Mahout A Keeper And Driver Of An Elephant:

Mahout, a Keeper and Driver of an Elephant Henry M. Christman, 1982 The Elephant Tourism Business Eric Laws, Noel Scott, Xavier Font, John Koldowski, 2020-11-23 Elephant tourism is a growing activity in many countries across Asia and Africa and is popular with tourists from all parts of the world Elephant tourism has grown rapidly providing the only viable way for elephants and their owners to survive since the banning of logging Old logging camps have been developed into sanctuaries for some elephants but many other camps were established as entertainment centres resulting in serious welfare issues for the elephants and their mahouts The profits from elephant tourism in Asia have encouraged African operators to follow a similar business model This book draws attention to the need for a comprehensive and rigorous focus on local solutions to improve the welfare of captive elephants their mahouts and local residents and to enhance tourists experiences of elephant tourism Here a Monk, There a Monk... Carol J. Nash, 2005 With return tickets to Bangkok a change of clothing and accommodation booked for the first night or so we thought two intrepid middle aged would be backpackers boarded the plane With six weeks to spare a couple of guidebooks and a craving for an adventure we travelled Thailand by boats trains planes motorcycles jeeps buses elephants and Shank s pony slept in tribal village huts guesthouses a hospital ward the jeep and found a home away from home in a bamboo beach hut on the Andaman Coast had close encounters with elephants monkeys snakes birds crocodiles and spiders but missed the egg laying turtle and the small furry thing that feasted on our fruit met a diversity of people the masked conductor Long Neck women Big Eared woman tribal village chiefs Mr Happy Terrible Tony Dr Doom Supa the Silent One the King President s nutter and Evan the hungry monk having had our fill of waterfalls temples caves and mountains and overdosed on a surfeit of greenery I fell in love with potbelly bins Graham burnt in the sea we sweated in the cities froze in the mountains and survived a frenzied attack by giant hailstones boiled eggs in the hot springs ate dinner cooked by the opium smoking village chief dined on the beach grazed from night markets and roadside stalls and forgot all about sandwiches discovered that Thailand is where distance means time tea means anything from boiled up tree bark to chocolate flavoured coffee where anything we ordered meant chicken fried rice and where yes means yes no I don t know or anything else in between from the beaches to the mountainous jungle regions from the Himalayas to the mighty Mekhong River we had an adventure almost every day saw a profusion of golden spires gleaming white marble smoky incense dragons Buddhas of every size in gold emerald stone and plaster and came across monks where we least expected them old monks boy monks tall monks short monks Here a Monk There a Monk and I never ever touched a monk Elephant Welfare in Global Tourism Eric Laws, David W. Knight, Timothy Lee, Kom Campiranon, Bongkosh Rittichainuwat, Ann Suwaree Ashton, John Koldowski, Melody Zhirui Zhou, 2025-05-30 At the centre of the elephant tourism industry lie two profound challenges the delicate balance between income and compassion and the severe threats to the survival of all remaining elephant species Trained elephants exchange hands for staggering sums reaching up to 100 000 each yet the colossal appetites of the herds with each elephant devouring over 100 kilograms of sustenance daily pose formidable economic challenges for camp owners An elephant camp's revenue is dependent on tourism with a complex web of specialist businesses local and international large and small contracted to recruit and enable visitors This results in competition focused mainly on price and profitability considerations The inadequacies of these business networks and of the administrative controls within which they operate were demonstrated during the complete shutdown of elephant tourism venues in early 2020 due to COVID 19 This authoritative text analyses elephants vulnerabilities providing an inspiring call to action for a more compassionate coexistence between elephants and the stakeholders responsible for their individual and herd welfare and survival Elephant Welfare in Global Tourism is intended for managers professionals and administrators of elephant camps refuges and rescue centres and for NGOs providing advice and support Academic researchers on wildlife may find inspiration for suitable topics and examples of current methodologies The Keeper's
