Magicians Magic:

Here Is Real Magic Nate Staniforth, 2018-01-16 An extraordinary memoir about finding wonder in everyday life from magician Nate Staniforth Nate Staniforth has spent most of his life and all of his professional career trying to understand wonder what it is where to find it and how to share it with others He became a magician because he learned at a young age that magic tricks don't have to be frivolous Magic doesn't have to be about sequins and smoke machines rather it can create a moment of genuine astonishment But after years on the road as a professional magician crisscrossing the country and performing four or five nights a week every week Nate was disillusioned burned out and ready to quit Instead he went to India in search of magic Here Is Real Magic follows Nate Staniforth's evolution from an obsessed young magician to a broken wanderer and back again It tells the story of his rediscovery of astonishment and the importance of wonder in everyday life during his trip to the slums of India where he infiltrated a three thousand year old clan of street magicians Here Is Real Magic is a call to all of us to welcome awe back into our lives to marvel in the everyday and to seek magic all around us

The Encyclopedia of Vaudeville Anthony Slide, 2012-03-12 The Encyclopedia of Vaudeville provides a unique record of what was once America's preeminent form of popular entertainment from the late 1800s through the early 1930s. It includes entries not only on the entertainers themselves but also on those who worked behind the scenes: the theatres, genres, and historical terms. Entries on individual vaudevillians include biographical information, samplings of routines, and often commentary by the performers. Many former vaudevillians were interviewed for the book, including Milton Berle, Block and Sully, Kitty Doner, Fifi D'Orsay, Nick Lucas, Ken Murray, Fayard, Nicholas, Olga Petrova, Rose Marie, Arthur Tracy, and Rudy Vallee. Where appropriate, entries also include bibliographies. The volume concludes with a guide to vaudeville resources and a general bibliography. Aside from its reference value, with its more than five hundred entries, The Encyclopedia of Vaudeville discusses the careers of the famous and the forgotten. Many of the vaudevillians here, including Jack Benny, George Burns, and Gracie Allen, Jimmy Durante, W.C. Fields, Bert Lahr, and Mae West, are familiar names today thanks to their continuing careers on screen. At the same time, and given equal coverage, are forgotten acts, legendary female impersonators Bert Savoy and Jay Brennan, the vulgar Eva Tanguay with her billing as The I Don't Care Girl, male impersonator Kitty Doner, and a host of freak acts.
