

I loved this book from the first sentence to the last. It's got everything...
I couldn't put the book down until I finished it.

Olives The Life And Lore Of A Noble Fruit:

Olives Mort Rosenblum, 1998-10-12 Winner of the James Beard Award Until one stops to notice an olive is only a lowly lump at the bottom of a martini But not only does a history of olives traverse climates and cultures it also reveals fascinating differences in processing production and personalities Aficionados of the noble little fruit expect miracles from it as a matter of course In 1986 Mort Rosenblum bought a small farm in Provence and acquired 150 neglected olive trees that were old when the Sun King ruled France He brought them back to life and became obsessed with olives their cultivation and their role in international commerce Nectar and Ambrosia Tamra Andrews, 2000-10-26 A publishing first Nectar and Ambrosia presents an encyclopedic treatment of the magic properties and uses of food by mortals and immortals alike from the pages of myth and legend Now for the first time the magic properties and uses of food by both mortals and immortals as represented in the world's myths and legends are brought together and explained in Nectar and Ambrosia This A Z volume is filled with an abundance of exotic lore and legend Zingerman's Guide to Good Eating Ari Weinzweig, 2003 Explains how to select the finest and most flavorful ingredients and pantry staples offering a host of ingenious buying recommendations entertaining anecdotes cooking suggestions and simple recipes Moveable Feasts Sarah Murray, 2007-11-13 A fascinating chronicle of mankind's efforts to move food throughout history from the Financial Times contributor and author of Making an Exit The News Observer Today the average meal has traveled thousands of miles before reaching the dinner table How on earth did this happen Through delightful anecdotes and astonishing facts Moveable Feasts tells the stories Combining history science and politics Financial Times writer Sarah Murray provides a fascinating glimpse into the extraordinary odysseys of food from farm to fork She encounters everything from American grain falling from United Nations planes in Sudan to Mumbai's tiffin men who using only bicycles carts and their feet deliver more than 170 000 lunches a day Following the items on a grocery store shopping list Murray shows how the journeys of food have brought about seismic shifts in economics politics and even art By flying food into Berlin during the 1948 airlift the Allies kept a city of more than two million alive for more than a year and secured their first Cold War victory appealing to German hearts and minds and stomachs In nineteenth century Buffalo the grain elevator a giant mechanical scooping machine not only turned the city into one of America's wealthiest but it also had a profound influence on modern architecture giving Bauhaus designers an important source of inspiration In a thought provoking and highly entertaining account Moveable Feasts brings an entirely fresh perspective to the subject of food And today as global warming makes headlines and concerns mount about the food miles clocked by our dinners Murray poses a contentious question Is buying local always the most sustainable ethical choice Greco Files John Hayes, 2021-09-14 Greco Files is part memoir and part commentary It traces the real life experiences of a couple of retired British teachers as they fashion a new chapter in their lives in a Greek village as the 21st Century unfolds Fat Christopher E. Forth, Alison Leitch, 2014-04-10 Fat In contemporary society the word never fails to elicit powerful emotions especially as it relates to bodily health and appearance But fat is a noun as well as an adjective and has a cultural life outside of its relationship with the human body By focusing on the complex physical and experiential dimensions of this problematic substance Fat Culture and Materiality breaks new ground in the study of the relationship between culture and the material