used to illustrate a particular kind of cultural contradiction Wilson recognizes that postmodernism permitted the reappropriation of subjects that were not previously considered worthy of attention or opposed to the idea of emancipation chief among these was fashion She shows that the association of an interest in this culturally significant subject with a revisionist project raises doubt
