home tasks and reinforcement ideas for a plenary session Includes photocopiable resources and printable worksheets on the CD As with all Tinas books this is a practical resource which will engage young people Picture This! Spelling Bronwyne van Zyl,2019-07-31 In a world where intelligence is so often measured by our ability to read and write we do not often make considerations for those who find that particular task challenging We need to shift our perceptions from a culture traditionally embedded in print and explore the innovative possibility of teaching spelling with an inclusive pencil free approach such as Picture This Spelling Picture This Spelling is extremely versatile and not only targets Primary and Early Years Education but also those with Specific Learning Differences English as an Additional Language and those learning English for the very first time The programme is easy to follow for both parents and teachers and includes lesson plans graphics templates diagnostics and word trackers Pencils are replaced by a multisensory tactile approach which allows students to freely retain spelling words for rapid recall and automatism within writing The word shape word pattern and word sequence is addressed which is proven to support effective retention Picture This Spelling teaches 70 irregular word spellings using visualisations and mnemonics It is a fun creative and effective spelling programme proven to deliver results increase students self esteem and deliver great academic progress The Learning Mentor's Source and Resource Book Kathy Salter,Rhonda Twidle,2005-09-14 Runner up TES NASEN Book Awards Books for Teaching and Learning Category 2005 Excellent it meets a real need on the part of learning mentors going into schools who can be expected to sort out problems that staff with years of experience can't sort out and to act as a sponge for all sorts of trauma and emotion This is something schools can keep on hand not a complete training package but useful The contacts sections for example the one on bereavement are invaluable learning mentors are expected to know a bit about everything comments from the TES NASEN book awards panel This practical resource based on development work in a large high school covers a wide range of topics and provides an excellent starter pack for new mentors and anyone involved in their induction SENCO Update This book landed on my desk this morning and I just had to include it It is aimed at LMs TAs and teachers and is a really useful resource It comes with a CD ROM Adobe Acrobat needed and is part of Lucky Duck Publications which is well known for producing quality resources in the field of emotional literacy There are thirteen chapters on Emotional Intelligence Self Esteem Anger Management Bereavement Self harm Drug Awareness Bullying Behaviour Change Transition Attendance School Refusal and Punctuality Revisions and Friendship Many of you will recognise these themes as areas in which you work and may already have resources for these areas but these are conveniently put together in one book It is aimed at pupils at the upper end of KS2 up to KS4 Each chapter contains information around each topic plus photocopiable worksheets such as emotions cards stories ideas for games and activities and links to websites Most of these can be adapted to suit the needs of different schools and to facilitate working within the school's policies I would especially recommend this book to people who are new to these roles or who are setting up emotional literacy groups within schools for the first time but established groups would also find them useful Teaching Assistant News Learning mentors are well established in our schools as a skilled and resourceful adjunct to the staff group They bring a varied background of training and expertise often adding additional accomplishments to those of the teaching staff This publication is produced by two colleague mentors who have researched the information and produced the resources they needed to do their job well The book provides a factual introduction to the range of special needs they encounter amongst the students they support Self Esteem Emotional and behavioural difficulties Anger management Self harm In addition they include support strategies interventions and some copiable resources based on their own experiences and good practice This is a great book for mentors TAs and teachers keep it on the staff room coffee table Kathy Salter worked for nearly six years as a Learning Mentor in a large Leeds High School and now works for the Leeds Youth Offending Service as a Youth Justice Worker Rhonda Twidle is a trainee Probation Office in West Yorkshire Prior to this she has four years experience of supporting young people with social and emotional difficulties in the roles of Learning Mentor in Leeds and as a Support Worker in Tyneside