world With contributions from well respected international scholars this innovative and interdisciplinary collection will appeal to a wide range of readers interested in fat and its relationship to culture materiality and lived experience The volume addresses the role of fats in a variety of cultural settings Topics include the politics of Palestinian olive oil the allure of pig fat in heritage pork the material sources of fat stereotypes in classical and biblical texts the use of harvested fat in aesthetic surgery and the status of fat in the self narratives of anorexics Mob Chronicles Anton Schwartz,2025-02-03 Did you know that Joseph Bonanno took acting classes before leading one of New York s most powerful crime families Or that Al Capone formed a banjo band while imprisoned at Alcatraz Has anyone told you how Santo Trafficante Jr Florida s crime boss narrowly escaped the brutal prisons of Castro s Cuba These extraordinary stories shed valuable light on the many personalities who elevated the mafia to mythic status in American consciousness From the Prohibition era to the present day delve into the hidden world of organized crime through two hundred anecdotes meticulously organized into twelve thematic chapters The Mediterranean Redux Naor H Ben-Yehoyada,Paul Silverstein,2022-04-27 This book on historical anthropology remaps the Mediterranean by reframing classical themes from early Mediterraneanist anthropology This edited volume showcases how anthropology can contribute to an understanding of ongoing transnational dynamics and the new wave of scholarship on the Mediterranean The Mediterranean is back as a locus of international anxiety and academic concern It has reemerged in the international news cycle as a space of desperate crossings and tragic endings as the site in which a refugee crisis rivalling that of the Second World War is playing out in real time for a global viewing public The scale of the crisis has called into question Europe s humanitarian principles and internal political union making the Mediterranean into a mirror for long standing tensions between norms of universalism and demands for national security These captivating events have further raised the tide of scholars interest in the Mediterranean How should ethnographers contribute to the new wave of scholarship on the Mediterranean To what extent does the Mediterranean offer alternative forms of political relatedness to those construed from within Europe North Africa and the Middle East In this volume we reframe classical themes from early iterations of Mediterranean anthropology to address these questions in our examinations of changing dynamics across land and sea borders bringing ethnography back to the study of the Mediterranean and the Mediterranean with its Mediterraneanism back to ethnography The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal History and Anthropology A Hermit's Cookbook Andrew Jotischky,2011-06-02 How did medieval hermits survive on their self denying diet What did they eat and how did unethical monks get around the rules The Egyptian hermit Onuphrios was said to have lived entirely on dates and perhaps the most famous of all hermits John the Baptist on locusts and wild honey Was it really possible to sustain life on so little food The history of monasticism is defined by the fierce and passionate abandonment of the ordinary comforts of life the most striking being food and drink A Hermit's Cookbook opens with stories and pen portraits of the Desert Fathers of early Christianity and their followers who were ascetic solitaries hermits and pillar dwellers It proceeds to explore how the ideals of the desert fathers were revived in both the Byzantine and western traditions looking at the cultivation of food in monasteries eating and cooking and why hunting animals was rejected by any self respecting hermit Full of rich anecdotes and including recipes for basic monk's stew and bread soup and many others this is a fascinating story of hermits monks food and fasting in the Middle Ages

