On Life And Other Paradoxes Aphorisms And Little Stories From Bert Hellinger:

On Life and Other Paradoxes Bert Hellinger, 2002 Getting Back to Love Joseph Malinak, Sarah E. Malinak, 2008-02

When a man either by hurting or pleasing his woman tries to control her he is a Mama's Boy who believes he gets his power from the women in his life When a woman either by serving or dominating her man tries to take care of him she is a Daddy's Girl who believes she will find fulfillment by taking care of the men in her life Together these personality types have great potential for passion and romance but they're also vulnerable to relationship tragedy Getting Back to Love teaches these unique people how to become masters of rather than be mastered by the Mama's Boy Daddy's Girl dynamics that threaten to sabotage their relationships Discover the steps to growing beyond the dysfunction into a relationship that has more love better passion and greater satisfaction Overtones and Undercurrents Ralph Metzner, 2017-09-12 Stories and practices from the casebook of pioneering transpersonal psychotherapist Ralph Metzner Shows how psychological problems often derive from factors not considered in conventional psychotherapy such as prenatal imprints and ancestral connections Shares 15 detailed case histories from Metzner's more than 50 years of practice Describes how guided imagery meditations yogic light fire practices and selective use of entheogenic substances can be integrated with transpersonal psychotherapy and bring about deep healing Drawing on more than 50 years experience as a transpersonal psychotherapist Ralph Metzner explores the spiritual overtones karmic undercurrents and ancestral connections that shape our individual psychologies Sharing 15 detailed histories from his casebook and the innovative practices he uses in his therapeutic sessions Metzner shows how the psychological problems we confront often derive from factors not considered in conventional psychotherapy such as birth trauma unconscious imprints from prenatal existence memories from past lives ancestral and familial soul connections and even psychic intrusions The case histories he describes include a wide spectrum of practices such as the use of quiet meditative retreat guided regressions as well as imagery visualizations amplified by entheogens He describes how tuning in with the spiritual overtones of our being and the karmic undercurrents of our lives can resolve issues such as a fear of intimacy help heal the after effects of abuse and abortion reconcile estranged parental and ancestral relationships dissolve fears left over from past incarnations and convert malignant presences into protective allies In addition to guided meditations visualizations and yogic light fire exercises the practices in his psychotherapy sessions at times include the selective use of small amounts of psychedelics mind expanding substances functioning to amplify awareness of the subtler realms of consciousness Part of each case history gives a description of the particular visualization used adding to the book's practical use as a guidebook for transpersonal psychotherapists Through the healing experiences he describes Metzner reveals how attending to karmic undercurrents and spiritual overtones can often bring about a peaceful resolution to long standing distress and spiritual alienation Plurality of Peaces in Legal Action Catalina Vallejo, 2012 This book offers an application of the transnational model of interpretation of peace into the area of legal studies By building on the idea that there are various and many times contradictory interpretations of peace in history and culture this book examines how these many forms of peace interplay in legal spheres shaping legal discourses and practices concretely those concerning the exercise of rights By arguing that different perspectives on peace influence different argumentations of rights the book challenges some of the political and legal discourses framed within the war against terror since 2001 and the resulting militarization of the Colombian society and its rights discourses Series Masters of Peace Vol 7

Geary's Guide to the World's Great Aphorists James Geary, 2008-12-08 Both an expert and a collector James Geary has devoted his life to aphorisms and the last few years to organizing indexing and even translating them The result is Geary's Guide featuring aphorists like Voltaire Twain Shakespeare Nietzsche Woody Allen Muhammad Ali Emily Dickinson and Mae West as well as international practitioners appearing in English for the first time But it is more than just a conventional anthology It is also an encyclopedia containing brief biographies of each author in addition to a selection of his or her aphorisms The book is a field guide too with aphorists organized into eight different species such as Comics Critics Icons and Painters Poets The book's two indexes by author and by subject make it easily searchable while its unique organizational structure and Geary's lively biographical entries set it apart from all previous reference works A perfect follow up to Geary's New York Times bestseller The World in a Phrase Geary's Guide is eminently suitable for browsing or for sustained reading A comprehensive guide to our most intimate idiosyncratic literary form the book is an indispensable tool for writers and public speakers as well as essential reading for all language lovers

What's Out of Order Here? Ilse Kutschera, Christine Brugger, 2025-06-26 What makes this book special is the richness of the illustrations of how symptoms of illness embody concrete events in a family and how family constellations can bring this to light with a respect that allows symptoms to recede and disappear As far as I am aware this has never before been identified and illustrated so clearly This book is a first class pioneering effort Alongside new insights it also details the concrete steps that have led to new and often surprising resolutions Bert Hellinger When a machine is out of order we look for the broken part and attempt repairs When something goes awry with the human mind body and spirit we need to look with a more holistic view for solutions This book presents the experiences of a physician and psychotherapist who has gone far beyond the parts repair approach to medical treatment to look not only at the whole person but also the entire family system using the method of family constellations The book is comprised of two parts The first is a basic explanation of the approach which was first developed by Bert Hellinger In the second part of the book practical applications of the method are documented in a wide variety of case studies Illness and symptoms are viewed in the context of larger systems and constellations are used to identify disturbances and restore a more health supporting order This report on the method of family constellations is a fascinating trip through theory and practice that offers a new concept of healing for lay readers as well as professionals The Authors Ilse Kutschera M D born in Vienna Austria in 1936 studied medicine in Graz She worked as a physician until 1998 when she retired from her position as head of a rehabilitation clinic to devote her time to her private psychotherapy practice During her career she had developed a keen interest in psychotherapy and trained in various approaches including primal therapy transactional analysis gestalt therapy NLP and Bert Hellinger s constellation work This book is an expression of her interest in integrating psychotherapy and classical medicine Christine Brugger born in Germany in 1962 is head of a radio station in the East Tyrol in Austria Through her friendship with Dr Kutschera she became interested in writing about constellation work in the medical field The book is the result of many interviews discussions and recorded case histories

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
