Far Afield Vincent Debaene, 2014-04-04 Anthropology has long had a vexed relationship with literature and nowhere has this been more acutely felt than in France where most ethnographers upon returning from the field write not one book but two a scientific monograph and a literary account In Far Afield brought to English language readers here for the first time Vincent Debaene puzzles out this phenomenon tracing the contours of anthropology and literature's mutual fascination and the ground upon which they meet in the works of thinkers from Marcel Mauss and Georges Bataille to Claude Lévi Strauss and Roland Barthes The relationship between anthropology and literature in France is one of careful curiosity Literary writers are wary about anthropologists' scientific austerity but intrigued by the objects they collect and the issues they raise while anthropologists claim to be scientists but at the same time are deeply concerned with writing and representational practices Debaene elucidates the richness that this curiosity fosters and the diverse range of writings it has produced from Proustian memoirs to proto surrealist diaries In the end he offers a fascinating intellectual history one that is itself located precisely where science and literature meet

Collected French Translations: Prose John Ashbery, 2014-04-08 An essential vibrant collection of masterful translations by one of the finest poets at work today Collected French Translations Prose the second volume in a landmark two volume selection of John Ashbery's translations focuses on prose writing Ashbery's own prose writings and engagement with prose writers through translations essays and criticism have had a profound impact on the cultural landscape of the past half century This book presents his versions of among others the classic French fairy tale The White Cat by Marie Catherine d'Aulnoy as well as works by such innovative masters as Raymond Roussel and Giorgio de Chirico Here are all of Roussel's Documents to Serve as an Outline and extracts from his Impressions of Africa selections from Georges Bataille's darkly erotic first novella L'abbé C Antonin Artaud's correspondence with the writer Jacques Rivière Salvador Dalí on Willem de Kooning's art Jacques Dupin on Giacometti and key theoretical and conceptual texts by Odilon Redon Jean Hélion Iannis Xenakis and Marcelin Pleynet Several of these twenty nine prose pieces by seventeen fiction writers playwrights artists musicians and critics are previously unpublished or have been long unavailable Many are modern classics such as Pierre Reverdy's Haunted House This book provides fresh insight into the range of French cultural influence on Ashbery's life and work in literature and the arts

Music and Trance Gilbert Rouget, 1985-12-15 Ritual trance has always been closely associated with music but why and how Gilbert Rouget offers an extended analysis of music and trance concluding that no universal law can explain the relations between music and trance they vary greatly and depend on the system of meaning of their cultural context Rouget rigorously examines a worldwide corpus of data from ethnographic literature but he also draws on the Bible his own fieldwork in West Africa and the writings of Plato Ghazali and Rousseau To organize this immense store of information he develops a typology of trance based on symbolism and external manifestations He outlines the fundamental distinctions between trance and ecstasy shamanism and spirit possession and communal and emotional trance Music is analyzed in terms of performers practices instruments and associations with dance Each kind of trance draws strength from music in different ways at different points in a ritual Rouget concludes In possession trance music induces the adept to identify himself with his deity and allows him to express this identification through dance Forcefully rejecting pseudo science and reductionism Rouget demystifies the so called theory of the neurophysiological effects of drumming on trance He concludes that music s physiological and emotional effects are inseparable from patterns of collective representations and behavior and that music and trance are linked in as many ways as there are cultural structures

Mad Muses and the Early Surrealists Justin Vicari,2011-11-08 The early surrealists attempted to create art directly from the unconscious but the resulting art often reveals the stamp of its age It is generally accepted that a certain macho sensibility prevailed within the movement excluding queer sensibilities and reducing women to object status In startling new readings of Breton Bataille Cocteau Artaud Crevel and others Justin Vicari examines the intersections between surrealism and mental illness deploying an interdisciplinary approach which includes aesthetic theory radical politics and psychoanalysis Of particular interest is the representation of the ideal woman as not only sexually available but mentally ill a hysteric muse representing a kind of authenticity lost in modern life

Raymond Roussel and the Republic of Dreams Mark Ford,2019-01-24 Raymond Roussel one of the most outlandishly compelling literary figures of modern times died in mysterious circumstances at the age of fifty six in 1933 The story Mark Ford tells about Roussel s life and work is at once captivating heartbreaking and almost beyond belief Could even Proust or Nabokov have invented a character as strange and memorable as the exquisite dandy and graphomaniac this book brings to life Roussel s poetry novels and plays influenced the work of many well known writers and artists Jean Cocteau found in him genius in its pure state while Salvador Dal who died with a copy of Roussel s Impressions d Afrique on his bedside table believed him to be one of France s greatest writers ever Edmond Rostand Marcel Duchamp Andr Breton Michel Foucault and Alain Robbe Grillet all testified to the power of his unique imagination By any standards Roussel led an extraordinary life Tremendously wealthy he took two world tours during which he hardly left his hotel rooms He never wore his clothes more than twice and generally avoided conversation because he dreaded that it might turn morbid Ford himself a poet traces the evolution of Roussel s bizarre compositional methods and describes the idiosyncrasies of a life structured as obsessively as Roussel structured his writing

