Feminist Perspectives on Family Care Nancy R. Hooyman, Judith Gonyea, 1995-08-29 Today women find themselves playing an ever increasing role in caring for older family members who are frail developmentally disabled or suffering from serious mental illness While this role of women as caregivers has been documented the actual impact on the lives of women has remained largely unstudied In this volume the authors examine caregiving as a central feminist issue looking at its impact on women socially personally and economically The authors review how changing family structures the changing economy and workforce and the changing health care demands of needy adults have impacted on women s lives They critique existing public and private policies demonstrating a need for fundamental structural changes in social institutions and attitudes to improve the lives of women Finally they propose a social model of care that is oriented toward gender justice recognition of the work of caring and its impact upon women socially personally and economically For students scholars and practitioners in the field of gerontology gender studies and social work this book is a must Social Work and Health Care in an Aging Society Barbara Berkman,Linda Harootyan,2003-06-01 This book places significant issues related to the health mental health and well being of older adults and their caregivers within the context of social work service delivery By presenting the research of social work scholars all experts in specific research areas the editors clarify the value that social work brings to the larger realm of health care for older adults and their families Special consideration is given to such issues as case management urban African American elders grandmothers raising grandchildren aging persons with developmental disabilities home health care and more For Further Information on Dr Berkman Please Click Here
