

PHILOSOPHICAL STYLE

- The work of Adorno consists of scientific reports (for instance 'The Authoritarian Personality'), philosophical reflections (for instance 'Negative Dialektik') and essays (for instance 'Prismen') .
- Different intellectual activities > essay, television-programmes and radio-programmes.
- Constellations > specific presentation around a subject matter > logical stringency and expressive flexibility should interact, so that the truth of the subject matter will manifest itself.
- Philosophy can unlock the historical dynamic hidden within objects whose identity exceeds the classifications imposed upon them.

On Philosophical Style:

On Philosophical Style Brand Blanshard, 1954 On Philosophical Style Brand Blanshard, 1962 On Philosophical Style B. Blanshard, 1998-11-01 Originally given in 1953 as the Adamson Lecture at Manchester University On Philosophical Style has become the classic presentation of the thesis that profundity clarity are not opposed philosophical virtues but rather required companions Blanshard begins with the question Why is it that philosophers of great perception sometimes confess a failure to comprehend certain of their colleagues And he ends with the assertion that the problem of style is not a problem of words sentences merely but of being the right kind of mind In between there is much offered in fine style short compass for those who both write read philosophy On Philosophical Style Brand Blanshard, 1967 On Philosophical Style Virpi Lehtinen, 2007 Abstract Irigaray and Le Duff diagnose the problem of woman and philosophy in terms of love The differing solutions to the problem can be found in their styles Irigaray's style is loving and dialogic transforming the inherent structure of love and reminding us of the traditional feminine position defined by men Le Duff's style is critical and pluralistic and relates to her perception of the feminine way of philosophical writing These styles take into account the undervaluation of the feminine in the apparently neutral practices of philosophizing and surpass the traditional or unreflected notions of the feminine style Ultimately the consciously subjective styles with the inherent aims of self reflectivity and openness for other persons and texts prove necessary when striving for truth and objectivity Thus Le Duff and Irigaray question the standard notion of philosophical style as neutral non style The Question of Style in Philosophy and the Arts Caroline van Eck, James McAllister, Renée van de Vall, 1995-05-11 Essays examining the historical transition in our perception of the arts and philosophy Reframing the Practice of Philosophy George Yancy, 2012-01-01 This daring and bold book is the first to create a textual space where African American and Latin American philosophers voice the complex range of their philosophical and meta philosophical concerns approaches and visions The voices within this book protest and theorize from their own standpoints delineating the specific existential philosophical and professional problems they face as minority philosophical voices Arresting Language Peter David Fenves, 2001 Concentrating on both widely known and seldom read texts from a variety of philosophers writers and critics from Leibniz and Mendelssohn through Kleist and Hebel to Benjamin and Irigaray the book analyzes the genesis and structure of interruption a topic of growing interest to contemporary literary studies continental philosophy legal studies and theological reflection Substantive Perspectivism: An Essay on Philosophical Concern with Truth Bo Mou, 2009-09-16 I have been thinking about the philosophical issue of truth for more than two decades It is one of several fascinating philosophical issues that motivated me to change my primary re active interest to philosophy after receiving BS in mathematics in 1982 Some serious academic work in this connection started around the late eighties when I translated into Chinese a dozen of Donald Davidson's representative essays on truth and meaning and when I assumed translator for Adam Morton who gave a series of lectures on the issue in Beijing 1988 which was co sponsored by my then institution Institute of Philosophy Chinese Academy of Social Science I have loved the issue both for its own sake as one specific major issue in the philosophy of language and metaphysics and for the sake of its significant involvement in many philosophical issues in different subjects of philosophy Having been attracted to the analytic approach I was then interested in looking at the issue both from the points of view of classical Chinese philosophy and Marxist philosophy two major styles or frameworks of doing philosophy during that time in China and from the point of view of contemporary analytic philosophy which was then less recognized in the Chinese philosophical circle

