On Austrian Soil Sondra Perl, 2012-02-01 Finalist for the 2006 Independent Publishers Book Award in the Autobiography Memoir category Most educators keep their teaching secret In On Austrian Soil an award winning teacher Sondra Perl opens her classroom to reveal the struggles and successes she encounters when she not without trepidation raises the questions of history with her adult Austrian students descendants of Nazis Her students teachers themselves come face to face with the question of their responsibility not only to the past but also to the future Perl s careful descriptions are an invitation to scrutinize her teaching and thinking as well as her students own histories and hatreds Writing together she and her students break lifelong silences discovering along the way the power of dialogue to transform deeply held prejudices Becoming a Holocaust Educator Jennifer Lemberg, Alexander Pope, 2021 Experienced educators share how they conceive of Holocaust education as based in writing and inquiry This book offers reflections on how professional development helps guide teacher growth and success and examinations of the ways professional organizations and networks can support teachers trying to teach challenging content Teachers on the Edge John Boe, David Masiel, Eric Schroeder, Lisa Sperber, 2017-02-17 For over 25 years the journal Writing on the Edge has published interviews with influential writers teachers and scholars Now Teachers on the Edge The WOE Interviews 1989-2017 collects the voices of 39 significant figures in modern writing studies forming an accessible survey of the modern history of rhetoric and composition In a conversational style Teachers on the Edge encourages a remarkable group of teachers and scholars to tell the stories of their influences and interests tracing the progress of their contributions This engaging volume is invaluable to graduate students writing teachers and scholars of writing studies Race and Higher Education Annie Howell, Frank Tuitt, 2003-01-01 The contributors to Race and Higher Education guide educators toward an understanding of how changes in the student population call for new approaches to classroom instruction and address the need for new pedagogical practices in increasingly diverse college classrooms Over the last few decades U S colleges and universities have witnessed increasing diversity in their student bodies Yet faculty members operating on the notion that one pedagogy fits all students continue to employ traditional modes of instruction This adherence to outdated pedagogies has created potentially harmful learning environments for all students and particularly for students of color Race and Higher Education addresses this persistent problem guiding educators toward a better understanding of how changes in the student population have resulted in the need for new approaches to classroom instruction By including voices from inside classrooms along with analyses from scholarly researchers this volume provides college and university teachers administrators students and scholars with a critical instrument for improving higher education Writing as a Way of Staying Human in a Time that Isn't Nate Mickelson, 2019-01-30 The human element of our work has never been more important As Robert Yagelski explains in Writing as a Way of Being 2011 the ideological and social pressures of our institutions put us under increasing pressure to sacrifice our humanity in the interest of efficiency

These problems only grow when we artificially separate self world and mind body in our teaching and everyday experiences Following Yagelski and others Writing as a Way of Staying Human in a Time that Isn't proposes that intentional acts of writing can awaken us to our interconnectedness and to ways in which we as individuals and in writing communities might address the social and environmental challenges of our present and future world Featuring essays drawn from a range of contexts including college composition and developmental reading and writing professional and legal writing middle school English dissertation projects academic conferences and an online writing group the collection outlines three ways writing can help us stay human caring for ourselves and others honoring the times and spaces of writing and promoting justice Each essay describes specific strategies for using writing as a means for staying human in inhuman times The authors integrate personal stories descriptions of classroom assignments and activities and current research in writing studies Their work shows that writing can contribute to personal social and political transformation by nurturing vulnerability compassion and empathy among students and instructors alike

Antisemitism, Gender Bias, and the "Hervay Affair" of 1904 Alison Rose, 2016-10-19 This book examines the antisemitism that flourished outside of Vienna in Austrian provinces such as Styria Carinthia Vorarlberg Upper Austria and Tyrol focusing in particular on gender bias and its relationship to antisemitism The 1904 arrest and bigamy trial of Frau von Hervay the Jewish wife of District Captain Franz von Hervay of a Styrian provincial town M rzzuschlag is closely examined to shed light on the relationship between Jews and non Jews and attitudes towards women and sexuality in the small cities and towns of the Austrian provinces The case demonstrates that antisemitism influenced popular perceptions of Jews and women at the local level and that it targeted women as well as men This book provides an in depth study of an episode of Austrian history that had a significant impact on the development of Austrian law the role of religious institutions perceptions of Jews women and sexuality conceptions of Austrian bureaucracy and the need for reform and the relationship between the provinces and the Viennese center It also provides insight into the public interest generated by sensations such as arrests suicides crimes and trials and the way the press of that time reported on them
