On Communitarian Divinity An African Interpretation Of The Trinity:

On Communitarian Divinity A. Okechukwu Ogbonnaya,1994 Ogbonnaya challenges the view that the African concept of deity is either mono or poly theistic and proposes communality as the foundational principal for African divinity He describes African cosmology and examines Tertullian's idea of the Trinity concluding that the African worldview is communitarian and the African god communal in nature

The Trinity Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2007-01-01 Unique for its breadth in studying theologians not only from Europe and North America but also from Latin America Asia and Africa this landmark volume introduces the doctrine of the Trinity examining the work and thought of contemporary theologians throughout the world Veli Matti Karkkainen provides an overview of the biblical roots of the doctrine discussing both the idea of plurality in God in the Old Testament and the rise of Trinitarian understandings in the New Testament He details the historical growth of Trinitarian traditions and delves into specific theologies both Western and non Western Also including both an introductory consideration of the doctrine's significance and a concluding assessment and agenda for future thought Karkkainen's The Trinity is the broadest and most comprehensive contemporary study on the Trinity available

Applied Afro-Communitarian Ethics and Foreign Armed Intervention Danny Singh,2024-10-10 Just war theory concerns the morality of engaging in warfare the conduct in war and justice including democratization and reconstruction in the aftermath to end war The morality of war can be measured from a variety of military and philosophical ethics that include theological consequentialist and realist schools of thought Various military interventions such as Bosnia Afghanistan and Iraq have been analyzed and evaluated and criticized from a Western and especially liberal point of view In this book Danny Singh addresses foreign interventions from a different normative paradigm Namely he addresses the morality of foreign military interventions in light of Afro communitarianism a dominant philosophical approach in sub Saharan Africa According to Afro communitarianism positive communal relationships social harmony are the greatest good that can be achieved to form friendship which can be understood as the combination of shared identity and goodwill Even though Afro communitarianism prioritizes peaceful communal relations enmity behavior and violence are morally permissible if it either leads to a less disharmonious state of affairs or to a harmonious state of affairs or there are no friendly alternatives to achieve any of both desired outcomes but the initiator of conflict desires to promote them Moreover Afro communitarianism prescribes dialogue as a guiding action to avoid military conflict The book provides an alternative and non Western approach to the morality of war and efforts to promote sustainable peace in the aftermath of conflict between warring belligerent parties

The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani Bhandari,2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue Community and Trinity in Africa Ibrahim Bitrus,2017-07-31 Community and Trinity in Africa recasts the African tradition of community from a theological perspective Ibrahim S Bitrus explains the new Trinitarian hermeneutics of God as the fundamental framework for constructing an authentic African tradition of community The book explores the tripartite structural evils of the patriarchal tradition the Big Man Woman syndrome and ethnic religious nepotism which distort the African tradition of community It analyzes Trinitarian proposals that liberate the distorted African tradition of community and concludes that an authentic African tradition of community is one that embodies individuality without libertarian individualism communality without patriarchy and mutual multi ethnic and religious relations without nepotism and domination Arguing that the communion of the Triune God is not a moral ideal but a gift for restructuring the church and society this book is an essential read for scholars of African Christianity and Christian theology

Polydoxy Catherine Keller,Laurel Schneider,2010-10-04 The essays in this book take an exciting and creative approach to doing theology in the twenty first century Leadership and Authority Titre Ande,2011-06-01 This book proposes that Christian theology in Africa can have a significant impact if a critical understanding of the socio political situation in contemporary Africa is taken seriously The Christian leadership in post colonial Africa has cloned its understanding and use of authority on the Bula Matari model which issued from the brutality of colonialism and political absolutism in post colonial Africa This model has caused many problems in churches including dysfunction conflicts division and lack of prophetic ministry The book proposes that Life Community ecclesiology can liberate authority where leadership is a function not a status and apostolic succession belongs to all the people of God This is a superb book on leadership which has implications for all in church leadership beyond the Congo Ande analyzes how church leadership has often mimicked secular models in an unhelpful way He critiques the use of power and privilege and offers an alternative model of life community ecclesiology This is an informative instructive and compelling read Cathy Ross J V Taylor Fellow in Missiology Oxford University Manager Crowther Centre for Mission Education CMS Dr Ande s book is a very important addition to the history of Christianity in the eastern Congo Democratic Republic His careful study of the growth of the Anglican church in Boga and Aru clearly and vividly explores the different dynamics of church growth in these two areas He is sensitive to the differing ways in which Ugandan Anglicanism has provided models for the development of the church in Congo by a study both of the original evangelism from Buganda associated with Apolo Kivebulaya in Boga and the more recent impact of Revivalist Christianity mediated through the West Nile during times of political confusion in both countries The historical material is used with great insight to develop a constructive theology of power and authority in the church and to critique existing structures of clerical and episcopal power Kevin Ward Senior Lecturer Department of Theology and Religious Studies University of Leeds