Defending the Gospel in Legal Style John Warwick Montgomery, 2017-10-25 Traditional apologetics is either focused on obscure quasi Thomist philosophical arguments for God's existence or on 18th century style answers to alleged biblical contradictions But a new approach has recently entered the picture the juridical defence of historic Christian faith with its particular concern for demonstrating Jesus's deity and saving work for humankind The undisputed leader of this movement is John Warwick Montgomery emeritus professor of law and humanities University of Bedfordshire England and director International Academy of Apologetics Evangelism and Human Rights Strasbourg France His latest book of more than sixty published during his career shows the strength of legal apologetics its arguments drawn from secular legal reasoning can be rejected only at the cost of jettisoning the legal system itself on which every civilised society depends for its very existence The present work also includes theological essays on vital topics of the day characterised by the author's well known humour and skill for lucid communication

On Actions, Products and Other Topics in Philosophy Kazimierz Twardowski, 1999 Kazimierz Twardowski 20 10 1866 Vienna 11 02 1938 Lvov is most commonly known as the teacher of great philosophers and the founder of the Lvov Warsaw School As a philosopher however he is primarily remembered for his famous comparison of the contents and objects of various kinds of representations a comparison that remains enshrined in European thought In fact he attained important results in many other branches of philosophy as well For instance in descriptive ontology he laid the foundations for the modern theory of formal structure of objects and he introduced the theoretically fruitful pair of terms action product In epistemology he developed a profound analysis of the notion and criteria of truth and he provided a forceful account of the errors underlying relativist theories of truth In methodology he drew an explicit distinction between the processes of discovering systematising and grounding in science and he offered accurate descriptions of the nature of psychology and other humanities In philosophical logic he offered decisive arguments on behalf of the idiogenetic conception of judgement and he improved the traditional typology of adjectives These achievements are of significance that is not only historical Kazimierz Twardowski's work formulated in plain precise language are instructive and inspiring for contemporary students of philosophy

Philosophers and Their Poets Charles Bambach, Theodore George, 2019-12-01 Examines the role that poets and the poetic word play in the formation of philosophical thinking in the modern German tradition Several of the most celebrated philosophers in the German tradition since Kant afford to poetry an all but unprecedented status in Western thought Fichte Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger and Gadamer argue that the scope limits and possibilities of philosophy are intimately intertwined with those of poetry For them poetic thinking itself is understood as intrinsic to the kind of thinking that defines philosophical inquiry and the philosophical life and they developed their views through extensive and sustained considerations of specific poets as well as specific poetic figures and images This book offers essays by leading scholars that address each of the major figures of this tradition and the respective poets they engage including Schiller Archilochus Pindar Holderlin Eliot and Celan while also discussing the poets contemporary relevance to philosophy in the continental tradition Above all the book explores an approach to language that rethinks its role as a mere tool for communication or for the dissemination of knowledge Here language will be understood as an essential event that opens up the world in a primordial sense whereby poetry comes to have a deeply ethical significance for human beings In this way the volume positions ethics at the center of continental discourse even as it engages philosophy itself as a discourse about language attuned to the rigor of what poetry ultimately expresses

An Introduction to Classical Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman, 2002 Islamic philosophy is a unique and fascinating form of thought and particular interest lies in its classical Greek influenced period when many of the ideas of Greek philosophy were used to explore the issues and theoretical problems which arise in trying to understand the Qur'an and Islamic practice In this revised and expanded 2001 edition of his classic introductory work Oliver Leaman examines the distinctive features of Classical Islamic philosophy and offers detailed accounts of major individual thinkers In contrast to many previous studies that have treated this subject as only of historical interest he offers analysis of the key arguments within Islamic philosophy so that the reader can engage with them and assess their strengths and weaknesses His book will interest a wide range of readers in philosophy religious studies and Islamic studies Philosophy and the Art of Writing Berel Lang, 1983 Dictionary of Twentieth-Century British Philosophers Stuart Brown, Hugh Terence Bredin, 2005-08-01 No Marketing Blurb Dr. Blair's Lectures on Rhetoric Hugh Blair, 1852