Taste Jehanne Dubrow, 2022-08-23 Taste is a lyric meditation on one of our five senses which we often take for granted Structured as a series of small bites the book considers the ways that we ingest the world how we come to know ourselves and others through the daily act of tasting Through flavorful explorations of the sweet the sour the salty the bitter and umami Jehanne Dubrow reflects on the nature of taste In a series of short interdisciplinary essays she blends personal experience with analysis of poetry fiction music and the visual arts as well as religious and philosophical texts Dubrow considers the science of taste and how taste transforms from a physical sensation into a metaphor for discernment Taste is organized not so much as a linear dinner served in courses but as a meal consisting of meze small plates of intensely flavored discourse

Olive Fabrizia Lanza, 2012-03-15 Olives are at once a mythical food bringing to mind scenes from ancient Rome and the Bible and an everyday food given the ubiquity of olive oil in contemporary diets In this succinct and engaging history Fabrizia Lanza traces the olive's roots from antiquity when olive oil was exalted for ritual purposes and used to anoint kings and athletes to the sixteenth century when Europeans brought the olive to the New World to the present day when thanks to waves of immigration and the popularity of the healthy Mediterranean diet the fruit has successfully conquered our palate Lanza describes the role that olive trees olives and their oil have played in myths legends and literature as well as in the everyday lives of people living throughout the Mediterranean Also included is a global selection of recipes featuring olives and olive oil that showcase the fruit's culinary diversity A concise appendix of popular olive varieties organized by country rounds out this informative account Featuring a wealth of historical detail useful descriptions and delicious recipes this book will change how you think about that bottle of Extra Virgin Olive Oil you reach for out of habit and swirl into the pan China Bayles' Book of Days Susan Wittig Albert,2006-10-03 A treasury of recipes crafts gardening tips and more from the national bestselling author of the China Bayles series a great gift for both mystery fans and herb craft enthusiasts Readers of the China Bayles mystery novels are familiar with the usefulness and wonder of the many herbs the amateur sleuth sells in her beloved Thyme and Seasons shop Compiled by national bestselling author Susan Wittig Albert at the request of her fans China Bayles Book of Days gathers together tidbits and treasures about plants and reveals ways you can put more green into your daily life Featuring 365 days of recipes crafts gardening tips remedies and more this special volume is a personal calendar of the legends and lore of herbs and also features brand new essays from the author clues from China s mysteries and some special contributions by the irrepressible members of the Myra Merryweather Herb Guild Pecan Springs s oldest civic organization Food and Drink in American History Andrew F. Smith,2013-10-28 This three volume encyclopedia on the history of American food and beverages serves as an ideal companion resource for social studies and American history courses covering topics ranging from early American Indian foods to mandatory nutrition information at fast food restaurants The expression you are what you eat certainly applies to Americans not just in terms of our physical health but also in the myriad ways that our taste preferences eating habits and food culture are intrinsically tied to our society and history This standout reference work comprises two volumes containing more than 600 alphabetically arranged historical entries on American foods and beverages as well as dozens of historical recipes for traditional American foods and a third volume of more than 120 primary source documents Never before has there been a reference work that coalesces this diverse range of information into a single set The entries in this set provide information that will transform any American history research project into an engaging learning experience Examples include explanations of how tuna fish became a staple food product for Americans how the canning industry emerged from the Civil War the difference between Americans and people of other countries in terms of what percentage of their income is spent on food and beverages and how taxation on beverages like tea rum and whisky set off important political rebellions in U S history Food and World Culture Linda S. Watts,Kelty Clark-Mahoney,2022-08-23 This book uses food as a lens through which to explore important matters of society and culture In exploring why and how people eat around the globe the text focuses on issues of health conflict struggle contest inequality and power Whether because of its necessity pleasure or ubiquity the world of food and its lore proves endlessly fascinating to most people The story of food is a narrative filled with both human striving and human suffering However many of today s diners are only dimly aware of the human price exacted for that comforting distance from the lived world realities of food justice struggles With attention to food issues ranging from local farming practices to global supply chains this book examines how food s history and geography remain inextricably linked to sociopolitical experiences of trauma connected with globalization such as colonization conquest enslavement and oppression The main text is structured alphabetically around a set of 70 ingredients from almonds to yeast Each ingredient's story is accompanied by recipes Along with the food profiles the encyclopedia features sidebars These are short discussions of topics of interest related to food including automats diners victory gardens and food at world's fairs This project also brings a social justice perspective to its content weighing debates concerning food access equity insecurity and politics

Moveable Feasts Gregory McNamee, 2006-11-30 Food has functioned both as a source of continuity and as a subject of adaptation in the course of human history Onions have been a staple of the European diet since the Paleolithic era while the orange is once again being cultivated in great quantities in Southern China where it was originally cultivated Other foods such as the apple and pear in Central Asia the tomato in Mexico the chili pepper in South America and rice in South Asia remain staples of their original regions and of the world diet today Still other items are now grown in places that would have seemed impossible in the past bananas in geothermally heated greenhouses in Iceland corn on the fringes of the Gobi and tomatoes in space But how did humans discover how to grow and consume these foods in the first place How were they chosen over competing foods How did they come to be so important to us In this charming and frequently surprising compendium Gregory McNamee gathers revelations from history anthropology chemistry biology and many other fields and spins them into entertaining tales of discovery complete with delicious recipes from many culinary traditions around the world Among the 30 types of food discussed in the course of this alphabetically arranged work are the apple the banana chocolate coffee corn garlic honey millet the olive the peanut the pineapple the plum rice the soybean the tomato and the watermelon All of the recipes included with these diverse food histories have been adapted for recreation in the modern kitchen