Rt Rev Dr Titre Ande Georges Congolese is currently the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese of Aru Democratic Republic of Congo He is a former principal of the Anglican Theological College ISThA at Bunia and still lectures at the college He has a PhD from the University of Birmingham

Embracing the Spirit Emilie Townes, 2015-03-31 This book continues the conversations begun in Emilie Townes's path breaking A Troubling in My Soul Womanist Perspectives on Evil and Suffering Once again Townes brings together essays by leading womanist theologians interweaving a concern for matters of race gender and class as these bear on the survival and well being of the African American community In Embracing the Spirit the emphasis is not on evil and suffering but on hope salvation and transformation for individuals and their communities Jacket

Tongues of Fire Frank D. Macchia, 2023-03-28 In this volume Frank Macchia offers a systematic theology written with Christ's outpouring of the Holy Spirit from the heavenly Father at Pentecost as its dominant motif Christ's death and resurrection provide for our reconciliation with God and make way for the Spirit for the divine overflowing onto all flesh The church is born in the grace of that overflowing From the abundance of this divine self giving spring forth many different tongues aflame with the church's praise and witness This systematic theology seeks to join and further guide these tongues in their diverse contexts by reflecting in a coherent fashion across the spectrum of Christian doctrine The first three chapters offer an extensive treatment of modern approaches to theology Subsequent chapters explore all of the major topics of importance to theology historically This is theology written from a Pentecostal interest yet seeking to speak beyond it to a larger ecumenical horizon

Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison, 2016-05-20 For many congregations change creates discomfort Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise experience and ability That expectation a product of modern approaches to leadership views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ's preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God's missional promptings as they move forward into God's future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation

The Trinity among the Nations Gene L. Green, Stephen T. Pardue, K. K. Yeo, 2015-11-04 Second volume of an exciting new series exploring global theology Though the global center of Christianity has been shifting south and east over the past few decades very few theological resources have dealt with the seismic changes afoot The Majority World Theology series seeks to remedy that lack by gathering well regarded Christian thinkers from around the world to discuss the significance of Christian teaching in their respective contexts The Trinity among the Nations focuses on Christian understandings of the character and work of God in various contexts The contributors highlight global trends in trinitarian theology in relation to historic Christian confessions especially the Nicene Creed and draw out the rich implications of the doctrine of God for the church and Christian living today CONTRIBUTORS Atsuhiko Asano Gerald Bray Antonio Gonz lez Samuel Waje Kunhiyop Natee Tanchanpongs C Rosalee Velloso Ewell Zi Wang Randy S Woodley K K Yeo

Ancestor Christology Cletus Chukwuemeka Nwaogwugwu, 2011-01-07 The study of the application of the title ancestor to Christ permits the author to delve into the Christological reflection in Africa today through one of the principal ways At play here is the inculturation of the faith which cannot be fully achieved without a process of theological assimilation of the fundamental parameters in the African life The thesis therefore is not only limited to a mere description of the contemporary panorama in that respect but attempts to offer a theological evaluation of the real expressive capacity of the title as it has been proposed The criterion used is therefore double In the first place the thesis tried to show that the human and the divine natures of Jesus Christ can be maintained in such a way that there is no rupture with the great tradition of the Christological councils In the second place if it is capable of responding to demands of Christology from above and from below In all this however the horizon of the debate is not occidental exegetical investigation well known by the author but from the theological ambient of sub Saharan world The conclusion is positive pondering the terms involved The work can be of great use in the christoogical endeavors of contemporary Africa as well for those who desire to delve into it Don Alfonso Carrasco Rouco director of the thesis and now Bishop of the Diocese of Lugo Spain The work of Don Cletus Chukwuemeka contains a clear description of what we may call African traditional religiosity as well as the theological efforts to inject Christianity into this cultural and religious tradition The central point of these efforts revolves around the understanding of Christ The most original aspect of this work is in the critical recourse to the figure of the ancestor or proto ancestor to present the identity of Christ in a way that is faithful to the Church tradition and at the same time significant for the religious and cultural tradition of Africa Dr Don Gerardo del Pozo Abejn Censor of the thesis Theology as Construction of Piety David T.

