On Rafterys Hill:

On Raftery's Hill Marina Carr, 2002 THE STORY Set on the remote hill of Raftery's farm this play tells the tale of Red Raftery and his children Dinah Sorrel and Ded Removed from the civilized world of the valley Red lives by his own rules where all natural order is inverted a

Irish Theatre in the Twenty-First Century Nicholas Grene, 2024-09-27 Irish Theatre in the Twenty First Century is the first in depth study of the subject It analyses the ways in which theatre in Ireland has developed since the 1990s when emerging playwrights Martin McDonagh Conor McPherson and Enda Walsh turned against the tradition of lyrical eloquence with a harsh and broken dramatic language Companies such as Blue Raincoat the Corn Exchange and Pan Pan pioneered an avant garde dramaturgy that no longer privileged the playwright This led to new styles of production of classic Irish works including the plays of Synge mounted in their entirety by Druid The changed environment led to a re imagining of past Irish history in the work of Rough Magic and ANU plays by Owen McCafferty Stacey Gregg and David Ireland dramatizing the legacy of the Troubles and adaptations of Greek tragedy by Marina Carr and others reflecting the conditions of modern Ireland From 2015 the movement WakingTheFeminists led to a sharpened awareness of gender While male playwrights showed a toxic masculinity on the stage a generation of female dramatists including Carr Gregg and Nancy Harris gave voice to the experiences of women long suppressed in conservative Ireland For three separate periods 2006 2016 2020 2 the author served as one of the judges for the Irish Times Irish Theatre Awards attending all new productions across the island of Ireland This allowed him to provide the detailed overview of the state of play of Irish theatre in each of those times which punctuate the book as one of its most innovative features Drawing also on interviews with Ireland's leading theatre makers Grene provides readers with a close up understanding of Irish theatre in a period when Ireland became for the first time a fully modernized secular and multi ethnic society

The Theatre of Marina Carr Cathy Leeney, Anna McMullan, 2003 This is the first collection of articles to be published on the theatre of Marina Carr a major contemporary Irish playwright whose work is highly acclaimed in Ireland and internationally for its poetic energy and its remarkable theatrical imagination These essays examine Carr's highly original voice and place her plays in the context of current theatre in Ireland and abroad They raise lively debate on contemporary representation of Irishness on the stage on the current state of Irish theatre on the impact of female authorship on the canon of Irish theatre and on Carr's portrayal of characters who are fundamentally at odds with the world around them

BOOK JACKET Marina Carr Melissa Sihra, 2018-11-19 This book locates the theatre of Marina Carr within a female genealogy that revises the patriarchal origins of modern Irish drama The creative vision of Lady Augusta Gregory underpins the analysis of Carr's dramatic vision throughout the volume in order to re situate the woman artist as central to Irish theatre For Carr writing is more about the things you cannot understand than the things you can and her evocation of pastures of the unknown forms the thematic through line of this work Lady Gregory's plays offer an intuitive lineage with Carr which can be identified in their use of language myth landscape women the transformative power of storytelling and infinite energies of nature and the Otherworld This book reconnects the severed bridge between Carr and Gregory in order to acknowledge a foundational status for all women in Irish theatre Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2001 Bloody Living Rhona Trench,2010 This book deals with the process of negotiation with the past in the present through the plays of Marina Carr The title frames the work connoting the path towards destruction and the sense of lethargy acquired along the way The book offers an in depth and extensive reading of Carr s plays In doing so it surveys some of the destructive issues represented in the works and provides a series of social and cultural contexts to which the concerns in the works are related Carr is best known for her trilogy The Mai Portia Coughlan and By the Bog of Cats and more recently Woman and Scarecrow The Cordelia Dream and Marble The plays are regularly concerned with notions of identity in the context of self destruction self estrangement and displacement This book applies Julia Kristeva s theory of abjection to Carr s plays in an effort to structure the loss the author identifies in the works Themes of memory history and myth are examined in the context of these concerns in provocative and confrontational ways Marina Carr and Greek Tragedy Salomé Paul,2024-03-26 Marina Carr and Greek Tragedy examines the feminist transposition of Greek tragedy in the theatre of the contemporary Irish dramatist Marina Carr Through a comparison of the plays based on classical drama with their ancient models it investigates Carr s transformation not only of the narrative but also of the form of Greek tragedy As a religious and political institution of the 5th century Athenian democracy tragedy endorsed the sexist oppression of women Indeed the construction of female characters in Greek tragedy was entirely disconnected from the experience of womanhood lived by real women in order to embody the patriarchal values of Athenian democracy Whether praised for their passivity or demonized for showing unnatural agency and subjectivity women in Greek tragedy were conceived to re assert the supremacy of men Carr s theatre stands in stark opposition to such a purpose Focusing on women s struggle to achieve agency and subjectivity in a male dominated world her plays show the diversity of experiencing womanhood and sexist oppression in the Republic of Ireland and the Western societies more generally Yet Carr s enduring conversation with the classics in her theatre demonstrates the feminist willingness to alter the founding myths of Western civilisation to advocate for gender equality Pure-bred Dogs, American Kennel Gazette ,1958 Science Citation Index ,1992 Vols for 1964 have guides and journal lists A Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama, 1880 - 2005 Mary Luckhurst,2008-04-15 This wide ranging Companion to Modern British and Irish Drama offers challenging analyses of a range of plays in their political contexts It explores the cultural social economic and institutional agendas that readers need to engage with in order to appreciate modern theatre in all its complexity An authoritative guide to modern British and Irish drama Engages with theoretical discourses challenging a canon that has privileged London as well as white English males and realism Topics covered include national regional and fringe theatres post colonial stages and multiculturalism feminist and queer theatres sex and consumerism technology and