Hamburgers in Paradise Louise O. Fresco, 2015-10-27 A fascinating exploration of our past present and future relationship with food For the first time in human history there is food in abundance throughout the world More people than ever before are now freed of the struggle for daily survival yet few of us are aware of how food lands on our plates Behind every meal you eat there is a story Hamburgers in Paradise explains how In this wise and passionate book Louise Fresco takes readers on an enticing cultural journey to show how science has enabled us to overcome past scarcities and why we have every reason to be optimistic about the future Using hamburgers in the Garden of Eden as a metaphor for the confusion surrounding food today she looks at everything from the dominance of supermarkets and the decrease of biodiversity to organic foods and GMOs She casts doubt on many popular claims about sustainability and takes issue with naive rejections of globalization and the idealization of true and honest food Fresco explores topics such as agriculture in human history poverty and development and surplus and obesity She provides insightful discussions of basic foods such as bread fish and meat and intertwines them with social topics like slow food and other gastronomy movements the fear of technology and risk food and climate change the agricultural landscape urban food systems and food in art The culmination of decades of research

Hamburgers in Paradise provides valuable insights into how our food is produced how it is consumed and how we can use the lessons of the past to design food systems to feed all humankind in the future Teaching Multiwriting Robert L. Davis, Mark F Shadle, 2007-04-23 Formulaic ways to train students in composition and rhetoric are no longer effective say authors Robert L Davis and Mark F Shadle Scholar teachers must instead reinvent the field from the inside Teaching Multiwriting Researching and Composing with Multiple Genres Media Disciplines and Cultures presents just such a reinvention with multiwriting an alternative open approach to composition Seeking to open the minds of both writers and readers to new understandings the authors argue for the supplanting of the outdated research paper assignment with research projects that use multiple forms to explore questions that cannot be fully answered This innovative volume geared to composition teachers at all levels includes sixteen helpful illustrations and provides classroom exercises and projects for each chapter Mary Lesley Hazleton, 2008-12-01 Starting with a dark skinned girl barely out of adolescence when she gives birth Lesley Hazleton weaves together the many facets of Mary's existence peasant villager wise woman and healer activist mother teacher and yes virgin though in a sense we have long forgotten She follows her through the worst any mother can experience the excruciating death of her child and then looks at how she transforms grief into wisdom disaster into renewal Strong and courageous the Mary we see here does not merely assent to her role in history but chooses it and lives it to the fullest The Place of the Mediterranean in Modern Israeli Identity Alexandra Nocke, 2009-03-25 While early Zionists envisioned the Jewish state as an outpost of Europe in the Middle East modern Israel is geographically speaking located in Asia and incorporates elements from both Orient and Occident This book sheds light on how the Mediterranean region its history traditions climate and attitudes have shaped Israeli lived experience and consciousness It offers new perspectives on the evolving phenomenon of Yam Tikhoniut hebr Mediterraneanism which centers around the longing to find a natural place in order that Israel be accommodated in the region both culturally and politically This book explores Mediterraneanism as reflected in popular music literature architecture and daily life and analyzes the ways in which the notion comprises cultural identity societal concepts and political realities web roughly 55 of the world s population start their week on a sunday 44 on a monday timeanddate com evenly split whether the gregorian calendar shows sunday or monday as the first day of the week depends on where you live most countries start the week on monday but most people start on sunday 67 countries and over 4 billion

