We Who Proudly Served Peter Francis Kenny, 2015-05-27 Although Australia is only a young country in comparison to other nations it can hold its head up high and proudly proclaim that it is one of the giants in this world of toil and trouble in which we live When the odds are stacked against Australians they don't turn and run instead they stand and fight and overcome the obstacles that face them The contents of this volume are a tribute to all the men and women of this proud and great country who have come from all walks of life to give of their time and unfortunately some have even given their lives to defend this great land and keep it free There have been politicians doctors nurses police officers average everyday citizens musicians actors artists farmers graziers authors sportsmen and women journalists and a host of others who have taken up the cause for their country and the monarchy serving from the Crimean to the war in Vietnam and beyond Their heroic deeds and their many sacrifices have ensured that today's generation can rest easier proud in the knowledge that these servicemen and women have paved the way for our freedom Now they come together once again as one big family to shed an insight on their achievements so that you can fully understand and appreciate what they have and had experienced I dedicate this work to the memory of all those who have made the supreme sacrifice in order that we may live in peace and prosperity and also to the families of those who did not return The book is not a glorification of war but a glorification of the individual and his or her actions and deeds

Leo 'Rumpole' McKern George Whaley, 2009 This long awaited biography tells the story of a working class Sydney boy who left Australian shores in the 1940s and went on to an extraordinary and renowned acting career In England he became a major Shakespearean actor and made many films Yet it was the gravelly voiced potato faced Horace Rumpole in the long running series Rumpole of the Bailey that made him a household name in Britain and Australia Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1950

William Goyen William Goyen, 2014-02-19 Proclaimed one of the great American writers of short fiction by the New York Times Book Review William Goyen 1915-1983 had a quintessentially American literary career in which national recognition came only after years of struggle to find his authentic voice his audience and an artistic milieu in which to create These letters which span the years 1937 to 1983 offer a compelling testament to what it means to be a writer in America A prolific correspondent Goyen wrote regularly to friends family editors and other writers Among the letters selected here are those to such major literary figures as W H Auden Archibald MacLeish Joyce Carol Oates William Inge Elia Kazan Elizabeth Spencer and Katherine Anne Porter These letters constitute a virtual autobiography as well as a fascinating introduction to Goyen s work They add an important chapter to the study of American and Texas literature of the twentieth century

Recollections of a Scientist Volume 2 Norman N. Greenwood, 2012-10-15 Recollections of a Scientist Volume 2 Expanding Horizons England and Europe 1948 1951 This illustrated book is the second volume of Memoirs of a distinguished internationally renowned scientist Professor Norman N Greenwood FRS It takes up the story of his life from the first moment he arrived in England as a research student from Australia in September 1948 Term had not yet started in Cambridge so he spent a hectic first month visiting and getting to know the members of his parents families who lived in London and Brighton He also spent some time in the delightful countryside around Guildford and the Surrey Downs with a fellow passenger following a shipboard romance during the long trip from Melbourne He then visited the recently inaugurated Atomic Energy Research Establishment at Harwell in Berkshire where his former research supervisor was now a senior scientist in the chemistry division and had the exciting experience of seeing Europes first recently commissioned nuclear reactor in operation In Cambridge he took up residence in a set of rooms in Sidney Sussex College and began research discussions with Professor Harry Emelus FRS the most distinguished inorganic chemist in the UK at that time The unique charms of the Cambridge Colleges and the arcane procedures of the University itself are affectionately described and at various places throughout the book there are graphic representations of life in Cambridge in the late nineteen forties An early example is his description of the Universitys decision to allow for the first time in its seven centuries of existence women to be awarded substantive degrees rather than merely titular ones The first such degree to be conferred on a woman in an appropriately grand ceremony was on the enormously popular Queen Elizabeth consort of King George VI later known as The Queen Mother At a more mundane level post war austerity necessitated the rationing of food and many other items at levels that were even more severe than those in operation during the war WW2 The list given of a weeks rations is a salutary reminder of those days Norman is a past master at describing in accessible terms the research work that he was doing in the laboratory and its wider significance He also gives perceptive descriptions of the international group of research chemists working in the laboratory at that time and of many members of staff As earlier in Melbourne he made the most of opportunities to attend lectures by famous visitors and distinguished members of the University in other departments of the University There are memorable descriptions of a course of lectures given over two terms by Bertrand Russell on Philosophy and numerous other lectures by Science Nobel Laureates Vacations provided a wonderful opportunity to visit other places in England and Europe Just before Christmas 1948 he went with the Oxford and Cambridge Ski Clubs to Sestriere in the Italian

Alps a splendid location for skiers of all abilities Directly following this and with virtually no money left he spent a memorable Christmas and New Year on his own exploring the wonders and glories of Paris And what wonders he describes He had a room in the Latin student Quarter at 350 francs per night i e 35p or 0 35 for bed and breakfast at the then exchange rate of 1 1000 francs The next vacation at Easter was to southern Scandinavia to visit his sister Margaret who had married a Swede in 1946 and was living on a small island in the Baltic Sea just off the coast near Karlskrona Volume 1 of these Recollections was dedicated to her on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday in 2012 The journey was also memorable for a different reason for it was on the Flying Scot en route to Newcastle upon Tyne to catch the ferry to Bergen in Norway that he first met Kirsten Rydland whom he later married in 1951 This Volume 2 is dedicated to her Norman was cl Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1955 Enter the Playmakers Thomas S.