Young Buddies Margaret Collins, 2005-05-19 For any teacher or school wanting to set up a buddy scheme or to explore the possibility of doing so this book contains some useful suggestions ideas and guidelines Even if a school did not wish to adopt the buddy system itself the book contains useful material relating to citizenship and specific problems like bullying which makes it a potentially useful resource for teachers and schools in general Early Education Peer buddy systems have been demonstrated as very successful with older students Positive effects are recognized for the individuals befriended and also for the whole community Margaret has used her vast experience with younger children to develop a programme which achieves these outcomes at the stage when they are learning the skills of friendship and co operation Using her popular style of differentiating activities and teaching for two age groups 6 8 and 9 11 Margaret has provided an exciting innovative and challenging programme which enhances the citizenship curriculum and the atmosphere of the school Margaret Collins is a former headteacher of infant and first schools She is now Senior Visiting Fellow in the School of Education at the University of Southampton She researches children s perceptions of health education topics writes teaching materials for children books and articles on PSHE

Learning to Listen to Learn Helen White, Christina Evans, 2005-07-19 What a gem This book introduces a whole school approach to an area that has previously been addressed by the speech and language specialists working with small groups This approach helps to develop language processing skills by improving the auditory and visual attention skills used The resources on the CD Rom will be invaluable for reminding pupils of the skills they should be using to learn to listen This interactive and fun approach explains the difference between the skills of social listening and listening skills necessary for processing information in learning TES Extra Special Needs This book is well designed It utilizes many strategies speech therapists use in their clinical work It is a simple resource that is easy to follow and has had good rates of success when delivered by teachers Communication Matters The programme should lead to improvements in social skills learning and classroom behaviour and it is easy to implement with two teaching sessions and a follow up booster session There are comprehensive facilitator instructions and all the resources are provided for these fun and interactive sessions that will engage all pupils

Learning to Learn Newsletter This book provides a completely new approach to the teaching of listening Whilst educators are familiar with assessing comprehension little has been done to ensure that the input process is efficient By improving auditory and visual attention during a listening activity the authors demonstrate how the process can be enhanced The programme should lead to improvements in social skills learning and classroom behaviour and it is easy to implement with two teaching sessions and a follow up booster session There are comprehensive facilitator instructions and all the resources are provided for these fun and interactive sessions that will engage all pupils The difference between social listening for interaction and accurate listening in a classroom setting is explained As well as the usual topics eye contact body language acknowledgements etc there is a fascinating section on the neurological evidence for the importance of efficient sitting positions We expect young people to acquire effective listening skills but it is a complex activity which benefits direct teaching

Aspects of Asperger's Maude Brown, 2004-01-01 Once I started this book I was hooked Where was this book 10 years ago So many of the problems I have dealt with and worked out through trial and error are here It would have saved many tears and tantrums and those not just from me Once purchased you will use it over and over again for reference

Communication A thought provoking and practical book about how one supporter a grandmother helped her granddaughter search for ways to help her overcome the difficulties they both faced This book does not dwell on the problems but instead looks for the solutions they found together It will be useful to all those whose lives are touched by Asperger's Syndrome but especially meaningful to those directly involved in supporting young people in school college and in the home and neighbourhood setting It specifically considers patterns of organization in daily life constructing programmes of development for individuals The book covers the practical issues facing those in their teens and twenties rules daily living skills personal hygiene managing money coping in school and college friendships romantic relationships People with Asperger's Syndrome can be valuable contributors to society if they are given support when they need it This book is the outcome of the combined efforts of Alex and her grandmother Maude It is practical realistic and very positive

I Can't Walk but I Can Crawl Joan Ross, 2005-08-31 As well as being of interest to educators Joan Ross's autobiography would be worth including as a text for pupils following citizenship curriculum in secondary schools

SENCO Update Joan is an adult with cerebral palsy who grew up when compulsory education was not in place for all children Her memories of her childhood before inclusion her development as a teenager and her adult life are chronicled without sentiment and this book offers the reader an autobiography of someone who lives with a significant disability The book is supported by SCOPE who have provided an introduction and informative commentary about cerebral palsy The book is of general interest and offers information and inspiration to Scope members and those whose lives are touched by CP