supervised machine learning based wind prediction to enable - Oct 30 2022

web jan 4 2021 this research aims to yield a continuous wind prediction model by combining a supervised learning algorithm with the inverse distance weighting technique specifically this research compares three different supervised learning algorithms that include gaussian process multi layer perceptron and support vector machine to physics informed machine learning for wind speed prediction - May 25 2022 web apr 1 2023 here we take an alternative data driven approach based on supervised learning we analyze massive datasets of wind measured from anemometers located at 10 m height in 32 locations in central and north west italy we train supervised learning algorithms using the past history of wind to predict its value at future horizons wind power forecasting with deep learning networks time - Mar 03 2023 web nov 3 2021 to investigate the forecast accuracy of day ahead for wind turbines measured with a performance evaluation index i e mape we developed a feature based learning model for wind power forecasting and trained tcns 20 21 22 23 to learn meteorological features and identify the output class of power generation

pdf supervised machine learning in wind forecasting an - Feb 02 2023

web supervised machine learning in wind forecasting an python machine learning aug 03 2021 applied machine learning with a solid foundation in theory revised and expanded for tensorflow 2 gans and reinforcement learning purchase of the print or kindle book includes a free ebook in the pdf format

2204 00495 physics informed shallow machine learning for wind - Apr 23 2022

web apr 1 2022 we train supervised learning algorithms using the past history of wind to predict its value at a future time horizon using data from a single location and time horizon we compare systematically several algorithms where we vary the input output variables the memory of the input and the linear vs non linear learning model frontiers applications of machine learning to wind engineering - Jul 27 2022 web mar 16 2022 to reduce the demand for labelled data in ml applications to wind engineering both unsupervised learning and semi supervised learning including physics informed machine learning are promising alternatives to two supervised machine learning approaches for wind velocity - Jun 25 2022 web sep 1 2020 of the two approaches we found that lstm proved to be the most capable supervised learning model during more capricious wind conditions and made competent windspeed predictions with an average root mean square error of 0.61 m s⁻¹ averaged across two drones when trained on at least 20 min of flight data physics informed machine learning for wind speed prediction - Sep 28 2022 web jan 7 2023 here we take an alternative data driven approach based on supervised learning we analyze massive datasets of wind measured from anemometers located at 10 m height in 32 locations in central and north west italy we train an interdisciplinary machine learning approach for wind speed - Feb 19 2022 web wind speed forecasting for the specified heights using rnn lstm and gru ii the proposed computational models based on ai by supervised machine learning elucidate the wind speed behavior and allow accurate wind speed prediction at different anemometric heights e g 10 0 m 25 70 m 81 80 m and 101 80 m learning based short term wind speed forecasting models for - Aug 28 2022 web sep 1 2023 based on historical study learning models are classified into two subclasses e g classical machine learning and advanced machine learning as shown in table 3 ordinary least square regression models deep learning and ensemble learning models have supervised learning models supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp event - Jul 07 2023

web supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp event prediction provides an up to date overview on the broad area of wind generation and forecasting with a focus on the role and need of machine learning in this emerging field of knowledge supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp - Oct 10 2023

web supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp event prediction provides an up to date overview on the broad area of wind generation and forecasting with a focus on the role and need of machine learning in this emerging field of knowledge various regression models and signal decomposition techniques are presented and

jmse free full text machine learning based approach to wind - Mar 23 2022 web nov 4 2023 as wind energy continues to be a crucial part of sustainable power generation the need for precise and efficient modeling of wind turbines especially under yawed conditions becomes increasingly significant addressing this the current study introduces a machine learning based symbolic regression approach for elucidating data augmented sequential deep learning for wind power forecasting - Jan 01 2023 web nov 15 2021 this paper initially scrutinizes the usefulness of data augmentation approaches in wind power forecasting and proposes a multi input and multi output prediction algorithm with verified superiority inferences on the results of multistep forecasting five wind turbines with various topologies conclusions are given as follows supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp - Sep 09 2023 web jan 20 2020 supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp event prediction provides an up to date overview of the broad area of wind generation and forecasting with a focus on the role and supervised machine learning in wind forecasting and ramp - Jun 06 2023