globalisation representations of war terrorism and trauma My Name Is Philippa Philippa Ryder, 2021-10-21 My Name is Philippa A Transgender Memoir of Love Understanding and Transformation Experience a heart changing journey with Philippa Ryder as she transitions from male to female with the support of her family This powerful and moving story explores the physical and emotional process of transitioning and provides answers to common questions about being transgender a must read for anyone seeking to understand and support the global movement towards gender freedom and empowerment

Renegotiating and Resisting Nationalism in Twentieth-century Irish Drama Scott Boltwood, 2009 The essays in this collection seek to refine our understanding of the often polyvalent and conflicted engagement that Irish dramatists have entered into with nationalism a cultural and political movement that they have often attempted to simultaneously resist and renegotiate These nine essays construct a genealogy of dissent of loyal opposition revealing the apprehension and dissatisfaction with which the twentieth century s most influential playwrights have sometimes viewed the Irish state from its emergence in the early 1900s to its maturity at the century s end The articles on W B Yeats Augusta Gregory J M Synge and Sean O Casey reveal the early Abbey Theatre s struggle to critique the failures of and influence the development of the early state and its proscriptive brand of nationalist Irishness The essays exploring the later plays of Samuel Beckett Brian Friel Frank McGuinness Anne Devlin Christina Reid Marie Jones and Marina Carr expose both the conceptual and political failures of mainstream Irishness in the second half of the twentieth century to satisfy the material or political aspirations of people on either side of the Irish border While many of this collection s essays share a common postcolonial interpretive strategy individual articles also employ the strategies of ecocriticism social anthropology structuralism feminism and nationalist theory The fifteenth volume in the Ulster Editions and Monographs series Identity in a Hyperconnected Society José

Manuel Muñoz-Rodríguez, 2022-01-01 This book is about the formation of identity primarily in adolescents and the danger inherent in creating that identity in the context of a hyperconnected world It provides scientific and regulatory pedagogical knowledge associated with these risks in creating identity primarily among young people arising from increasing and increasingly important screen connection times It proposes solutions to the educational challenges of constructing identity in a hyperconnected society The book focuses especially on the process of identity formation in this instance where both adolescents and the adults who teach them have forgotten the vital need to incorporate educational theories and principles novel experimental and basic kn any discussion of adolescent identity work Staging Trauma Miriam

Haughton, 2018-03-16 This book investigates contemporary British and Irish performances that stage traumatic narratives histories acts and encounters It includes a range of case studies that consider the performative cultural and political contexts for the staging and reception of sexual violence terminal illness environmental damage institutionalisation and asylum In particular it focuses on bodies in shadow in twenty first century performance those who are largely written out of or marginalised in dominant twentieth century patriarchal canons of theatre and history This volume speaks to students
