Marriage and Mutton Curry M. Shanmughalingam, A kimono clad Tamil woman greets Japanese soldiers at the door while her Anglophile husband cowers in his Jaguar Two sisters share a husband when one fails to produce a child for the longest time An American diplomat's urgent inquiries about the Malaysian treasury's facilities are hilariously misunderstood A daring civil servant proposes to a Ceylonese lady in his hometown mere minutes after meeting her breaking a thousand years of marriage protocol M Shanmughalingam's debut collection paints with gentle wit and humour the concerns and intrigues of the Jaffna Tamil community in Malaya At turns satirical empathetic and insightful these fifteen stories explore what happens when we hold on to and choose to leave behind our traditions and identities in a changing world      Cruise of the Minnie Maud Alfred Tremblay, 1921 Contains a description of Captain J E Bernier's expedition to Baffin Island and of expedition member Alfred Tremblay's explorations of Hudson Bay Eclipse Sound Admiralty Inlet and other arctic regions in the Arctic Archipelago      The Other Empire Ronald D. Klein, 2008 In this survey of literary images of Japan Ronald Klein has identified more than 160 works with Japanese characters providing both comprehensive overviews as well as individual monographs on specific writers This book creates a subgenre of thematic work positing an alternative postcolonial relationship      Nanyang Wang Gungwu,2018-05-03 This volume is a book of reflections and encounters about the region that the Chinese knew as Nanyang The essays in it look back at the years of uncertainty after the end of World War II and explore the period largely through images of mixed heritages in Malaysia and Singapore They also look at the trends towards social and political divisiveness following the years of decolonization in Southeast Asia Never far in the background is the struggle to build new nations during four decades of an ideological Cold War and the Chinese determination to move from near collapse in the 1940s and out of the traumatic changes of the Maoist revolution to become the powerhouse that it now is

Red Star Over Malaya Cheah Boon Kheng,2013-07-15 Red Star Over Malaya is an account of the inter racial relations between Malays and Chinese during the final stages of the Japanese occupation In 1947 none of the three major race of Malaya Malays Chinese and Indians regarded themselves as pan ethnic e Malayanse with common duties and problems With the occupation forcibly cut them off from China Chinese residents began to look inwards towards Malaya and stake political claims leading inevitably to a political contest with the Malays As the country advanced towards nationhood and self government there was tension between traditional loyalties to the Malay rulers and the states or to ancestral homelands elsewhere and the need to cultivate an enduring loyalty to Malaya on the part of those who would make their home there in future As Japanese forces withdrew from the countryside the Chinese guerrillas of the communist led resistance movement the Malayan People s Anti Japanese Army MPAJA emerged from the jungle and took control of some 70 per cent of the country s smaller towns and villages seriously alarming the Malay population When the British Military Administration sought to regain control of these liberated areas the ensuing conflict set the tone for future political conflicts and marked a crucial stage in the history of Malaya Based on extensive archival research Red Star Over Malaya provides a riveting account of the way the Japanese occupation reshaped colonial Malaya and of the tension filled months that followed Japan s surrender This book is fundamental to an understanding of social and political developments in Malaysia during the second half of the 20th century

Malaysia Official Year Book Malaysia,1968      The Bookseller ,1961      Red Star Over Malaya Boon Kheng Cheah,2003 Based on extensive archival research in Malaysia Great Britain Japan and the United States Red Star Over Malaya provides an account of the way the Japanese occupation reshaped colonial Malaya and of the tension filled months that followed surrender This book now in its third edition is fundamental to an understanding of social and political developments in Malaysia during the second half of the 20th century BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      The Japanese Occupation of Malaya and Singapore, 1941-45 Paul H. Kratoska,2018-04-30 Japanese forces invaded Malaya on 8 December 1941 and British forces surrendered in Singapore 70 days later Japan would rule the territory for the next 3 years Early efforts to maintain pre war standards of comfort gave way to a grim struggle for survival as the vibrant economy ground to a halt and residents struggled to deal with unemployment shortages of consumer goods sharp price rises a thriving black market and widespread corruption People were hungry dressed in rags and falling victim to treatable diseases for which medicines were unavailable and there was little reason to hope for better in the future Using surviving administrative papers oral materials intelligence reports and post war accounts by Japanese officers this book presents a picture of life in occupied Malaya and Singapore It shows the impact of war and occupation on a non belligerent population and creates a new understanding of the changes and the continuities that underlay the post war economy and society The book was first published in 1998 and is now re issued in new edition that incorporates information from newly translated Japanese documents and other recent discoveries The Japanese

Occupation of Malaya Paul H. Kratoska,1997-01-01 Japan attacked British ruled Malaya on 8 December 1941 as part of a wave of military actions that toppled the British Dutch and American colonial regimes in Southeast Asia Within seventy days the conquest of Malaya was complete and British forces in Singapore surrendered on 15 February 1942 The three and a half years of Japanese rule are generally considered to mark a profound transition in the history of the Malay peninsula but little is known about this period This book uses the limited administrative papers that survived in Malaya oral sources and accounts written by Japanese officers involved in the Malayan campaign to flesh out the story Ipoh Tak Ming Ho,2009

Memory and Nation-Building Vandana Saxena,2021-08-31 Nations are built by narrating their past Threads of common memories weave the fabric of the national culture integrating the heterogenous communities into the idea of a single nation In multicultural societies the process is a messy one Different communities remember the past from perspectives that often clash with each other Multiple memories of a multicultural nation challenge the idea of a singular national identity and call for multiple forms of belonging Memory and Nation Building explores the contemporary images of World War II in Malaysian literature and the continuing significance of the conflict in the collective memory and nation building in Malaysia Given the multicultural nature of the nation the War memories of Malaysia are multiple and often contradictory In the contemporary Malaysian literature these memories embody the search for a historical narrative that would accommodate the cultural and ethnic diversity of the country Ideological Stylistics and Fictional Discourse Ganakumaran Subramaniam,2009-01-14

This book focuses on ideology and its function in fictional discourse exploring the link between textual ideologies and real ideologies in text production environments It attempts this through a specific focus on the social and linguistic elements that control the presence the use and the presentation of ideology and also the way in which linguistic elements are controlled and manipulated by the collective consciousness of the text producer This correlation between fictional discourse and ideology is revealed through a series of chapters that cover four closely interrelated areas focusing specifically on Malaysian and Singaporean fiction Firstly the positioning of Malaysian and Singaporean literatures in English as individual literary traditions This is to counter the non recognition of Malaysian and Singaporean literatures as individual traditions in spite of five decades of independence Secondly establishing a contextual socio cultural and political framework as a basis for discussion on real ideology arguing that Malaysian and Singaporean writers have moved beyond the anti western nationalistic stage and on to more personal and communal concerns such as race relations identity and a sense of belonging Thirdly rationalising the social structures of ideology that are likely to be found in the Malaysian and Singaporean social milieus especially location and text specific social variables of ideology Lastly it seeks to reveal a linguistic oriented approach for the study of textual ideologies and for linking textual ideologies to ideologies in the overall text production environment The book ultimately shows the significant possibilities of systematic links between textual ideology and the real ideology in the text production environment through what can best be termed as ideological stylistics In doing so it aims to contribute significantly to studies of ideology in general and more specifically on ideology on Malaysian and Singaporean literatures in English
