Old Trams:

TRAM No6 The Naughtiest of Trams , Europe's greatest tramway network F. van der Gragt,2024-05-06 The London Tram Murders John Broughton,2022-03-05 Detective Inspectors Vance and Shepherd reunite in the second book in John Broughton s Vance And Shepherd Mysteries After a murder is committed in a quiet suburban subway under a tramline it becomes obvious that the murder squad is dealing with a copycat killer The murder is an uncanny repeat of their previous case and their inquiries are complicated by the presence of the main suspect s doppelganger Melanie Bradshaw The brilliant chemistry master student has solid alibis but Shepherd flying in the face of the contrary evidence is convinced that the deceased serial killer s sister and Melanie are the same person As the killings continue Vance and Shepherd face increasing pressure from above building Can they apprehend and bring the killer to justice before more lives are lost Dublin Voices Kevin C. Kearns,2001-09-06 For nearly thirty years Kevin C Kearns collected the memories and recollections of Dubliners on tape These interviews have formed the basis of an extraordinary body of work one whose subjects have included the life of the Dublin pub and the tenement house In this ambitious book he considers their contributions in aggregate drawing on the voices of ordinary Dubliners to build an oral folk history of the city in the twentieth century Firemen engine drivers bell ringers gatekeepers cinema ushers gravediggers dockers factory workers butchers hatters booksellers and many more all contribute their own words to this epic portrait of Dublin city life in the turbulent decades separating the Victorian and modern eras In Dublin Voices the words of ordinary Dubliners can be heard as they recall their lives and times Lucid witty and compelling these oral narratives bring the city to life in a manner that conventional histories simply cannot match Life Phases, Mobility and Consumption Helene Brembeck,Niklas Hansson,Jean-Sébastien Vayre,2016-03-09 The very routines of our daily life are to a great extent the expression of our vulnerability and dependence on incredibly wide and complex networks and socio technical systems Following people s routes in the city makes visible the differentially distributed capacities and potentials for mobility In today s consumer society shopping is the kind of mundane and routine mobility that we all engage in Yet having a first child or growing old radically changes people s logistical habits as consumers what the authors of this book call consumer logistics moving from home to the store and back home again with recent purchases Depending on the ages and number of children in the family and the condition of one s body physical health and strength going shopping requires quite different settings and gear Exploring consumer mobility through the lens of life phase and age will deepen the understanding of hitherto under researched aspects of the ageing process and of mobility knowledge that is of vital importance for societies striving for sustainable mobility and sustainable cities Laughing My Way to Oblivion. The Early Years Max Howell,Lingyu Xie,2013-11-01 This book is about a poor boy who makes it through sport to the highest levels of academia Britain's Living Past Anthony Burton,Rob Scott,2019-03-07 Britain s Living Past is a celebration of the best of the past of things that have been preserved because they still matter to the community It is a book in which the emphasis is very much on the word living looking at traditions pastimes and working practices some centuries old that survive today not as museum pieces or in pages of a history book but as part of everyday modern life From reminders of Britain's great maritime past in the crafts of the shipwright and the rope maker to the organised mayhem that is the Ashbourne Tuesday football match and the exotic splendour of Giffords traditional circus writer Tony Burton and photographer Rob Scott have travelled the length and breadth of our great nation to recreate for the reader the amazing sights they have seen Together they have travelled from Shetland in the far north to the tip of Cornwall They have sailed along the Scottish coast in a paddle steamer and learned how to make Melton Mowbray pork pies by hand They have watched ponies galloping through the streets of Appleby and resisted the temptation to try too many of the sweets in the world's oldest sweet shop This is a book that delights in the rich diversity of our historic survivors For both author and photographer it has been a pleasure to witness many skilled people at work to discover the complexity of building a fairground organ or to marvel at the skill and athleticism of circus performers This is a book of rich variety that celebrates the great survivors from our islands history

London's Transport From Roman Times to the Present Day Anthony Burton, 2022-09-15 Transport systems are the lifeblood of all great cities and this is certainly true of London As far back as Roman times their city Londinium was the hub of a network of roads leading out to all the major centres of the time It was the Romans who gave the city its first bridge across the Thames and its first paved roadways This book tells the story of London's roads and bridges and the vehicles that used them For centuries transport meant horse drawn vehicles from lumbering waggons to elegant carriages and the city had a flourishing industry building carriages The Industrial Revolution brought major changes not least in the construction of more and more bridges over the Thames In the 19th century a new system appeared with the arrival of the railways and the many stations that are such prominent features of the cityscape The story continues into the 20th century when for a time the city was also home to some pioneering motor car manufacturers such as Vauxhall It comes nearer our time with the construction of the underground railway and the driverless trains of the Dockland Light Railway Londoners will have a chance to find out just how travel around the city has changed in the last two thousand years