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower,2022-05-15 With the possible exception of Great Britain France can justifiably lay claim to possess the richest literary history of any country in Western Europe This book covers the authors and their works literary movements and philosophical and social developments that have had a direct impact on style or content and major historical events such as the two world wars the Franco Prussian War the Algerian War or the events of May 1968 that are directly reflected in a substantial body of imaginative writing Historical Dictionary of French Literature Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on individual writers and key texts significant movements groups associations and periodicals and on the literary reactions to major national and international events such as revolutions and wars This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about French literature Absent without Leave Denis Hollier,1997-11-15 Georges Bataille Michel Leiris Roger Caillois Andr Malraux the early Jean Paul Sartre these were writers torn between politics and the pleasures of the text maturing in a world that would have no place for literature And yet Hollier shows their work profoundly affected literary enterprise in the English speaking world A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami,Monica Blackmun Visona,2013-10-22 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art Betrayal LOIS TILTON,2012-12-11 Ambassadors from all over the Federation have assembled on Deep Space Nine™ for a conference that will determine the future of the planet Bajor Keeping dozens of ambassadors happy is hard enough but soon terrorists begin a bombing campaign on the station and Commander Sisko s job becomes nearly impossible Distracted by all of this he s in no position to deal well with the arrival of a belligerent Cardassian commander demanding the return of Deep Space Nine to the Cardassian empire but he must rise to the occasion if his station and Bajor are to emerge from the crisis intact Derrida and Autobiography Robert Smith,1995-06 The work of Jacques Derrida can be seen to reinvent most theories In this book Robert Smith offers both a reading of the philosophy of Derrida and an investigation of current theories of autobiography Smith argues that for Derrida autobiography is not so much subjective self revelation as relation to the other not so much a general condition of thought as a general condition of writing what Derrida calls the autobiography of the writing which mocks any self centred finitude of living and dying In this context and using literary critical philosophical and psychoanalytical sources Smith thinks through Derrida s texts in a new but distinctly Derridean way and finds new perspectives to analyse the work of classical writers including Hegel Nietzsche Kierkegaard Freud and de Man Transparency in Postwar France Stefanos Geroulanos,2017-09-05 This book returns to a time and place when the concept of transparency was met with deep suspicion It offers a panorama of postwar French thought where attempts to show the perils of transparency in politics ethics and knowledge led to major conceptual inventions many of which we now take for granted Between 1945 and 1985 academics artists revolutionaries and state functionaries spoke of transparency in pejorative terms Associating it with the prying eyes of totalitarian governments they undertook a critical project against it in education policing social psychology economic policy and the management of information Focusing on

Sartre Lacan Canguilhem L vi Strauss Leroi Gourhan Foucault Derrida and others Transparency in Postwar France explores the work of ethicists who proposed that individuals are transparent neither to each other nor to themselves and philosophers who clamored for new epistemological foundations These decades saw the emergence of the colonial and phenomenological other the transformation of ideas of normality and the effort to overcome Enlightenment era humanisms and violence in the name of freedom These thinkers innovations remain centerpieces for any resistance to contemporary illusions that tolerate or enable power and social coercion

The Delirium of Praise Eleanor Kaufman, 2003-05-01 The laudatory essay in which one author praises the work of another is frequently characterized as an unimportant even uncritical mode of writing But as Eleanor Kaufman argues in The Delirium of Praise this mode of exchange is serious and substantial enough to merit scholarly attention By not conforming to standard practices of critical discourse laudatory essays give new status to supposedly inferior forms of communication and states of being including chatter silence sickness imbalance and absence of work and emphasize affective states or emotions such as joy friendship and longing The Delirium of Praise examines a group of five twentieth century French intellectuals Georges Bataille Maurice Blanchot Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Pierre Klossowski and their laudatory essays about each other Structured as a circular series of exchanges the book examines pairings of two thinkers with respect to a given theme The exchange between Bataille and Blanchot takes up the themes of chatter and silence with regard to the novelist Louis Ren des For ts the Blanchot Foucault exchange explores friendship and impersonality through the lens of Jacques Derrida the Foucault Deleuze exchange considers absence of work d soeuvrement and the obscure French philosopher Jacques Martin the Deleuze Klossowski exchange revolves around the question of the sick body and the person of Nietzsche and the final exchange between Klossowski and Bataille focuses on imbalanced economies and the writings of the Marquis de Sade Where the praise is most excessive approaching delirium Kaufman locates a powerful thought energy that pushes the laudatory essay to its limits In her conclusion she presents this unique mode of thought exchange as a form of intellectual hospitality Kaufman uncovers a suspension of subjectivity of personality even of place and time that is both articulated in the laudatory essays and enacted by them Her examination of this neglected mode as practiced by five important French thinkers offers a unique perspective on twentieth century intellectual history

