On Evil:

On Evil Terry Eagleton, 2010-04-06 DIV In this witty accessible study the prominent Marxist thinker Terry Eagleton launches a surprising defense of the reality of evil drawing on literary theological and psychoanalytic sources to suggest that evil no mere medieval artifact is a real phenomenon with palpable force in our contemporary world In a book that ranges from St Augustine to alcoholism Thomas Aquinas to Thomas Mann Shakespeare to the Holocaust Eagleton investigates the frightful plight of those doomed souls who apparently destroy for no reason In the process he poses a set of intriguing questions Is evil really a kind of nothingness Why should it appear so glamorous and seductive Why does goodness seem so boring Is it really possible for human beings to delight in destruction for no reason at all div Evil Luke Russell, 2014 When asked to describe wartime atrocities acts of terrorism and serial killers many of us reach for the word evil But what does it mean to say that an action or a person is evil Some philosophers have claimed that there is no such thing as evil and that thinking in terms of evil is simplistic and dangerous In response to this sceptical challenge Luke Russell shows that concept of evil has a legitimate place within contemporary secular moral thought In this book he addresses questions concerning the nature of evil action such as whether evil actions must be incomprehensible whether evil actions can be banal and whether there is a psychological hallmark that distinguishes evils from other wrongs Russell also explores issues regarding the nature of evil persons including whether every evil person is an evildoer whether every evil person is irredeemable and whether a person could be evil merely in virtue of having evil feelings The concept of evil is extreme and is easily misused Nonetheless Russell suggests that it has an important role to play when it comes to evaluating and explaining the worst kind of wrongdoing Destruction and Creation Mary Ann Mattoon, 1999 The 14th Congress for Analytical Psychology was held 23-28 August 1998 in the ancient city of Florence Italy The theme Destruction and Creation Personal and Cultural Transformations is especially appropriate to the Italian setting with that nation's history of destruction both from nature and from human activity and its tradition especially in Florence of creative individuals and institutions The theme is fitting also to the context of Jungian psychology with its emphasis on these and other pairs of opposites with their integral role in psychic wholeness Acknowledging also that destruction is indispensable to creation some Jungians prefer the term creative unconscious to the traditional collective unconscious Paradise Lost John Milton, 1750 Viewpoints on Media Effects Carol M. Madere, 2017-05-31 Viewpoints on Media Effects Pseudo reality and Its Influence on Media Consumers continues the ongoing research of media effects by illuminating not only the negative effects of media consumption but also some of the pro social aspects with a special focus on social media Recommended for scholars and researchers with an interest in media studies specifically the exploration of media effects in various media Also relevant scholars and researchers within the fields of communication studies English education and sociology Shadow Sophia Celia E. Deane-Drummond, 2021-02-25 Why do humans who seem to be exemplars of virtue also have the capacity to act in atrocious ways What are the roots of tendencies for sin and evil A popular assumption is that it is our animalistic natures that are responsible for human immorality and sin while our moral nature curtails and contains such tendencies through human powers of freedom and higher reason This book challenges such assumptions as being far too simplistic Through a careful engagement with evolutionary and psychological literature Celia Deane Drummond argues that tendencies towards vice are more often than not distortions of the very virtues that are capable of making us good After beginning with Augustine's classic theory of original sin the book probes the philosophical implications of sin's origins in dialogue with the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Different vices are treated in both individual and collective settings in keeping with a multispecies approach Areas covered include selfishness pride violence anger injustice greed envy gluttony deception lying lust despair anxiety and sloth The work of Thomas Aquinas helps to illuminate and clarify much of this discussion on vice including those vices which are more distinctive for human persons in community with other beings Such an approach amounts to a search for the shadow side of human nature shadow sophia Facing that shadow is part of a fuller understanding of what makes us human and thus this book is a contribution to both theological anthropology and theological ethics A Dramatic Pentecostal/Charismatic Anti-Theodicy Stephen

Torr, 2013-11-08 The response of Pentecostal and Charismatic churches to those suffering in their midst has generally been to seek the intervention of the Holy Spirit to bring about healing and transformation or perhaps education But what happens when the suffering continues it appears to be innocent and meaningless and God seems to be absent This study drawing on Kevin Vanhoozer's dramatic approach to theology argues that the way God calls us to perform as we seek to communicate with him amidst such situations is to lament and to do so with the aid of the Holy Spirit Rather than offering such an approach purely in opposition to the more triumphalistic responses common in Pentecostal Charismatic theology and practice this book seeks to show how a performance of lament is conducive to such theology and practice while acting as a much needed corrective to certain aspects of it What is provided here is therefore relevant reading for both scholars and pastors alike particularly of Pentecostal Charismatic church tradition who grapple with the realities of suffering and the questions such realities produce Perspectives on the Holocaust R.L. Braham, 2013-04-17 The number of books and articles dealing with various aspects of World War II has increased at a phenomenal rate since the end of the hostilities Perhaps no other chapter in this bloodiest of all wars has received as much attention as the Holocaust The Nazis program for the Final Solution of the Jewish Question this ideologically conceived diabolical plan for the physical liquidation of European Jewry has emerged as a subject of agonizing and intense interest to laypersons and scholars alike The centrality of the Holocaust in the study of the Third Reich and the Nazi phenomenon is almost universally recognized The source materials for many of the books published during the immediate postwar period were the notes and diaries kept by many camp and ghetto dwellers who were sustained during their unbelievable ordeal by the unusual drive to bear witness These were supplemented after the liberation by a large number of personal narratives collected from survivors all over Europe Understandably the books published shortly after the war ended were mainly martyrological and lachrymological reflecting the trauma of the Holocaust at the personal individual level These were soon followed by a considerable number of books dealing with the moral and religious questions revolving around the role of the lay and spiritual leaders of the doomed Jewish communities especially those involved in the Jewish Councils as well as God's responsibility toward the chosen people

