Perfectly Knit Together Lila Jean Newman,2012-05 I learned to knit as a way to survive life When I was broken in spirit and nothing else comforted me I picked up needles and yarn Through the magic of knitting I began to express my sorrow through stitches I spent hour after hour creating my first baby blanket borne of my sorrow I tried to forget that my own baby would never feel the warmth of my blanket and would never feel its luxurious softness and be kept safe from the world My own baby would never be cradled in this yellow blanket because of me Lila Newman was just nineteen years old when she made the decision to end her baby s life with an abortion She had no idea this choice would haunt her for the rest of her life As she endured the heartbreak of two miscarriages and eventually gave birth to and raised three children she was constantly reminded of the baby that should have been her first child Ashamed of her abortion she carried the weight of this secret with her through most of her life She didn t know if she dared to believe in God If He was real would she have to face His judgment and wrath for what she had done Could she dare to hope that one day she would be reunited with her baby in heaven May your heart be moved and your faith in God renewed as you join Lila inPerfectly Knit Together

Tears for My Mother

Burt Rashbaum, 2010-02-09 A heart bruising dive into the terror of Alzheimers This memoir like tale told through the eyes of a care giving daughter and the clouded mind of her declining mother had me racing to the final page Rashbaum cleverly weaves these two views of this harrowing journey through inner thoughts and honest dialogue to paint an un Norman Rockwell portrait of one familys struggle with this horrible disease Jay Gilbertson author of Moon Over Madeline Island and Back to Madeline Island Penning from the internal landscape of another is difficult enough but doing so from the mind of a mentally tormented soul with all the nuances of such complexity is beyond comprehension This is what Burt Rashbaum has accomplished in his brilliant portrayal of his mother as she experiences the devastation of Alzheimers Not to sound too otherworldly about this I do believe she must have guided Burt from beyond for the portrayal to have been so heartbreakingly accurate A must read for all Peggy Warren author of Very Much a Womans Book and Gathering Peace