Spirit Possession in French, Haitian, and Vodou Thought Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken, 2014-11-12 This book recuperates the important history that Haitian thought around Vodou possession has had in French critical theory The author takes the period of the 1930s and 40s as the centerfold of a more complex network of relations that places Haiti as one of the pivots of a more expanded intellectual conversation around possession which links anthropology literature psychoanalysis human rights and visual arts in France Haiti and the United States Benedicty argues that Haiti as the anthropological other serves as a kick starter to an entire French based theoretical apparatus Breton Leiris Bataille de Certeau Foucault and Butler but once up and running its role as catalyst is forgotten and the multiple iterations of the anthropological other are cast back into the net of Michel Rolph Trouillot's Savage Slot The book offers the reader unfamiliar with Haiti a comprehensive interdisciplinary study of twentieth and early twenty first century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships The Embattled Lyric Nathaniel Tarn, 2007 This book has two main subjects which are interwoven the attitudes of selected poets including Neruda Rilke Breton Celan and Artaud to the primitive and the archaic studied from an anthropologist's viewpoint and a model of the processes whereby poetry is produced and received built on the author's successful careers as both poet and anthropologist The book includes detailed biographical information about how Tarn went from being a French to an English to an American poet It also reveals the effect of a double career and of these moves on a unique body of poetry and theoretical work An extremely substantial interview serving also as an introduction to and discussion of the essays demonstrates that there is nothing like this work to be found elsewhere On Abstract Art Briony Fer, 2000-01-01 Introducing abstract painting and sculpture of the 20th century this volume explores new ways to think about abstract art and the problems of interpretation it raises Each of the ten chapters in the book addresses a particular problem associated with abstract art by focusing on specific works Poetry on & Off the Page Marjorie Perloff, 1998 The fourteen essays that make up this collection have as their common theme a reconsideration of the role historical and cultural change has played in the evolution of twentieth century poetry and poetics Committed to the notion that in John Ashbery's words You can't say it that way anymore Poetry On Off the Page describes the formations and transformations of literary and artistic discourses and traces these discourses as they have evolved in their dialogue with history culture and society The volume is testimony to the important role that contemporary artistic practice will continue to play as we move into the twenty first century The Haunted Self David Lomas, 2000-01-01 The question Who am I resounded throughout the surrealist movement The exploration of dreams and the unconscious prompted surrealists to reject the notion of a unified indivisible self by revealing the subject to be haunted by otherness and instability In this book David Lomas explores the surrealist concepts of the self and subjectivity from a psychoanalytic viewpoint Employing a series of case studies devoted to individual artists Lomas arrives at a radically new account of surrealist art and its cultural and intellectual roots Weaving together psychoanalytic and historical material the author analyses works by Ernst Dali Masson Miro and Picasso with regard to such themes as automatism hysteria the uncanny and the abject Lomas focuses closely on individual artworks examines the specific circumstances in which they were produced and offers new insights into the artists and their projects as well as the theories of Bataille Breton and others Lomas demonstrates the powerful connection between the history of psychoanalysis and the history of surrealism and along the way shows the unique value of psychoanalytic theory as a tool for the art historian BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Pedagogies of Public object of fascination for the French who celebrated their année de la Chine in 2004 Symptomatic of that fascination are the movements into China made by groups as diverse as the Jesuits who arrived in L'Empire du Milieu in the late seventeenth century and the Tel Quel intellectuals whose will to political pilgrimage took them to China Francis Bacon Michael Peppiatt, 2024-06-18 A new selection of letters statements and interviews reveals the preoccupations thoughts and ideas of Francis Bacon one of the twentieth century's most influential and important artists The documents selected for Francis Bacon A Self Portrait in Words illustrate Bacon's sharp wit and ability to express complex ideas in highly personal memorable language Included here are not only letters to friends patrons and fellow artists but also intriguing notes and lists of paintings They often come with a sketch as an aide mmoire or an injunction to himself as he worked in the studio and many have only come to light since his death Bacon's letters mirror and reveal his dominant preoccupations at different points throughout his long career Most of Bacon's letters have never been published and include several that he wrote to author Michael Peppiatt Particularly intriguing is the record of a dream that he jotted down outlining impossibly beautiful paintings he had conjured up in his sleep Together with photographs archive material and works by the artist are numerous reproductions of Bacon's characteristic handwriting from the briefest jottings and notes to more extensive letters and statements Bacon frequently came up with memorable epithets and definitions He delighted in doing with words what he set out to do in painting I like phrases that cut me Peppiatt explores the personal legacy of one of the twentieth century s most important painters and presents a compelling verbal self portrait that reveals both man and artist
