Maid To Order In Hong Kong:

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 1997 The forms of discipline range from physical abuse to intrusive regulations including restrictions on hair length and the prohibition of lipstick Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 2007 In this update of her 1997 ethnography the author traces changes that have taken place in the service sector of Hong Kong's workforce since its reunification with mainland China in that year Argues that though the influx of foreign domestic workers has risen dramatically and they are somewhat more politically active the abuse lay offs and other challenges of these mostly Indonesian and Filipina women's daily lives in a globalized economy remain much the same as they relate in their own words Multinational Maids Anju Mary Paul, 2017-09-28 Multinational Maids offers an in depth investigation into the international migrations of Filipino and Indonesian migrant domestic workers The author taps on her rigorous study of more than 1 200 subjects migration trajectories to reveal how these migrants work in a series of overseas countries to improve their lives and in some cases seek permanent residence in another country Challenging the portrayal of Asian migrant domestic workers as victims of globalization Multinational Maids reveals migrants agency and strategic thinking under conditions of constraint At the market level the establishment of guestworker programmes for migrant domestic workers in multiple countries has created a global labor market A transnational diaspora shapes migrants evolving destination imaginaries while manpower recruitment and placement agencies create transnational mobility structures In addition differing destination hierarchies and degrees of access to resources lead to the adoption of divergent stepwise trajectories Written in an accessible manner Multinational Maids appeals to migration scholars policymakers activists and students Global Woman Barbara Ehrenreich, 2004 Two social scientists chart the consequences of the global economy on women across the world revealing the underground economy that has turned many poor women into virtual slaves

HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH: Maid to Order, An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the social sciences However as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration

Security and Migration in Asia Melissa Curley, Siu-lun Wong, 2008-07-30 Security and Migration in Asia explores how various forms of unregulated and illegal forms of human movement within Asia and beyond the region have come to be treated as security issues and whether and how a securitization framework enables a more effective response to them The process and theory of securitization and desecuritization have been developed within the international relations literature by the so call Copenhagen school scholars including Barry Buzan and Ole Wæver among others The topics explored in this well presented and engaging book cover geographic areas of China Northeast Asia Central Asia the Russian Far East Southeast Asia and the Hong Kong SAR and includes research on human trafficking and people smuggling financing illegal migration and links to transnational organized crime regulated and unregulated labour migration the securitization of illegal migration in sending transit and receiving countries This book provides compelling insights into contemporary forms of illegal migration under conditions of globalization and makes a contribution to the literature in international relations and migration studies

Passport Entanglements Nicole Constable, 2022-11-15 Passport Entanglements examines the problems with documents issued to Indonesian migrant workers in Hong Kong and explores the larger role that passports and other types of documentation play in gendered migration precarious labor and bureaucracy Focusing on the politics and inequalities embedded in passports anthropologist Nicole Constable considers how these instruments determine legal status and dictate rights Constable finds that new biometric technologies and surveillance do not lead to greater protection security or accuracy but rather reinforce violent structures on already vulnerable women by producing new vulnerabilities and reproducing old ones

Psyche of Asian Society Aradhana Shukla, Anubhuti Dubey, Narendra Singh Thagunna, 2019-01-01 Every culture has its own values and of course they are different in every walk of life with more or less magnitude We can see a lot of variation in two cultures in regard to their way of thought way of behaviour parameters and so many other things Asia is a big continent and it covers forty eight countries in its roof These countries are somehow similar in traditions and behaviour performance and vice versa in some other respects of life But it is quite sure that there is a common thread that links them in one single garland The aim of this volume is to collect the gems from entire Asia and bring them on one platform There are twenty four articles in this volume They reveal various aspects of the particular country where the work is done Chapters are in theoretical and or in empirical mode and we hope that they will provide good insight to the readers to move on their interest and research

