My Life With Buffalo Bill (Classic Reprint) Dan Muller, 2017-02-03 Excerpt from My Life With Buffalo Bill Mr Sorenson drove steadily and as fast as the trail and the horses stamina would let him We pulled into Choteau just as the sun was sending its last lingering traces out of the mountains to the west a drooping mournful red that seemed in tune with our low spirits We had never before made the trip into Choteau in one day s drive so we were all tuckered out Pa s old friend John Miller the liveryman as always let us sleep in the livery stable office Perhaps if Ma had let me I would have meandered out into the wonders of the streets of the town again for I had been to town only two or three times in my life But Ma was too wise for that and I soon slept Once or twice during the night I woke to hear a horse stomp an iron shoe against the slivered boards of his stall About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

William Cody, 2010-10-08 I am about to take the back trail through the Old West the West that I knew and loved All my life it has been a pleasure to show its beauties its marvels and its possibilities to those who under my guidance saw it for the first time Now going back over the ground looking at it through the eyes of memory it will be a still greater pleasure to take with me the many readers of this book And if in following me through some of the exciting scenes of the old days meeting some of the brave men who made its stirring history and listening to my camp fire tales of the buffalo the Indian the stage coach and the pony express their interest in this vast land of my youth should be awakened I should feel richly repaid The Indian tamed educated and inspired with a taste for white collars and moving pictures is as numerous as ever but not so picturesque On the little tracts of his great inheritance allotted him by civilization he is working out his own manifest destiny The buffalo has gone Gone also is the stagecoach whose progress his pilgrimages often used to interrupt Gone is the pony express whose marvelous efficiency could compete with the wind but not with the harnessed lightning flashed over the telegraph wires Gone are the very bone gatherers who laboriously collected the bleaching relics of the great herds that once dotted the prairies But the West of the old times with its strong characters its stern battles and its tremendous stretches of loneliness can never be blotted from my mind
