On Literature J. Hillis Miller,2003-09-02 Debates rage over what kind of literature we should read what is good and bad literature and whether in the global digital age literature even has a future But what exactly is literature Why should we read literature How do we read literature These are some of the important questions J Hillis Miller answers in this beautifully written and passionate book He begins by asking what literature is arguing that the answer lies in literature s ability to create an imaginary world simply with words On Literature also asks the crucial question of why literature has such authority over us Returning to Plato Aristotle and the Bible Miller argues we should continue to read literature because it is part of our basic human need to create imaginary worlds and to have stories Above all On Literature is a plea that we continue to read and care about literature Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America Jerónimo

Arellano,2015-05-21 Iconoclastic in spirit Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America is the first study of affect and emotion in magical realist literature Against the grain of a vast body of scholarship it argues that magical realism is neither exotic commodity nor postcolonial resistance but an art form fueled by a search for spaces of wonder in a disenchanted world Linking the rise and fall of magical realism and kindred narrative forms to the shifting value of wonder as an emotional experience this thought provoking study proposes a radical new approach to canonical novels such as One Hundred Years of Solitude Received as one of the most convincing manifestations of the turn to affect in contemporary Latin American critical thought Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions draws on affect theory the history of emotions and new materialism to reframe key questions in Latin American literature and culture Magical Powers of Gratitude