All Made Up Rae Nudson, 2021-07-13 A fascinating journey through history and culture examining how makeup affects self empowerment how people have used it to define and defy their roles in society and why we all need to care There is a history and a cultural significance that comes with wearing cat eye inspired liner or a bold red lip one that many women feel to this day even if we don't realize exactly why Increasingly people of all genders are wrestling with what it means to be a woman living in a patriarchy and part of that is how looking like a woman whatever that means affects people's real lives Through the stories of famous women like Cleopatra Empress Wu Madam C J Walker Elizabeth Taylor and Marsha P Johnson Rae Nudson unpacks makeup's cultural impact including how it can be used to shape a personal or cultural narrative how often beauty standards align with whiteness how and when it can be used for safety and its function in the workplace to name a few examples Every woman has had to make a very personal choice about her relationship with makeup and consciously or unconsciously every woman knows that the choice is never entirely hers to make This book also holds space for complicating factors especially the ways that beauty standards differ across race class and culture Engaging and informative All Made Up will expand the discussion around what it means to participate in creating your own self image

Urban Chinese Daughters Patricia O'Neill, 2018-05-02 The lives of urban Chinese daughters have changed Education and employment have propelled them from dependency to self sufficiency resulting in new attitudes and lifestyles However traditional filial obligation has remained This book asks why it continues and how it is currently discharged focusing on the emotion work daughters do to sustain the parent relationship deal with conflict and maintain their self esteem Based on interviews with women living in Hong Kong Singapore and mainland China the book further explores whether the structural or relational motivations underpinning support and care may be less important than the standards daughters impose on themselves why care may be discontinued or not undertaken in the first place why care provided to parents may be different from in laws and the importance of domestic helpers to the modern caregiving paradigm To undertake this exploration a typology of support and care was created allowing for the first time to distinguish between what daughters do for healthy parents and in laws versus parents who require temporary or full time care specifically addressing how providing support and care affects the daughters well being

Global Labour History Jan Lucassen, 2008 Contains 18 essays on worldwide aspects and comparisons in labour history Covers mainly the period from the beginning of 19th century to 2000

Rising India and Indian Communities in East Asia K Kesavapany, A Mani, P Ramasamy, 2008 This edited volume containing thirty five chapters focuses on three main contemporary issues the phenomenon of new Indians in the past five decades the impact of rising India on settled Indian communities and the recent migrants By examining these interrelated aspects this study seeks to address questions like what does Rising India mean to Indian communities in East Asia How are members of Indian communities responding to India s rise Will India pay greater attention to people of

Global Culture/Individual Identity Gordon Mathews, 2002-09-11 Most people still think of themselves as belonging to a particular culture Yet today many of us who live in affluent societies choose aspects of our lives from a global cultural supermarket whether in terms of food the arts or spiritual beliefs So if roots are becoming simply one more consumer choice can we still claim to possess a fundamental cultural identity Global Culture Individual Identity focuses on three groups for whom the tension between a particular national culture and the global cultural supermarket is especially acute Japanese artists American religious seekers and Hong Kong intellectuals after the handover to China These ethnographic case studies form the basis for a theory of culture which we can all see reflected in our own lives Gordon Mathews opens up the complex and debated topics of globalization culture and identity in a clear and lively style

Gender, Religion, and Migration Glenda Tibe Bonifacio, Vivienne S. M. Angeles, 2010-01-01 Gender Religion and Migration is the first collection of case studies on how religion impacts the lives of im migrant men women and youth in their integration in host societies in Asia Pacific Europe Latin America and North America It interrogates the populist ideology that religion is anathema to social integration in the post 9 11 era

