Brazil Through French Eyes Ana Lucia Araujo, 2015-10 In this book historian Ana Lucia Araujo examines Brazil with special attention to what she calls his tropical romanticism a vision of the country with an emphasis on the exotic

Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen, Christopher Wiley, 2020-10-06 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large

LES CONTEMPLATIONS of Victor Hugo Suzanne Nash, 2015-03-08 Victor Hugo's work presents the reader with a paradox nowhere more apparent than in the collection of more than 150 lyric poems entitled Les Contemplations Although he insisted upon structural unity his complex artistic creations often seem disordered and digressive Suzanne Nash examines this contradiction and she proposes here a new approach to Les Contemplations that reveals how it may be read as a unified allegory of Hugo's understanding of the creative process The author's reading heightens the subtleties of individual poems by placing them within the context of the collection She clarifies the poet's use of rhetorical devices and illuminating Les Contemplations as a metapoetic creation shows how it can serve as a guide to Hugo's other works The first two chapters present evidence of Hugo's narrative intention place his work within an allegorical tradition and describe the structure of the allegory One poem Pasteurs et troupeaux is analyzed as a paradigm for the whole and a single theme that of L'opoldine as sacrificial muse and figure for poetic language is traced through the six books The author demonstrates Hugo's narrative purpose in his use of rhetorical forms and examines according to predominance of themes images and technical devices the six chapters as steps in the religio poetic allegory Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Copyright Office, 1955 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June French Dramatists, 1789-1914 Barbara T. Cooper, 1998 Essays on French dramatists writing during a period when Paris and the provinces saw thousands of dramatic works in a myriad of genres These plays offered not only entertainment but broached serious political and social issues as well during a time of government censorship Includes information on the various forms of theatrical entertainment and the various types of playwriting including melodrama romantic drama tragedies comedies and realistic dramas Les contemplations Peter Cogman, 1984 Maurois; the Writer and His Work Georges Édouard Lemaître, 1968

"Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period The Artist as Politician Ellie Nower Schamber, 1984 Focuses specifically on nineteenth century French Romantic artists to examine the questions How is an artist's historical milieu reflected in his or her work Do artists from the same social circumstances produce art with similar characteristics Does a particular artistic genre derive from specific historical conditions Contents Part I The Original Romantics Chateaubriand Constant Lamartine Part II The Younger Romantics The Younger Noble Romantics The Bourgeois Romantics Conclusion Appendices Bibliography Romance Notes, 1983 The Simplest of Signs Timothy Bell Raser, 2004 Raser's approach is of necessity interdisciplinary to show how Hugo defines the genre of art criticism he must take into account the influences recurrent themes and references that are used by literary historians Since however the texts discussed frequently refer to drawings engravings or paintings the formal analyses of art history also come into play Further since the works described are invariably discussed in terms of their beauty aesthetics and beyond it the twentieth century critique of nineteenth century aesthetics are used Jacket "A Dream of Stone" Michael D. Garval,2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself its past and anticipated future Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality study draws upon wide ranging evidence from journalism to poetry caricature to statuary Focusing on the lives work and fame of Honore de Balzac George Sand and Victor Hugo it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture North Carolina State University La réception de Victor Hugo au XXe siècle Catherine Mayaux,2004 Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