Ngong, 2013-12-10 This book argues that a primary purpose of theological discourses is to construct piety or spirituality If this is the case theologians need to constantly inquire into the kind of piety or spirituality which their work may construct Drawing from some important moments in the development of Christian theology such as the development of the Christian doctrine of God in the early church the role of material things in the Christianity of medieval Europe some elements of contemporary postliberal theology and the theology of inculturation in Africa the book argues that theological discourses that appear to be orthodox and innocuous may actually construct forms of piety that may diminish human flourishing The book therefore calls for an ethics of theology intended to ensure that the theologies we construct help in developing a piety that is conducive to human flourishing in the modern world especially for Africans who have suffered and continue to suffer unspeakable dehumanization The book proposes that a theology that may contribute to the flourishing of Africans in the modern world is one that constructs an interdisciplinary spirituality that takes both the spiritual and the scientific seriously

Introduction to Theology (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Frank D. Macchia, 2023-06-20 This systematic theology textbook introduces students to the complexity and beauty of theology as a pursuit of the global church today It views theology as an ongoing conversation with many voices about the wonders of God that is faithful to Scripture but is also attentive to the wisdom of tradition and the relevance of context The book first summarizes the nature and necessity of theological thinking and discusses theological method Chapters then unfold in creedal order through the various regions of Christian teaching with units on revelation God creation and providence Christology pneumatology ecclesiology anthropology soteriology and eschatology This book is part of a new series that reflects the changing face of global Christianity Series volumes are written by leading Pentecostal Charismatic scholars who highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal Charismatic students however the books are respectful appreciative and inclusive of a variety of church families and traditions Series editors are Jerry Ireland Paul W Lewis and Frank D Macchia

God at War Gregory A. Boyd, 2014-06-18 Modern Christians are often baffled by the problem of evil frequently attributing pain and suffering to some mysterious good purposes of God Gregory Boyd instead declares that biblical writers did not try to intellectually understand evil but rather grappled to overcome it

Majority World Theology Gene L. Green, Stephen T. Pardue, K. K. Yeo, 2020-12-01 More Christians live in the Majority World than in Europe and North America Yet most theological literature does not reflect the rising tide of Christian reflection coming from these regions Bringing together theological resources from past and present East and West this work engages conversations with leading global scholars on theology faith and mission for the enrichment of the entire church

Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there

Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume One Victor I.

Ezigbo,2013-08-21 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of the Christian communities from around the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

Christian Polytheism? Paul Hedges,2024-09-01 This book is a theological and political exploration of how Christianity may be compatible with polytheism arguing that there is no singular orthodoxy rather we see polydoxy Conceptually deconstructing the distinction between monotheism and polytheism it advances multi devotionism and mono devotionism as analytically preferable terminology It starts by exploring notions of polytheism in the Old er Testament New er Testament and Christian developments of the Trinity over subsequent centuries before placing Christianity in comparative dialogue with Islam Judaism and Hinduism Employing a decolonial and feminist stance the book proceeds to examine global Christianities focusing on African and Asian theologies as well as Goddess traditions It concludes by offering five options for developing a theology of Christian polytheism Henotheist originalism theologies of plurality generous orthodoxy atheistic Christian polytheism and a theology of polytheistic excess This original and compelling volume is essential reading for scholars of Christian Systematic Theology and Modern Theology

Quakers, Ecology, and the Light Cherice Bock,Christy Randazzo,2023-05-25 As the community of life on this planet experiences the anthropogenic climate crisis what tools from faith traditions can help us meet the coming challenges By expanding the metaphor of light within the Christian and Quaker traditions to include light's role in ecosystems this project develops an ecotheology of light that aims to answer this question Cherice Bock and Christy Randazzo draw on their contexts in the Religious Society of Friends placing the Quaker Inward Light in dialogue with the Bible and light in Eastern Orthodox ecological and interdependence theologies The Quaker ecotheology of light developed argues that Light is a vitally important and mutually translatable metaphor providing a common language that can aid humanity reinterpreting traditions to meet this moment with spiritual grounding to transition to a just and sustainable future for the Earth our common home Bock and Randazzo connect this ecotheology of light with implications for Friends testimonies