Diasporic Journeys, Ritual, and Normativity among Asian

Migrant Women Pnina Werbner, Mark Johnson, 2019-07-09 The power of embodied ritual performance to constitute agency and transform subjectivity are increasingly the focus of major debates in the anthropology of Christianity and Islam They are particularly relevant to understanding the way transnational women migrants from South and South East Asia Christians Muslims and Buddhists who migrate to Asia Europe and the Middle East to work as carers and maids re imagine and recreate themselves in moral and ethical terms in the diaspora This timely collection shows how women international migrants stereotypically represented as a nation of servants reclaim sacralised spaces of sociality in their migration destinations and actively transform themselves from mere workers into pilgrims and tourists on cosmopolitan journeys Such women struggle for dignity and respect by re defining themselves in terms of an ethics of care and sacrifice As co worshippers they recreate community through fiestas feasts protests and shared conviviality while subverting established normativities of gender marriage and conjugality they renegotiate their moral selfhood through religious conversion and activism For migrants the place of the church or mosque becomes a gateway to new intellectual and experiential horizons as well as a locus for religious worship and a haven of humanitarian assistance in a strange land This book was published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology

Masters and servants Claire Lowrie, 2016-05-01 Illustrates the centrality of domestic politics to colonial rule and the ways in which mastery over servants was a key expression of colonial power

Serving the Household and the Nation Shu-Ju Ada Cheng, 2006-01-01 Serving the Household and the Nation is an absorbing sociological study of the globalization of domestic service Using the case of Filipina domestics in Taiwan Cheng examines how nationalist politics shape the experience of migrant women under the context of globalization For migrant domestics it is often the state policy that creates their structural vulnerability in public and in private Cheng focuses on the question of how the intervention of the state and the development of nationhood shape the localization of domestic service and explores the nexus between homemaking and nation building This revealing book demonstrates how the management of foreign domestics is not only important for labor control but also central to the state s administration over alien subjects the development of nationhood and in this case study the changing ethnoscape in Taiwan

Just Work? Aziz Choudry, Mondli Hlatshwayo, 2015-12-20 This book offers a vast range of grassroots perspectives on global migrant labour organisation in the twenty first century From workers organisations in South African migrant worker resistance in the Gulf from forest workers in the Czech Republic to domestic workers structures in Hong Kong this book brings together a wealth of lived experiences and hidden struggles for the first time Highlighting the changing nature of frontline struggles against exploitation Just Work shows that migrant workers are finding new and innovative ways of resisting neoliberal immigration measures as they are forced to fight against the precarious nature of jobs from both within and outside of traditional forms of labour organisations With contributions from scholars and activists from around the world engaged in this resistance this will be an accessible collection based on grassroots experiences placed in a political economy framework The full list of regions explored are

South Africa Latin America Philippines the Gulf Arab States North America Czech Republic Hong Kong Japan London Nigeria New Zealand Canada and Switzerland

At Home with Apartheid Rebecca Ginsburg, 2011-08-30 Despite their peaceful bucolic appearance the tree lined streets of South African suburbia were no refuge from the racial tensions and indignities of apartheid's most repressive years In At Home with Apartheid Rebecca Ginsburg provides an intimate examination of the cultural landscapes of Johannesburg's middle and upper middle class neighborhoods during the height of apartheid c 1960 1975 and incorporates recent scholarship on gender the home and family More subtly but no less significantly than factory floors squatter camps prisons and courtrooms the homes of white South Africans were sites of important contests between white privilege and black aspiration Subtle negotiations within the domestic sphere between white mostly female householders and their black domestic workers also primarily women played out over and around this space These seemingly mundane private conflicts were part of larger contemporary struggles between whites and blacks over territory and power Ginsburg gives special attention to the distinct social and racial geographies produced by the workers detached living quarters designed by builders and architects as landscape complements to the main houses Ranch houses Italianate villas modernist cubes and Victorian bungalows filled Johannesburg's suburbs What distinguished these neighborhoods from their precedents in the United States or the United Kingdom was the presence of the ubiquitous back rooms and of the African women who inhabited them in these otherwise exclusively white areas The author conducted more than seventy five personal interviews for this book an approach that sets it apart from other architectural histories In addition to these oral accounts Ginsburg draws from plans drawings and onsite analysis of the physical properties themselves While the issues addressed span the disciplines of South African and architectural history feminist studies material culture studies and psychology the book's strong narrative powerful oral histories and compelling subject matter bring the neighborhoods and residents it examines vividly to life
