North Woods at Night: Literary Reflections on Maine's Largest Forest Steven Long, Ret Talbot, 2024-12-01 North Woods at Night is a rich anthology of 38 Maine writers reflecting on the magic and mystery of the state's largest forest. Through poems, stories, and essays, this collection brings to life nighttime camping adventures, encounters with creatures, and the peace found in nature. Whether it's humorous anecdotes of outhouse trips or soul-searching moments beneath the stars, the anthology captures the transformative power of Maine's wild. Proceeds from sales will benefit the Forest Society of Maine, supporting their efforts to conserve Maine's forest heritage.

The Midas Deep John Brosnan, 2012-12-21 In the darkest depths of the Pacific lies a new underwater frontier where only the brave or the desperate dare to tread. Experts from the West to harvest rich minerals and to spy The Russians to further their plans for global domination. A team of sadistic mercenaries hired to protect mammoth business interests. And a British journalist Christopher Maine in search of a story and the sinister truth. Down on the ocean bed, a giant submersible forages for hidden treasures. But then the forces of man and nature terrifyingly unleash disaster after disaster until the survival of the world itself is at stake.

Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination Michael D. Burke, 2020-12-15 The essays in Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination address from a variety of perspectives how Maine's unique identity among the states of the United States has been formed and what that identity is. A place that is still imagined by others primarily through its environmental associations: its nature and landscape rather than through its social arrangements and human history. The collection attempts a foundational study not of a regional literature but of a state literature. In doing so, it makes the case that Maine was constructed imaginatively and environmentally through its literature and that this image is the one that endures even now. The essays suggest how this identity was formed by discussing writings ranging from the recently recovered work of Joseph Nicolai, a member of the Penobscot Nation in the late 19th century, to the contemporary Maine author Carolyn Chute from Thoreau's canonical essay Ktaadn to the modernist E. B. White whose works have an underappreciated environmental project. Contributors include scholars Nathaniel Lewis, Annette Kolodny, Linda Kornasky, Daniel Malachuk, Kent Ryden, and Lynn Wake.

Maine's Remarkable Women Kate Kennedy, 2016-05-01 Maine's Remarkable Women tells the stories of fifteen strong and determined women who broke through social, cultural, or political barriers. Through their passions for art, exploration, literature, politics, music, and nature, these women made contributions to society that still resonate today. Meet Marguerite Tante Blanche Thibodeau, Cyr, The Mother of Madawaska, whose bravery and kindness during one brutal winter saved her frontier settlement; botanist/artist Kate Furbish, who explored Maine's wilderness collecting, classifying, and painting all of its flowering plants; and Florence Nicolai Shay, a Native American basketmaker who demanded and succeeded in gaining rights.

for her tribe the Penobscots Each of these women demonstrated courage compassion and an independence of spirit that is as inspiring now as it was then Read about their extraordinary lives in this collection of brief and absorbing biographies
