Randolph Richards, 2025-07-29 Traditional Christian art depicts Paul the letter writer pen in hand attentive to the Spirit We might think we know better and imagine him pacing in agitation as he rapidly dictates to a secretary his letter to the Galatians But in reality neither of these pictures is accurate In Paul's day producing a letter was a time consuming and costly business And we have ample resources from the ancient world to piece together what it must have been like A secretary was usually part of the picture But so were notes drafts corrections and careful rewrites not to speak of scratchy pens sooty ink and coarse papyrus Interestingly there is evidence that Paul involved his missionary team in the writing of letters And then came the delivery over land and sea the reading and circulation as well as the epistolary afterlife of copying collecting and storing E Randolph Richards has extensively studied ancient letter writing and secretaries Informed by the historical evidence and with a sharp eye for telltale clues in Paul's letters he takes us into this world and places us on the scene with Paul the letter writer What first appears to be just a study of secretaries and stationery turns out to be an intriguing glimpse of Paul the letter writer that overthrows our preconceptions and offers a new perspective on how this important portion of Christian Scripture came to be Liturgical Music for the Revised Common Lectionary, Year B Thomas Pavlechko, Carl P. BREAD OF HEAVEN Kieran Beville, 2016-02-29 BREAD OF HEAVEN helps the reader to have a greater understanding of the timeless truths of Scripture and a deeper appreciation of the grandeur of God. It offers meditations on selected Scriptures which will draw the reader's attention upwards to the Savior. Kieran Beville's daily devotional combines down to earth unstuffy humanity in today's world with a biblical and God-centered approach and draws on rich theology in a thoroughly accessible way. He addresses not just the intellect and the will but gets to the heart of our motivational center through the mind. If your Christian life could benefit from a short well-written daily blast of Christ's comfort and challenge, get this book and use it. These short Bible-based meditations are fresh and contemporary. Beville gives to the twenty-first century reader what earlier authors have given to theirs. Here is practical wisdom that is a helpful guide to stimulate worship and set you thinking as you begin each day with God. For each day of the year, the author has provided the reader with 1 a biblical thought 2 a daily text 3 a substantive paragraph as well as 4 a daily schedule for Bible reading. All of which can be consumed in but a moment yet be considered and meditated on throughout the day. The paragraph for each daily text gives the reader the meaning of the Scripture as well as how it can be applied in our Christian lives. Beville recommends that the reader takes the necessary time to read and meditate on this spiritual food each day.

What I Have Seen Darrell Malcolm, 2019-03-28 The verses in this collection are of my thoughts as I see things in God's creation. I have been writing these down for maybe five to six years. Something will inspire me and away the pen and keyboard begin to generate the verse God inspired. These are all random thoughts that come in no particular order. I need to thank all those things and God who inspired my writings and especially my editor in chief my wife Ann. Others have assisted me in helping me edit my verses and I thank them greatly. I hope you enjoy these verses and they can stir a deeper appreciation of the world around us. Living here in the foothill of the Sierra Nevada Mountains on the west side has inspired many of my verses. Seasonal events have inspired me as well as items in nature and everyday life.