Proclus: On the Existence of Evils Carlos Steel, Jan Opsomer, 2014-04-10 Proclus On the Existence of Evils is not a commentary but helps to compensate for the dearth of Neoplatonist ethical commentaries The central question addressed in the work is how can there be evil in a providential world Neoplatonists agree that it cannot be caused by higher and worthier beings Plotinus had said that evil is matter which unlike Aristotle he collapsed into mere privation or lack thus reducing its reality He also protected higher causes from responsibility by saying that evil may result from a combination of goods Proclus objects evil is real and not a privation Rather it is a parasite feeding off good Parasites have no proper cause and higher beings are thus vindicated as being the causes only of the good off which evil feeds      People of the Earth W. Gear, Kathleen O'Neal Gear, 2009-11-03 In the dawn of agriculture a young woman is caught between the love of two men who must have her and the vision given to her people long ago by the spirit of the wolf      Expositions of the Book of Psalms,

... Translated, with Notes and Indices Aurelius Augustinus (sanctus), 1849      Signposts to Silence J.S. Krüger, 2018-12-01 Signposts to Silence provides a theoretical map of what it terms metaphysical mysticism the search for the furthest most inclusive horizon the domain of silence which underlies the religious and metaphysical urge of humankind in its finest forms Tracing the footsteps of pioneers of this exploration the investigation also documents a number of historical pilgrimages from a variety of cultural and religious backgrounds Such mountaineers of the spirit who created paths trodden by groups of followers over centuries and in some cases millennia include Lao Tzu and Chuang Tzu Siddhattha and Jesus Sankara and Fa tsang Plato and Plotinus Isaac Luria and Ibn Arabi Aquinas and Hegel Such figures teachings and traditions including the religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Taoism are understood as at their most sublime not final destiny and the end of the road but signposts to a horizon of ultimate silence The hermeneutical method employed in tracking such pioneers involves four steps sound historical critical understanding of the context of the various traditions and figures reconstruction of the subjective intentional structure of such persons and their teachings design by the author of a theoretical map of the overall terrain of metaphysical mysticism on which all such journeys of the spirit are to be located while providing a theoretical context for understanding them tendentially i e taking the ultimate drift of their thinking essentially to transcend their subjective intentions drawing out within the space available some political taken in a wide sense implications from the above such as religio political stances as well as ecological and gender implications Continuing the general direction of thought within what the author endorses to be the best in metaphysical mysticism in its historical manifestations the book aims to contribute to peace amongst religions in the contemporary global cultural situation It relativizes all claims to exclusive absolute truth that might be proclaimed by any religious or metaphysical mystical position while providing space for not only tolerating but also affirming the unique value and dignity of each This orientation moves beyond the stances of enmity or indifference or syncretism or homogenisation of all as well as that of mere friendly toleration It investigates the seemingly daunting and inhospitable yet immensely significant Antarctica of the Spirit the meta space of silence behind the various forms of wordy inter relationships It affirms pars pro toto totum pro parte and pars pro parte that each religious mystical and metaphysical orientation in its relative singularity represents or contains the whole and derives value from that and that each represents or contains every other This homoversal solidarity stimulating individual uniqueness is different from and in fact implies criticism of the process of globalisation While not taking part in a scientific argument as such Signposts to Silence aims at promoting an understanding of science and metaphysical mysticism as mutual context for each other and it listens to a number of voices from the domain of science that understand this

ON THE WISDOM OF CHINA FU-CHUN PENG, 2021-08-04 Truthfully and accurately this book attempts to elucidate the nature and forms of China's ancient wisdom and reinterpret its ideological significance thereby activating its inherent vitality and promoting the construction of contemporary Chinese thought The wisdom of China with its own discourse system gives unique stipulations to existence thought and language Confucianism Taoism and Chan Buddhism as the historical manifestations of Chinese wisdom respectively express the thoughts between man and man between man and nature and between man and mind In fact these three aspects exactly constitute the whole of man's life world The thoughts of Confucianism Taoism and Chan Buddhism are mainly and respectively represented in The Four Books and Five Classics Lao Zi and Zhuang Zi and Tan Jing The Sutra of Hui Neng The wisdom of China different from the non natural wisdom of the West is fundamentally a natural wisdom according to which nature is the basis of human existence thought and language However in early modern times the natural history of China was confronted with an unprecedented crisis Ever since then China has entered the post natural era
