Lectures on Preaching Phillips Brooks, 1898 Lectures on Preaching Phillips Brooks, 1877 Phillips Brooks a veteran minister with years of experience at the pulpit shares guidance on preaching and serving in the ministry in these lectures delivered at Yale University The nineteenth century was a time of great expansion in the United States and by extension the churches and Christian movements Demand for new preachers and ministers burgeoned that the many new communities founded had God in the hearts and minds of their inhabitants Having lived in what was an environment of upheaval Brooks felt it appropriate to pass on the wisdom and advice to prospective new ministers looking to found or join parishes around the country Making and delivering fine sermons the messages of which stay with the congregation is at the heart of what a good minister does Yet the work is not confined to merely this the preacher must be a support to the communal and spiritual life of his locality that his congregation be kept in good health and that their souls be shepherded toward a life of virtue and good conduct The preacher must also turn his attention inward his character must be examined for flaws or bad habits with virtues cultivated that he stand as a model for the wider community Manual on Preaching

Milton Crum, 1988 Lectures on Preaching Anonymous, 2024-08-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1878 A Reader on Preaching David Day, 2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate discussion and investigation It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today's culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God's message to these hearers This collection of twenty nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty five years It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole the book constitutes a first class introduction to the principles processes context and theology of preaching Contributors include Walter Brueggemann David Buttrick Fred Craddock Edward Farley John Killinger

Conversations with Barth on Preaching Bishop William H. Willimon,2010-09-01 One of today's greatest preacher theologians engages one of the twentieth century's greatest teacher theologians on the meaning of preaching Readers of William H Willimon's many books have long found there the influence of Karl Barth probably the most significant theologian of the twentieth century In this new book Willimon explores that relationship explicitly by engaging Barth's work on the pitfalls and problems glories and grandeur of preaching the Word of God The Swiss theologian says the author expressed one of the highest theologies of preaching of any of the great theologians of the church Yet too much of Barth's understanding of preaching lies buried in the Church Dogmatics and other sometimes obscure sources Willimon brings this material to light introducing the reader to Barth's thought not just on the meaning but the practice of preaching as well

Papers on Preaching and Public Speaking George Jennings Davies,1861 Thoughts on preaching [ed. by S.D. Alexander]. James Waddell Alexander,1864 Herman Bavinck on Preaching and Preachers James P.

Eglinton,2021-09-16 Dutch theologian Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 is widely celebrated as one of the most eloquent divines in the Reformed tradition Despite having preached regularly throughout his adult life how he preached and what he thought about preaching have remained largely unknown to the many preachers who read him in the present day until now This book provides an English translation of Bavinck's key texts on preaching and preachers including his only published sermon For Bavinck in order to preach well one has to be a particular kind of person someone who lives coram Deo whose conscience and imagination are open to being powerfully stirred by both Creator and the creation and who is steeped in Scripture In short he describes someone quite different from the detached disenchanted modern Western people of Bavinck's own day These texts provide a profound critique of modern Western culture and describe the sense in which it often prevents its inhabitants from preaching well Furthermore they demonstrate both how Bavinck himself preached and how he understood preaching within the worship service and the wider life of the church
